Also receiving awards but not shown are: Donald Roth, Glenwood Malone, James Eaton, Claude Conaway, John Kelly, Mildred Cook and Albert Marx.

Melrose Woman's Mother Passes At Oregon City

By NETTIE WOODRUFF

Mrs. Erwin Stinner of Melrose was called to Oregon City last week by the death of her mother, Mrs. Von Borstel.

Son Visits

Roger Brinkman has returned to his Air Force Base in California, after a short visit during the holidays with his family, the Ted Brinkmans.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson drove to Eugene Thursday to join their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Stenland, of Westport for dinner and celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

James Tjomsland and family of Reedsport were visiting Christmas day at the home of his parents, the Robert Tjomslands. The former's son, Ted, was here from the Great Lakes training center en route to Navy training in San Diego, Calif.

Wanda Sue Johnson, a small daughter of the Charles Johnsons, underwent a recent tonsillectomy. Harry Nichols, former resident now in Army training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., called at the Fred Miller home during the holidays. He was visiting his parents in Wilbur.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Nora Haines were her sister, Mrs. R. F. Filva, and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Haines and two children of Merlin.

Confined To Bed

Henry Scott has been confined to bed for the past several days with flu.

Charles Hall has returned to his work with Roseburg Lumber following a siege of pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Carol Sensabaugh and children spent the holidays in Seattle, Wash., with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradley and son, Bob, Steve Chitwood and Tim Doyle went to the Willamette Pass to ski recently.

Holiday visitors at the Michael Wootton home included her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Santti, and June and Dale of Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Graves and family of Eugene spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hagan.

Children Visit

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bursik were their daughters, June Bursik, Mrs. Joe Laurence, and husband and children of Coos Bay, and Mrs. John Mulvihill and children of Coquille.

Spending Christmas at the Andrew Artmenko home were his mother, Mrs. Mary Artmenko, of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and Harold Ottman of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Bursik have moved to Roseburg. Former local resident, Darrell (Doc) Davis, of Lancaster, Calif., called on friends in Melrose during the holidays. He and his family were visiting relatives in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alberding and children spent several days last week with relatives in Tillamook. L. W. Sayers of California is spending some time with his sister, Mrs. Sam Tate, while Mr. Tate is in the hospital in San Francisco.

Rev. and Mrs. Calvin Harrah and children spent Christmas day in Eugene with her sister, Mrs. Don Stump, and family.

Holiday guests at the Howard Kaiser home were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Christianson, of North Bend.

Riddle Lighting Winners Listed

By ERMA BEST

The Austin Wilson home was again winner in the grand prize division of the home lighting contest sponsored by the Riddle Chamber of Commerce.

This is the second year they have won the present trophy, which must be won for three consecutive years to become a permanent possession. The Wilsons now possess two cups won over two three-year entries. The second prize in this division went to the R. E. Paetz residence, and the third to the Wayne McCoy home.

In the newcomer category, first prize went to the Merle Branch home; second prize to the Everett Cockrell home; and third prize to the William Markham home.

Receiving honorable mention were the homes of George Aker, Shelley Brown, Darrell Carter, E. Coleman, William Dickson, Otto Griffith, Robert Linder, Tex Ritter, Lewis Rosser, Roy Shobert, Kenneth A. Stuart, and Guy Townsend.

Trophy and cash awards will be made sometime in January according to William Strobridge. The appearance of the interior of the Veterans Memorial hall has been enhanced by the addition of 15 new light fixtures. The installation was made possible through the efforts of Ricky Powell and Harry Dayton of Riddle, and Fred Cornelius and Ed Sweeney of Myrtle Creek who donated the labor.

Umpqua Church Sets Missionary Speaker Sunday

By MRS. GEORGE MUNSON

Mrs. Elsie Arzoo, a missionary from the Philippines, will be the guest speaker at the morning services of the Umpqua Sunday School Jan. 5, at 10 a.m. in the Community Hall.

She was an Oregon girl and taught with the American Sunday School Union here. She has been in the Islands for many years.

Enters Hospital

Mrs. Kathryn Roeder, who has been ill at her home for some time, was taken to a local hospital on Wednesday where she is receiving medical treatment.

Mrs. Bessie Edwards left Saturday for Centralia, Wash., where she was called by the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alfred Edwards.

Dale Swinehart returned home Saturday from a local hospital where he underwent surgery. He is improving satisfactorily. Another Douglas County landmark was destroyed by fire Friday night. It was the Old Day Schoolhouse, which stood on the Eva Abraham ranch near Umpqua since 1877. It was built by private contributions by residents of the community and all eight grades were taught there until 1947, when the district was consolidated. The cause of the fire has not been determined. It was completely destroyed.

Glide PTA Plans First Meeting Of Year Monday

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY

The Glide PTA will hold its first meeting of the new year Jan. 6 at 8 p.m. in the high school multipurpose room.

Ronald Hicks, wrestling coach, will present an exhibition of a group of high school student wrestlers. Second and sixth grade parents are requested to bring cakes.

Teachers Return

Glide teachers returning to school Monday reported on their vacations. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maxwell, seventh and first grades respectively, spent three days and Christmas eve at the home of Maxwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Wagner at Alpine, then went to Astoria for Christmas day with Mrs. Maxwell's mother, Mrs. Jane Nicholson and the three days following.
