

Police Grill Gangsters In Mob Shooting

NEW YORK (AP)—Police called in a stream of underworld characters today in a search for clues in the killing of bigshot mobster Albert Anastasia, rubbed out by two gunmen in a plush barbershop of a midtown Manhattan hotel.

Anastasia, 55, former boss of the Old Murder, Inc., syndicate, who assertedly fingered dozens of victims himself, was riddled with five bullets by two masked gunmen as he sat in a barber chair yesterday morning.

After pumping shots in Anastasia's head, back, hip and hand the assassins, each wearing a glove on his trigger hand, slipped quietly from the shop and apparently escaped by subway.

One of the death guns was found just outside the barbershop, the other in a pile of litter that came from a trash basket near the 55th street entrance of the BMT subway. This entrance adjoins the 32-story Park Sheraton Hotel, where the slaying took place.

A hundred detectives were assigned to search for Anastasia's murderers—and the motive behind the killing.

One ranking police official, who asked not to be identified, said Anastasia "was taking over the mob" and that professional gunmen were brought in by a rival group to thwart that ambition.

Father Returns To Find Family Asphyxiated

The migrant farm trucker returned home after an overnight vegetable hauling trip and found the six in their beds.

Coroner A. F. Dysterhelt said Mrs. Garcia, 32, and the children, Adelina, 12, George, 11, Rosendo, 9, Sylvia, 6, and Joe Jr., 1, died of accidental asphyxiation when a two-burner gas plate used to heat the cabin consumed all the oxygen in the dwelling.

Former Governor Bowerman Passes Of Heart Attack

PORTLAND (AP)—A heart ailment took the life Friday night of Jay Bowerman, 81, who served as governor of Oregon from June 17, 1910, to Jan. 8, 1911.

Bowerman had been in poor health since suffering a coronary attack last April. Bowerman, a Spanish-American War veteran, was a Condon attorney when he got into politics. He was elected twice to the state Senate and was elected president of that body in 1909.

He became governor when George Chamberlain, then the chief executive, was elected to the U.S. Senate, and Secretary of State Frank Benson, who succeeded to Chamberlain, was forced to resign because of illness.

Bowerman, a Republican, tried for election as governor after seven months in office, but was defeated by Democrat Oswald West.

That was Bowerman's last bid for political office, although he frequently attended legislative sessions as a representative of various groups.

He moved his law practice to Portland, and was an attorney for Safeway Stores and the Multnomah Kennel Club.

One of Bowerman's survivors is a son, Bill Bowerman, the track coach at the University of Oregon, and another son, Dan Bowerman, Santa Rosa, Calif.

Other survivors include the widow, of Portland, and two daughters, Mrs. Richard Rathbun, Joseph, Ore., and Mrs. William Hall, Washington, D.C.

Car Noise Target Of County Sheriff In North Roseburg

The Douglas County Sheriff's Office Friday night embarked on a new phase in its campaign to cut down automobile noise in the vicinity of a North Roseburg drive-in restaurant by jailing three youths and impounding their cars.

Jailed, and later released on $25 bail, were Harold Alva Horton, 19, 235 NE Chestnut St.; Stanley Richard Sjogren, 19, Rt. 3 Box 1320, Roseburg; and Larry Lynn Sloan, 17, 1628 SE Stephens St.

The three will appear Monday morning in the court of Calapooia District Justice of the Peace Ward Watson in Sutherlin.

The charge against the youths was use of inadequate mufflers. Their cars were impounded at Billy Mohr's Towing Service and will remain there until after the court session.

New Policy Adopted Deputy Larry Wright said the arrests marked the beginning of a new "get-tough" policy. He said residents of the area surrounding the drive-in had repeatedly complained about the noise and less drastic measures had failed to halt the violations.

"We started a policy of merely warning the violators six or seven weeks ago," said Wright, "but that didn't work so we started citing them in the courts."

"That policy wasn't successful either so now we've adopted the policy of taking them to jail and impounding their vehicles."

The deputy said the present policy will continue until the noise abates.

Continued Wright: "We don't want to be overly aggressive about it, so we're just going up the ladder—taking more and more drastic steps until the situation clears up. If jailing them and impounding their cars doesn't work, there are other measures we can take."

The UTW was ordered to agree to fire its president, Anthony Valente, and cancel a $104,000 severance agreement with resigned secretary-treasurer Lloyd Klenert.

The bakery workers were ordered to fire James G. Cross as president and reinstate ousted secretary-treasurer Curtis R. Sims, who had opposed Cross.
