

THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS and Pythian Sisters of Roseburg held an informal reception at the KP Hall Saturday to honor Thomas Hartfiel, local attorney at law, who has been elected to serve the coming year as vice chancellor commander of the Knights of Pythias of the Grand Domain of Oregon. Bringing greetings from Grand Lodge were the Grand Chancellor Commander Claude Kelley, of Bend, and Pres Hart of Eugene, who is chairman of the Grand Tribune. The delegation from Eugene also included Daphne Schainch, who is serving as Grand Guard in the Oregon Grand Temple of Pythian Sisters. Pictured above is the Grand Chancellor Commander Claude Kelley; Most Excellent Chief Grace Helvey, and Mrs. Hartfiel, grand vice chancellor.

Entertainment for the evening was furnished by a troupe of dancers from the Joy Powell Dance Studio composed of Barbara Ladd, Carolyn Schermer, D Ann Fullerton, Janis Norman, Connie Rushon, David Martin, Kathy Cardiff, Joey Heidricks, Nancy Martin, Pixie Fitch, Marilyn Fiskin, Jimmy Beecroft and Sherry Watson. Also appearing on the program were Terry Russell and Susan and Mary Lou Engdahl, who performed as an acrobatic duo.

Following the entertainment refreshments were served in the diningroom. Both the hall and the diningroom were decorated in fall flowers and white candles. The balance of the evening was devoted to dancing.

Mrs. Savage Hostess To Duplicate Club

Mrs. Robert H. Savage entertained her duplicate bridge club at her lovely home on SE Claire Avenue Monday afternoon. Large bouquets of firehorns were used about the rooms. The tea table, covered by a very beautiful Chinese cutwork linen cloth, was centered with an arrangement of pink and white chrysanthemums and ferns flanked by tall white candles.

Mrs. George Wharton and Mrs. Ivan Pickens were guests and members enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Savage were Mrs. Kenneth Kirk, Mrs. Leonard W. Riley, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, Mrs. Frank Long and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

High scores for the afternoon's duplicate bridge play were won by Mrs. Savage and Mrs. Louie Lovely refreshments were served at the tea hour by the hostess.

Country Club Women To Hold Holiday Party

Women of the Roseburg Country Club met at luncheon Thursday at the clubhouse followed by the contract bridge play. High score was won by Mrs. Lennart Carlson with Mrs. Chester Thompson winning second high and Mrs. Robert Ganz third.

The Christmas party for members only is planned for Dec. 19 with a social hour at 10:30 a.m. and luncheon at noon. Members are asked to bring a gift for exchange and a wrapped gift for the County Home. Reservations for the party must be made not later than Tuesday, Dec. 17, by calling Mrs. Harold E. Schmeer, OR 3-4082, or the clubhouse.

The Thursday, Dec. 12, meeting will be held at a noon luncheon instead of a brunch as previously planned.

Dinner Honors President Of Rebekah Assembly

Members of Roseburg Rebekah Lodge gathered at a dinner to honor Mrs. Mary Barker, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, preceding her official visit to the lodge. The dinner was served in the IOOF Hall dining room by Mrs. Ruth Bradley at tables beautifully decorated by Mrs. Fred Hermann, Mrs. Mary F. Pickens, Mrs. Sig Felt and Mrs. Myrtella Canaday.

This same committee decorated the lodge room using the colors of the president, silver and blue. Seated at the head table were Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Olga Bellman, marshal of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon; Mrs. Clair Brock, Noble Grand; Mrs. O. C. Langfield, vice-grand of the Roseburg Rebekah Lodge; Mrs. Ethel Bailey, Past President of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon; and Miss V. Vivian Logsdon, a member of the budget committee of the Assembly.

The regular meeting of the lodge followed with Mrs. Brock and Mrs. Langfield in their respective offices. Mrs. Lynn Hanna, Mrs. V. T. Jackson and Mrs. Glenn Beach escorted Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Bielman into the lodge room and Mrs. Bielman introduced Mrs. Barker to the lodge. Mrs. Barker having requested money in lieu of a corsage was presented a coin corsage. She will use the money to purchase beauty shop equipment for the IOOF Home in Portland.

Mrs. Barker introduced the following members of her official family: Miss Lura Morgan, Chairman of Perpetual Membership Fund; Mrs. Ted Bloom, Deputy District President of the Roseburg Lodge; Mrs. Ethel Bailey, Past President; V. T. Jackson, Past Grand Master, and Miss V. Vivian Logsdon member of the budget committee.

The Rebekah Degree was conferred upon Mrs. Matilda Rapelle. Tableaux were directed by Mrs. Daum and the drill team of 16 members was directed by Paul Carey, degree staff captain.

Election of officers resulted as follows: noble grand, Mrs. O. C. (Vesta) Langfield; vice - grand, Mrs. James (Bernice) McDonald; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry (Gertrude) Hatfield; financial secretary, Miss V. Vivian Logsdon; treasurer, Mrs. Reba Hartfiel. It was voted to have a Christmas party Dec. 10, with the officers in charge of arrangements. A cash gift to the lodge was requested and a committee was appointed to purchase later an item useful to the lodge.

Mrs. Barker told of many changes in lodge laws and procedures as well as interesting incidents of previous visits to other lodges. Some pointers for improving work in the local lodge were given also. Following the meeting refreshments were served in the dining room by Mrs. Ruth Bradley. Tables and chairs had been rearranged in a cozy fashion.
