

Bills Would Keep Dairy Supports

WASHINGTON — Identical bills by Sens. Thye (R-Minn) and Humphrey (D-Minn), designed to prevent a drop in dairy price supports April 1, are ready for introduction Thursday after President Eisenhower delivers his State of the Union message to Congress.

The Minnesota senators had planned to introduce them Tuesday at the opening of the second session of the 85th Congress. But the parliamentarian ruled that all Senate bills must be held up until after the State of the Union message.

The bills are designed to prevent reduction of dairy price supports from 83 to 75 per cent of parity, which Secretary of Agriculture Benson has scheduled for April 1.

Humphrey's office said other co-sponsors on his bill include Sens. Neuberger (D-Ore), Morse (D-

Two Douglas Motorists Lose Driving Privileges

Two Douglas County motorists lost their driving privileges for a year for operating vehicles while their operators' licenses were suspended.

Year suspensions were handed to Bernard Edward Bean, 29, 1124 W. Military Ave., and Thomas Adrian Conley, 26, Rt. 1 Box 290A, Sutherland, according to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Because of their driving records, two received 30-day suspensions: Peter Hampton Gourley, 50, Oakland, and Leon Russell Scott, 26, 3485 W. Harvard Ave.

PARIS — Interpol, the international police agency, said Monday that Joseph Joanovic, scrap-metal dealer who owes a billion-franc fine to the French treasury, has sought refuge in Israel.

Two Attendants Will Guard Criminal Ward

SALEM — Two attendants, instead of the usual one, will guard the criminal ward at the state hospital during the 11 p. m. to 7 a. m. shift, the board of Control decided Tuesday.

Doubling of the guard was recommended by Dr. Dean Brooks, hospital superintendent, as a means of preventing frequent escapes. Two men escaped from the ward several days ago, but were recaptured.

Dr. Brooks said that the criminal ward contains 54 patients, some of them "the worst in the state from the standpoint of criminal behavior and danger."

Roseburg Area Has More Businesses Now Than In 1956

A business survey report by Dun & Bradstreet Inc., Portland credit rating bureau, for the past year, claims that there are more business concerns in Roseburg today than in 1956, according to the bureau's district manager, J. Harry White, Portland.

Figures obtained are from a physical count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for November, 1957, which lists 530 manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, compared to 492 listings in Roseburg for 1956—an increase of 38 such businesses.

Not included in the listings are some of the service and professional businesses such as barber and beauty shops, stock and real estate brokers. According to the report, the figure thus for businesses in Roseburg actually would be higher than the number quoted above.

In the only other survey made in Douglas County, the Dun & Bradstreet report shows Reedspport holding steady with 93 businesses in both the November, 1956, and November, 1957, listings.

The credit reporting agency mailed over 3 million requests for financial statements on January 1, to all businesses listed in the Reference Book. The Portland office mailed approximately 30,000 such requests to firms in Oregon and Washington and the financial statements received provide a basis for a credit rating.
