

Soldier Has Big Hospital To Self For Just One Day

WALTHAM, Mass. (AP) — For the rest of his life, soldier James Martin will be able to look back on Wednesday Nov. 20, as the day when he had:

- His own 515-bed hospital for the cure of his broken leg.
- A staff of 15 persons to serve him.
- Ten physicians to treat him alone.
- Nurses to answer his buzzer.
- A detachment of military policemen to protect him.
- A post exchange to serve only him.
- A theatre in which he and the hospital staff viewed one of the latest movies.
- His pick of beds.

But that was Wednesday, Thursday Martin shipped to Fort Devens hospital.

Martin, a resident of West Roseburg, was the last patient at Murphy Army General Hospital. All the other patients had been transferred before him in advance of the hospital's closing on Dec. 31. Martin broke his leg while on duty in Germany. He was transferred to the United States for treatment.

TWO HUGE DRYERS at the new plywood plant under construction by U. S. Plywood Co. in Roseburg are taking shape above. The company expects to begin production at the new plant next February and has been flooded with applications for employment. Installation of the dryers began two and one-half weeks ago and the job is about one-third complete now. The longer of the two dryers (one on the left) includes some 20 sections and the shorter one is 16 sections long. They are as large as veneer dryers generally are constructed, according to C. W. Dosskey, Portland, erecting engineer for Coe Manufacturing Co. The two installations total about 300 tons all told. (Paul Jenkins)

County Health Doctor Speaks To Riversdale Extension Unit

By ADDIE SCHNEIDER
Dr. Mary Soules of the county health department spoke to the Garden Valley-Riversdale Home Extension Unit recently on Asian Flu.

She stressed the fact of being careful of complications caused by the flu, rather than the disease itself. She also urged everyone to use the vaccine against the flu.

Another topic was the discussion of polio shots for people 40 years old and over. Although the primary concern has been for children, the availability of the serum is plentiful and adults are encouraged to secure its protection, Dr. Soules said.

Attention was called to the child guidance clinic in the health department. Aid to emotionally disturbed children is given by competent physiologists.

The project on suitable dress for the occasion was led by Mrs. Kirk Hardick and Mrs. Millard Doyle.

Returns From Phoenix

Mrs. F. Graham Ewens has returned from a two weeks vacation in Notus, Idaho. She stayed with her grandson while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, attended a convention in Phoenix, Ariz., and enjoyed a visit with them when they returned.

Karen Mayfield, Medford, was a weekend houseguest of Donna Esselstrom. Mrs. Wilford Laird, Coquille, visited Mrs. H. A. Esselstrom while her husband attended the Shrine ceremonial Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Spray drove to Hood River Sunday to bring her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Houston to Garden Valley for a weeks visit.

Mrs. Pete Sinclair, who has been convalescing from major surgery at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eddie Kohlhaugen in Huerfano, expects to return to her home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Denton and family took Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denton to Medford this week where the Frank Dentons took the plane for Memphis, Tenn. They had an overnight stop with their son, Bob, and family in Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Denton left with their trailer house this week to spend the winter months at Jupiter, Fla. with Mr. and Mrs. John Denton.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Teeter and Ernest drove to Eugene Sunday to attend the Black Angus fall show and sale.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON — Donald Lynn Cooper, 17, right, is shown receiving congratulations from his father, Lynn, left, for joining the U. S. Navy in Roseburg. The youth is going into the service today, exactly 23 years after his father entered. The elder Cooper shipped in on Nov. 21, 1934. He retired three years ago as a chief hospital corpsman. Young Donald is a 1957 graduate of Oakland High School. He will go to San Diego, Calif., for basic training. At center is Navy recruiter, Chief Charles Warren. (News-Review photo).

FTC Charges TV Picture Tubes Misrepresented

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) Thursday charged Muntz TV Inc. of Chicago with exaggerating the size of the picture tubes in its television receivers and misrepresenting that the sets are sold directly from the factory.

A commission complaint said the horizontal measurements of viewable area of the picture tubes in the Muntz sets are not 21, 24 and 27 inches as claimed, but considerably less. These claimed sizes, the FTC said, appear in the company's newspaper advertisements and are marked on the sets themselves.

FTC also said the sets are not sold directly to the purchaser from "factory outlets," but are sold by retailers who buy the appliances from Muntz. The FTC noted that many purchasers prefer to deal directly with manufacturers or factory outlets, in the belief they will get lower prices and other advantages.

The commission said these alleged practices deceive the public and divert trade unfairly from competitors. Thus, FTC said, they violate the law.

The company and its president, Earl W. Muntz, were given 30 days in which to file answer to the complaint. A hearing is scheduled before an FTC examiner in Washington next Jan. 21.

Washington To Add More Radar To Catch Speeders

OLYMPIA (AP) — Plans for adding about 20 more radar sets to help catch speeders and cut down traffic accidents were disclosed Wednesday by Roy Betlach, chief of the Washington State Patrol.

He said he also hopes to extend the hours of patrolling the highways.

The patrol now has 10 radar sets in use, Betlach said. "We will have about 30 in use when the program is completed," he added.

Betlach said about 100 additional men will be added to the Patrol during the current biennium.

"Even with the 100 additional, we won't have enough for an around the clock patrol in all areas," he commented.

"Our first goal is for an around the clock check on the two main highways, U. S. 10 and U. S. 99," Betlach continued. "We hope to achieve that goal sometime near the end of the biennium."

Chainsaw Birthday Draws Local Man

Carl J. Peetz of Roseburg, who is considered the first dealer of Omack Industries, Portland, manufacturer of saw chains, will attend ceremonies Friday celebrating the 10th anniversary of the company.

The ceremony at which he will be honored is scheduled in Portland, birthplace of the company. The firm was started in 1947 in the basement of a Portland home. It was founded as the Oregon Saw Chain Corp.

Peetz recalls the impact of the chain saw when it first came on the market. He said when he first began selling chainsaws in Castle Rock, Wash., the average price was over $700 per instrument. The saws weighed about 125 pounds and it took two or three men to handle them.

Peetz moved to Roseburg in 1949 where he purchased a chainsaw dealership, which he has operated since.

Oregon Metalurgical Corp. Gets Contract

ALBANY, Ore. (AP) — The Oregon Metalurgical Corp. has received a four million dollar contract from Westinghouse Electric Corp. to produce zirconium ingots.

Stephen M. Shelton, general manager of Oregon Metalurgical, said the contract calls for production of about 250,000 pounds of the metal in ingot form.

The actual metal, the property of the Atomic Energy Commission, is produced by the Wah Chang Corp., of Albany.

The Oregon Metalurgical plant employs 110 persons in its ingot-making operations. Shelton said he did not expect the labor force to be expanded much by the new contract.

Chinese Execute Anti-Communist

HONG KONG (AP) — Peiping Radio Thursday reported the execution of "counter revolutionary" Lo Chi-Kuei, accused of fomenting the 1943 murders of Mao Tze-Tung's brother and two other senior Communists.

The broadcast said he was executed Nov. 6 after the Supreme Court in Peiping upheld the death sentence.

Lo was arrested in June, 1956, and sentenced by a municipal court to 20 years imprisonment. The Peiping Peoples Daily said a new trial was ordered after a "flood of protests" that the sentence was too lenient.

Lo was retired October, 1956, and sentenced to death by the Liaoning Provincial Supreme Court in Manchuria.

Mao Tze-Min and the other two senior Communists were murdered in 1943 while in jail in Singkiang where Lo was a ward officer. The Peoples Daily said Lo killed more than 250 Communist Party members and innocent people during his service in the Nationalist regime.
