

Sharon Lee Mattoon Becomes Mrs. Heintz

Miss Sharon Lee Mattoon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mattoon of Ridge, became the bride of Rudolph C. Heintz, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Heintz of Tigard Saturday, Nov. 16, at St. Cecilia's Catholic Church in Beaverton, former home of the Mattoon family. Father Michael Fleming officiated at the ten o'clock morning ceremony before an altar of white chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length gown of white silk lace over tulle and a fingertip veil held in place by a cap of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered with a single white orchid.

Miss Catherine Moore, maid of honor, wore a street-length frock of pink lace over tulle with matching headpiece of dotted net in short veil style. Bridesmaids Miss Judy Mattoon, sister of the bride, Miss Caroline Heintz, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Caroline Keuhn, all wore similar gowns and veils in blue. Each carried a single rose tied with ribbon.

The two flower girls, Pamela Sue Mattoon and Sandra Saxton, sister and cousin of the bride, wore dresses of pink tulle with matching pink rosebud nosegays. Ring bearer was Scott Saxton, cousin of the bride, who carried the rings on a satin and lace cushion used at the wedding of two of the bride's aunts.

Best man was Elmer Setniker. Miss Shirley O'Halloran and Miss Mary Heintz sang the wedding songs.
