

Another Girl Raped In School In Brooklyn

NEW YORK — Another young girl was reported raped Tuesday night in a Brooklyn school as authorities strive to curb violence and disorders that have broken out around the school premises.

A few hours before the latest rape case, two other Brooklyn girl students were slashed with knives when they rebuffed the demands of drunken teen-agers for money. More than a score of youths have been arrested.

The new outrages came as the foreman of a special grand jury investigating crime in Brooklyn public schools suggested parents have their children boycott schools where crime prevails.

Teacher Plunges To Death
Foreman A. George Golden made the suggestion at a jury session Tuesday. About the same time, unknown to the jury, there were other repercussions—a school principal plunged to his death from the roof of his home.

George Goldfarb, 55, principal of violence-ridden John Marshall Junior High School in Brooklyn, committed suicide, the district attorney's office ruled.

Tuesday night's sex assault was the second recently on 13-year-old girl students. The latest victim was attacked on a basement stairway of Public School 20 at about 8:20 p.m.

A patrolman, who heard her screams, seized the alleged attacker, Pete White, 16, a student at Boys High School, also in Brooklyn. He was charged with rape.

Mayor Wagner, expressing shock over the violence, pledged action by City Hall. Simultaneously, police ordered more patrols at schools.

Flood Peril Is Eased Throughout New England

BOSTON — The flood peril in Massachusetts eased Wednesday as the Weather Bureau forecast an end to six straight days of rain and snow.

The forecaster said precipitation should end throughout New England by nightfall and that northern New England would get another half-inch of snow and southern New England rain or snow late Friday and Saturday.

The rain and snow of the past few days sent several small streams and the Charles and Neponset Rivers over their banks in some communities, but no serious damage was reported.

One death was reported in the floods. Peter M. Williams, 27, drowned in a pool formed in his backyard by the overflow of a brook.

CHARGE STANDS

PORTLAND — After a preliminary hearing Tuesday, James Henry Cain, 24, Salem, was bound over to a federal grand jury on a charge of possessing money orders stolen from the mails.

Bail was set at $2,500 after Cain appeared by U. S. Commissioner Claire Mundorf.

Carl's Watch Repair Service

(Formerly with City Drive-In Market)
SPECIALIZING IN GUARANTEED WATCH REPAIR
NOTHING TO SELL BUT FINE SERVICE.
FREE CRYSTAL just for tearing out this ad and bringing it in!

433 S. E. Main
(Next to Sun Printing Co.)
Upstairs, Room 5
Phone OR 2-2842

Queen Mother Goes On Tour Of Vancouver

VANCOUVER, B.C. — A tour of Vancouver was arranged for Queen Mother Elizabeth Wednesday after her rain-drenched arrival Tuesday night for a 24-hour stopover on her flight from England to Australia and New Zealand.

Mayor Fred Hume also planned to present the city councilors to her on a visit to City Hall. She was also to stop at Queen Elizabeth Park, which was named in her honor and which overlooks the city.

The steady downpour fell as her plane arrived at Vancouver International Airport at 8:35 p.m. Tuesday night.

More than a thousand men, women and children broke into cheers after the Queen Mother stepped from the British Overseas Airways Corp. DC-7C.

Thousands more stood in drenching rain along the 12-mile route from the airport to the residence of British Columbia's Lieut. Gov. Frank M. Ross, where she spent the night.

"My, what rain!" the Queen Mother said as she looked up from the shelter of her umbrella.

A member of the Queen's entourage indicated Her Majesty probably wasn't disappointed in the weather.

"Don't apologize," he told the greeting party. "It's just like home."

A Lancaster aircraft from the 407 RCAF Maritime Squadron at Comox, on Vancouver Island, will precede the royal plane when it leaves at 8 p.m. Wednesday night on the 2,300-mile flight to Honolulu.

Louise Voigt, 94, Succumbs Today

Mrs. Louise Scharlow Voigt, 94, well-known resident of Roseburg, passed away suddenly this morning at her home on W. Whar-

She was born in Germany Sept. 17, 1863, and was married there in 1883 to Julius Herman Voigt who preceded her in death in 1927. Mrs. Voigt came from Germany to the United States in 1891, for four years before moving to Courtland, N. D., where she lived until 1927 and since has made her home in Roseburg.

She was a life-long member of the Lutheran Church and a charter member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Roseburg.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. William (Anna) Vogt; one granddaughter, Mrs. Clinton Gorthy; three great-grandchildren, Mrs. Doris Long, Mrs. Vera McGhehey and Jack Gorthy, all of Roseburg. She is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Bertha Clemens, Jamestown, N. D., a step-daughter, Mrs. Elsie Kania, Verona, N. D., and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in the chapel of the Long and Orr Mortuary Friday, Jan. 31, at 2 p.m., with the Rev. W. A. Sylvester of St. Paul's Lutheran Church officiating. Concluding services and interment will follow in the Roseburg Memorial Gardens.

Eugene Fisher Renamed To Farm Loan Advisors

Eugene Fisher, chairman of the National Farm Loan Assn. Advisory Committee, has been re-elected for his third term to that job.

Fisher returned this week from Washington, D.C., where the committee met last week to discuss the land appraisal program, by which the amounts of loans are determined, and possible changes which might be made to improve service to the farmer members of the association.

This will be the third year Fisher will have served as chairman of the national committee which represents 960 National Farm Loan Assn. in the 48 states and Puerto Rico.

On his return, Fisher announced the Roseburg NFLA, of which he is president, will hold its annual meeting Feb. 4 at Riversdale Grange west of Roseburg.

FCC Chairman Says Agency Is 'Independent'

WASHINGTON — Chairman John C. Doerfer of the Federal Communications Commission described his agency Wednesday as "independent" of the executive branch of government.

