Canyonville PTA Plans School Carnival Booth

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR

Canyonville PTA will sell refreshments at the coming Canyonville school carnival Friday evening. Mrs. Richard Nix, assisted by other members of the ways and means committee, will be in charge of the booth, according to Mrs. Frank Pockrus, president of the organization. During the entertainment hour of the recent meeting, music was furnished by a saxophone trio including June Brainard, Rita Brown and Andrea Gill and by Betty Moodie playing selections on her accordion. Refreshments were served by fourth grade mothers. Total membership now totals 50, Mrs. Pockrus said.

A potluck supper to be held in the Youth Center building is scheduled for the next meeting and will be held at 6:30, Nov. 21. A "surprise" speaker has been invited and people will be notified what to bring to the dinner.

Hunters Successful

The Elmer Stanleys returned recently from a hunting trip securing game at both Crooked Creek and Summer Lake in Eastern Oregon. They were guests of Mrs. Stanley's sister, Mrs. Millie Grisel, at Summer Lake. Other successful hunters included Mr. and Mrs. Leo Davidson who bagged their deer near Chemult and John Chaney who hunted at Crooked Creek.

A houseguest last weekend at the Lynn Jones home was Bill Jones of Pendleton.

The Wesleyan Guild of the Canyonville Methodist Church voted to finance painting of the church as the year's project in preparation of the coming Canyonville Centennial celebration. Next meeting will be Nov. 18, with Mrs. Norman Hanson hosts.

To Erect Signs

Canyonville Lions made plans to erect signs at both the north and south ends of Canyonville to divert tourist traffic from the U.S. 99 freeway into town at their last dinner meeting held Wednesday at the Methodist Church.

D. W. Gill is chairman of the committee to plan the signs. Besides the regular order of business, the group welcomed a visitation from the Rogue River Lions Club.

The Canyonville Jaycees held their regular dinner meeting at the Forester's Cafe. Besides discussion of other old business, the group heard a report from chairman Ervin Axt that all schools had been contacted in the Jaycees annual Voice of Democracy contest.

The Rev. Charles MacDonald of the Mt. Tabor Methodist Church in Portland concluded a series of special meetings at the Canyonville Methodist Church Thursday evening. It was the last of the series concerning the Methodist viewpoint as expressed in the Korean creed. While here, the Rev. MacDonald was a houseguest of the Rev. Ray Poindexter and was also entertained in the Bart Nordling, Oscar Hoverson, Norman Hanson and Robert Proctor homes.

Neuberger Favors Controls To Fix Inflation Ban

PORTLAND (AP) — Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore) said Sunday he is ready to vote for federal controls on prices, profits and wages, if necessary to halt inflation.

He told a meeting of Multnomah County Young Democrats that inflation in the past 17 months has brought the steepest increase in living costs of any period in our history not directly related to war.

He said that austerity, rather than tax reductions, may be the answer if this country is to prevent Soviet Russia from taking command of the stratosphere and outer space.

The senator also said he plans to seek revival of the educational provisions of the GI Bill of Rights as a means of increasing the number of U.S. scientists.

The senator said Monday that he will go to San Francisco Oct. 31, to give the Democratic Party reply to a recent talk there by Interior Secretary Seaton. He will speak at a Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner of the party.

Neuberger said Seaton recently upheld the administration's power and conservation programs and he will call for a return to the programs under which TVA, Bonneville and Grand Coulee dams were built.

Heavy Smoking-Drinking Combination Hikes Cancer Risk, Researcher Declares

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavy drinking plus heavy smoking equals greater risk of throat and mouth cancer, especially for pipe and cigar smokers, a cancer researcher said today.

Heavy drinking was defined as consistently taking seven or more shots of hard liquor a day.

Heavy smokers who do this run 10 times the risk of cancer of the larynx, of voicebox, and the mouth than heavy smokers who drink moderately or not at all.

The relative risk appears greater for pipe and cigar men than cigarette smokers, said Dr. Ernest L. Wynder, of the Sloan-Kettering Institute for Cancer Research here.

The findings apply only to drinkers of hard liquor, he told the annual meeting of the American Cancer Society. Not enough wine and beer drinkers have been analyzed yet for conclusive data.

What Alcohol "Might" Do

Wynder said he cannot tell whether alcohol alone can start the mouth and throat cancer. He hasn't enough data on heavy drinkers who aren't heavy smokers to make a comparative study.

Purely as theories, he said, alcohol might make the throat and mouth tissues more permeable to tobacco smoke, or heavy drinking making the tissues more susceptible to cancer-causing agents.

Lung cancer has been associated with cigarette smoking by some statistical studies, with little effect blamed on pipe or cigar smoking.

Wynder said pipe and cigar smokers in this new study had a higher incidence of cancer higher up in the respiratory tract.

The study is based on 209 men with cancer of the larynx, 209 men of the same ages free of cancer, 132 men with lung cancer, 543 men with cancer of the oral cavity and 207 patients who had either non-cancerous sores of the head, neck or chest or cancers of the lower gastro-intestinal region.

Danger Of War Worst In 10 Years, Billy Says

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Graham says the danger of war is greater now "than at any other time in the past 10 years."

The evangelist told a religious rally of 40,000 persons at the Polo Grounds Sunday that President Eisenhower should "tell the American people exactly where we stand."

"The American people are not children," Graham declared. "They want the facts straight from the shoulder. The President is the only person with the prestige and confidence of the American people to call this nation into a period of sacrifice, renewed dedication and a return to God."

He predicted the downfall of the United States unless Americans follow the ways of God.

Graham reviewed the perils facing the nation and said a congressman had told him that there is a strong element within the Kremlin that believes that Russia should attack the United States within the next two years.

He said it would be "most unfortunate" if Eisenhower should say a yea in a forthcoming speeches that would give the American people a "false sense of security."

Graham did not identify the congressman.
