

State Officers Visit Veterans Hospital Here

The Roseburg Veterans Hospital was visited Sunday by Bill Manley of Eugene, Disabled American Veterans commander, Department of Oregon, and Pearl Zeek of Waldport, DAV Auxiliary commander, Department of Oregon. They were accompanied by Department Hospital Chairman Nancy Wulf and Alternate Department Chairman Charles McCoy. The DAV and auxiliary from Eugene were also represented by Commander Urban Ebner, Mrs. Louise Manley, Jack Vaughn, Art Flynn, Archie Zeek, and Martha Beupert. They distributed apples, cigarettes, books, candy and magazines. They also brought members of Eugene Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 293 and auxiliary, including: Mr. and Mrs. Jess Barr, L. Head, W. Johnson, Mrs. Mary Gates, Mrs. Ruth Page, and Mrs. Bernice Dewdney.

Party Held
The Red Cross held its monthly birthday party on Monday for those patients having birthdays during January. Entertainment consisted of a jazz dance orchestra from Roseburg High School. Members of the group were: Bruce Phillips, Don Loomis, Morris Kelly, Jerry Frear, and John Sandquist. They were accompanied by Barbara Gadoway.

Jan. 16, the first meeting of the season for the Veterans Speechcrafters Club was held. Mrs. Ruth Chandler and Mrs. Emily McCullum of the Roseburg Toastmistress Club, Mrs. Fred Albertus, Mrs. E. R. Leshar and Mrs. Nick Kobernick of the Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club and Charles Slabaugh of the Roseburg Toastmasters Club were the volunteers who assisted with the meeting. Thursday, the Ward Four dance will be held at 9:30 a.m. in the ward and will be sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary. Volunteers have been invited to attend.

Canyonville School Budget Meet Slated

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR
The first budget meeting of the Canyonville School District is scheduled next Monday night at 7:30.

Anyone interested may attend the meeting.

Take Courses
Fourteen Canyonville teachers are enrolled in extension courses being offered in Roseburg this term, according to Vice Principal John Hakanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Musser returned this week-end from a business trip to San Francisco where they attended the Spring Marketing Week there. According to the Musser, who operate Binder's Clothing Store in Canyonville, they did some spring buying for the store.

Friends of the Rev. Ernest Shippen will be interested to learn that he has announced his engagement to Miss June Parker of Sheid, Ore., where he is pastor of the Methodist Church. They will be married May 4 at Sheid.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Anderson of Carmichael, Calif., visited friends and relatives in the South Douglas area briefly this past weekend. They were house guests at the Norman Anlauf home in Myrtle Creek and the D. W. Gill home in Canyonville. The Andersons are former Canyonvillagers.

Ex-Missionary Speaks To Winston Sorority

By BRUNETTE WILSON
Featured speaker at the last meeting of the Tau Eta Eta sorority at Winston was Mrs. George Standslev, who spent 11 years on the Ivory Coast district of Africa as a missionary.

A gift was presented the speaker by the members.

During the business session at the home of Mrs. Wayne Wheeler, it was decided that for future projects each member will be responsible for one project during the year. Proceeds will go to welfare.

Also discussed was a radio float and a Feb. 22 Valentine card party at the home of Mrs. Roy Woodall in Dillard.

The next business meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ted Vrettas. A guest speaker will be invited to the meeting.

Principal At Sutherlin Attends Board Meeting

H. B. Austin, principal of East Sutherlin Elementary School, recently attended a meeting of the executive board of the Western Region Elementary Principals, of which he is membership chairman.

Mrs. Brittain Slack, News-Review correspondent, reports that plans were made for the western regional meeting to be held in Newport, April 18 during the session. East Sutherlin School and Umpqua Junior High School students participated in a televised skating party last week in Roseburg.

Darlene Chandler and a group from the Neighborhood Church of Christ, Sutherlin, visited the Saz Jose, Calif. Bible Academy recently. Accompanying the group was the Rev. L. W. Whitfield, pastor of the church.

Fifth graders at East school will undertake the publishing of a newspaper Jan. 24 as part of their journalism studies. Their instructor is Mrs. Harriet Alligan.
