AAUW Fellowship Tea Lovely Affair Saturday

The lovely new home of Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Kring at 1559 NW Harvey Court, Roseburg, was the setting for the annual fellowship tea sponsored by the American Assn. of University Women Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mrs. Roy Bradley catered for the affair. The table was decorated with a gay arrangement of pink carnations on a large white branch. Pouring from 2 to 3 p.m. were Mrs. Walter Edmonds and Mrs. George Halladay, and from 3 to 4, Mrs. Hal Schiltz of Myrtle Creek and Mrs. Charles Woodrich.

Music for the occasion was provided by Mrs. Homer Grow who played the piano, and a trio composed of Mrs. Roy Hanford, piano, Mrs. Walter Barker, cello, and Mrs. Lois Olson, violin.

Members and guests present were Mrs. Robert Kelly, Myrtle Creek, and her mother, Mrs. Emily Judd, a guest; Mrs. Hal Schiltz, Myrtle Creek, chairman of fellowship for the group; Mrs. George Lenci, Mrs. Harvey Kring, Mrs. George Halladay, and from 3 to 4, Mrs. Hal Schiltz of Myrtle Creek and Mrs. Charles Woodrich.

A silver offering was given by the members present to aid to the fund which the Roseburg branch of AAUW will use for a name grant fellowship. This will be used to further the education of some worthy student.

The meeting was opened by Ruth Chandler, retiring vice president, and Bernice Pittsley gave the inspiration. Maple Lyons inducted the new members, Grace Raymond and Bernice Pittsley, and presented them with corsages of white carnations.

Clara Rockwell had for table topics, "Wishes and Desires of 1958." Maple Lyons gave an interesting talk, reviewing the Toastmistress handbook for the benefit of new members.

Juanita Ballew Now Mrs. Richard Wood

The marriage of Juanita Ballew, daughter of Mrs. Le Roy Cooper of Sutherlin and John Ballew of Canyonville, to Richard Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Wood of Sutherlin, was an event of Dec. 27 at 8:30 p.m. at the Le Roy Cooper home. The Rev. Lloyd Whitford of the Neighborhood Church of Christ performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives of the couple.

The large baskets of white carnations and ferns formed the background for the ceremony.

The bride wore a pale apricot wool princess-style dress with white hat and gloves and white carnation corsage. She was given in marriage by her father.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Donelson of Portland.

Mrs. Dewain Herriott Complimented At Party

Mrs. DeWain Herriott was the guest of honor at a charming surprise pink and blue shower party given Monday evening at the beautiful home of Mrs. Jack West with Mrs. Etta Orr as co-hostess. The rooms were artistically decorated in the appropriate pink and blue motif. A baby express and tall pink lighted candles decorated the mantel. The arrangement was made by Mrs. West and her mother, Mrs. Esther Gilliland. A doll and bassinet graced the serving table. Pink candles tied with tulle bows and miniature dolls flanked the centerpiece, while the favors were miniature storks. The cake was decorated in the pink and blue motif.
