Four Nominations Sent To Senate By President

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower sent to the Senate Monday the nominations of four officials he previously had said he intended to appoint.

They include three members of the Interstate Commerce Commission — Abe McGregor Goff of Moscow, Idaho, who has been general counsel of the Post Office Department; Anthony F. Arpaia of New Haven, Conn., and Rupert L. Murphy of Atlanta, Ga. Arpaia and Murphy already are serving on the commission.

Eisenhower also formally nominated Leverett Edwards, an Oklahoma City Democrat, for another term on the National Mediation Board.

All the nominations are subject to confirmation or rejection by the Senate.

BEAUTY FOR PUBLICITY

PORTLAND — The queen of last year's Rose Festival, joined by the queen of Seattle's Seafair, will fly to New York Tuesday for a series of appearances aimed at publicizing the Pacific Northwest events. Alice Eastman is the Rose Festival queen and Sandra Teslow the Seafair ruler.

Aluminum Co. Will Reduce Labor Force

BAUXITE, Ark. — Aluminum Co. of America reduced the labor force at its Bauxite plant of about 135 employees, effective Saturday.

About 35 mining employees and about 100 refining employees will be out of work. Curtailed production of primary aluminum at Alcoa smelters has lessened the demand for alumina and hence for these employees.

The cut represents about 10 percent of the total labor force of 1,300.

WORKS LIKE A FINE WATCH—how we make the telephone work so reliably you can take trouble-free calling for granted

Here's a lifetime guarantee for you: You never have to pay an extra cent for repairs on your phone. And trouble calls on it are few and far between. That's because phone men like Mike Hernon, top picture, keep it working with the precision of a fine watch. And, over the years, we've come up with new parts that make your phone more and more dependable to use. New cords, for instance. Dials that are easier to read, work more reliably. Better transmitters to start your voice on its way. More sensitive receivers to help you hear better. By making your phone work more dependably, we bring you better service. And by repairing it at no charge, we help make your phone more valuable to you.
