Glendale Play Cast Will Perform At Grants Pass

By MRS. GERALD B. FOX

The Glendale Eastern Star presentation of the three-act comedy, "Aaron Slick from Punkin Creek," was well received by a large crowd.

The cast has been invited to present the play again Jan. 11 at the Fruitdale Grange in Grants Pass, under the sponsorship of the grange group there.

Mrs. J. J. Davis, for 36 years a mission in the Belgium Congo for the Methodist Church, was the evening speaker last Sunday at the Glendale Mission Baptist Church.

Clifford Morris of Azalea received word from Yakima, Wash., that his father is critically ill there. Morris left for Yakima Friday morning.

Johnny McDonald of Glendale, who has been undergoing medical treatment at the Veteran's Hospital in Roseburg, is reported to be making satisfactory improvement and may be well enough to come home for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bell of Glendale and Grants Pass, have moved to Los Angeles, Calif. He was transferred by Standard Oil to the Los Angeles plant.

Mrs. Bill Morrow and two children, moved about two weeks ago to Portland, where she rejoined her husband who is now employed there.

Receives Treatment

Mrs. Phyllis Neal entered the Forest Glenn Hospital in Canyonville for medical treatment. She had been under a doctor's care for three days previously at their home. She has been dismissed.

Mrs. Richard Hutson, daughter of Mrs. John Mendenhall of Glendale, entered the Forest Glenn Hospital for tests and surgery. She is reported to be making a satisfactory improvement.

Mrs. Fred Bevil of Glendale spent last weekend at West Linn, visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gordon. Miss Fern Heskett, of Oregon City, returned with her for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Pryce Wells underwent a tonsillectomy at the Forest Glenn Hospital recently.

Woody Poole of Glendale, who was rushed by ambulance to the Josephine Hospital in Grants Pass after an accident at the Robert Dollar Peeler plant, is reported to be better. Poole was struck in the chest by a log which broke while being peeled. X-rays showed one broken rib in addition to severe bruises.

Logging Accident

Hollis C. Johnson entered the Forest Glenn Hospital Sunday evening for treatment of an injury received that afternoon while working for Tom Johns Logging Company on Dad's Creek. Johnson was struck in the back hip by a sapling which flipped back up after being held down by a log which was pulled across it. X-rays showed no fracture, but Johnson suffered severe bruises and strains.

Mrs. Edith Holmgren and baby, Mark, were released from the Forest Glenn Hospital after treatment for injuries in a recent collision with a gravel truck. Judy Holmgren was released the following day. The right side of her face was badly cut up in the same accident. She is wearing a patch over her right eye because of a ruptured blood vessel, and must wear an elastic bandage on a sprained wrist.

The Glendale Garden Club, with individual members being responsible for specific plants, made and put up on store fronts along Pacific Avenue in Glendale, a variety of Christmas trees.

Wonderful Christmas Present Gives Little Girl A Sound Heart

SEATTLE — "The most wonderful Christmas present ever" has apparently left little Sandra Ingram, 6-year-old Pocatello, Idaho, girl with a sound heart and a deep feeling of gratitude.

The little girl, who was operated upon just a week ago to correct a congenital heart defect, met newsmen Thursday with a happy smile in a hospital room festooned with Christmas cards and presents.

Surgeons from the University of Washington Medical School who performed the difficult three hour and 45 minutes operation said Sandra has had a week of satisfactory recovery and is making excellent progress.

"All heart murmurs have disappeared," the surgeons reported, "indicating complete correction."

Sandra, still a bit too weak to be certain of going home for the holidays, said she really didn't mind because the doctor gave me the most wonderful Christmas present ever.

"I don't want anything else," she said, "besides a full slip," which every little girl wants in her wardrobe.

Mr. and Mrs. Vearl Ingram, the parents, looked as if the slip was in Santa Claus' bag—along with lots of other things.

Editorial Writer Leaves Own Obituary

NEW YORK — Lowell Limpus, 60, on the editorial staff of the New York Daily News for 33 years, died Thursday of natural causes in his Manhattan apartment. He left behind his own obituary, found in a sealed envelope and marked "Hold for Release."

Explained the document: "This is the last of the 8,700 or more stories I've written to appear in the news. It's an exclusive, too."

Limpus joined the News in 1924 and served as reporter, copy editor, night city editor, feature writer, political writer and war correspondent. He also was the author of several books.