He testified before a House investigating committee looking into six federal regulatory agencies to see if they are carrying out the intent of Congress.

Doerfer made no reference in prepared testimony to a committee staff memorandum saying FCC members have accepted improper broadcast industry favors. Outside of the hearing Doerfer has criticized the report as misleading. Chairman Moulder (D-Mo.) of the special inquiry group said in advance of the hearing that he did not expect the matter to come up "at this stage" unless Doerfer himself raised it.

McKeon Marine Of The Month

CHERRY POINT, N. C. — When then Secretary of Navy Charles Thomas reduced Matthew McKeon's general court-martial sentence for leading the Paris Island S. C. "death march," the Marine ex-drill instructor vowed:

"I'll try to be the very best private in the Marine Corps. That was in late 1956, several months after the April 8 night march of Recruit Platoon 71 into a tidal stream where six recruits drowned.

Pfc. McKeon appears on the way toward realizing his vow. He has been named the January "Marine of the Month" by the All Weather Fighter Squadron 114 here, of which he is a member.

McKeon's selection also gave prophetic meaning to Thomas' explanation that he reduced the sentence to give McKeon an opportunity to "build for himself a useful and honorable career. . . I hope and believe that he will avail himself of this opportunity."

The Marine of the Month was chosen by vote of squadron members from among nominees selected for proficiency, bearing, disposition and conduct, McKeon explained.

Judges Uphold Boxcar Shortage Suit Dismissal

PORTLAND — A panel of three U. S. district court judges Tuesday upheld dismissal of a 1954 boxcar shortage lawsuit against the Southern Pacific Railroad.

The Interstate Commerce Commission dismissed the complaint in 1956. It had been filed by the Shipper Car Supply Committee, made up of some 100 producers of lumber and other products.

The committee said the railroad did not provide adequate freight car service and was discriminatory in supplying cars.

After the ICC dismissed the complaint the committee appealed to the federal courts.

As a result of Tuesday's ruling the Wren Planning Co. of Wren, near Corvallis, which had intervened in the case on the shippers' side, lost its $154,000 damage suit against the railroad.

After ruling it was without jurisdiction in the case, the panel referred the complaint to Judge William East. He dismissed it.

Rain Lets Up, Easing Oregon Flood Threat

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Heavy winds raked the Oregon coast Wednesday in the wake of heavy rains that sent Western Oregon rivers surging upward.

There was no immediately serious flood threat, though, and there was a temporary lull to the rain.

The Rogue River, most seriously threatening any of the state's major streams, began to fall slightly Wednesday morning after cresting at Grants Pass only 6 inches under flood stage at 7:30 a. m.

From Monday to Wednesday morning Grants Pass was drenched with 4.11 inches of rain. The Rogue stood at 5.20 feet when the rains started and climbed to 21.39 feet by Thursday morning.

Some roads had water over them but traffic was going through. There were a few temporary traffic delays from slides which were being cleared away.

Trailers Moved
A number of trailers in low-lying country around Grants Pass were towed away as a precaution Tuesday night. Only one home there reported any flooding and that water was runoff from surrounding slopes. A few lawns were damaged by silt washed down from hills. Two minor irrigation ditch breaks were sandbagged.

The Coquille River was 6 feet under flood stage when the rain ended and the sun came out Wednesday morning.

The Umpqua River and its tributaries were up, too, but there appeared to be small chance of flooding. The south Umpqua was forecast to crest 4 feet below flood stage at Winston Wednesday afternoon.

The heavy rains washed snow from mountain passes and cleared it from highways. At higher elevations snow fell, Timberline on Mt. Hood reported 8 inches.

The rain began to taper off at most points around 8 a. m. and by mid-morning the sun was shining in many parts of the state.

Yoncalla Group Plans Benefit Dinner Saturday

By MRS. GEORGE EDES — The Willing Workers Club of Scotts Valley, Yoncalla, will sponsor a benefit dinner for heart, polio and cancer funds at the Scotts Valley School Saturday from 5:30 to 7 p. m.

Oysters, chili and chicken noodles will be served. The club will appreciate having pies furnished for the dinner.

PTA Meets

The Scotts Valley PTA met recently and a film was shown. It was reported the school received a new drum from the PTA.

Yoncalla Business and Professional Women heard Wayne Flynn, principal of Yoncalla High School, speak on reorganization of school bills.

Two new members present were Mrs. Ann Mathis and Mrs. Ann Spelligati. The next meeting will be Feb. 3 at the home of Mrs. Etta Wallace, Mrs. Harold Turpin, president, spent last weekend attending the winter board meeting of the PTA at Pendleton. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Lasswell are on vacation in California. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith Jan. 25 at the Cottage Grove Hospital.

Mrs. Calvert Cox is recuperating in the Cottage Grove Hospital following surgery.

Mrs. George Parks returned to her home in Myrtle Creek, Monday after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sinnock, recuperating from major surgery.

4 Local Dogs Entered In Contest Place High

Four dogs entered by Umpqua Kennel Club members placed high in the Vancouver, Wash., dog show last weekend, led by Chuck-A-Luck's Jock, owned by Mrs. Violet McCoy, who went first in open dog and winners' dog classes for two championship points.

Ch. Chuck-A-Luck's Ike, owned by Wilma Meske, Roseburg, took first in best of opposite sex, Chuck-A-Luck's Dixie, owned by Wilma Meske, took third in open bitch and Cedargarde's Maestro, won third in the open dog class.

The Umpqua Kennel Club in preparation for its third annual dog show at the Douglas County Fairgrounds Sunday, Feb. 9, will hold its final dog handling instruction classes at the Fairgrounds next Monday night (obedience classes will be started the first of March).

High Winds Stall Shot Of Satellite Missile

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. — Hurricane-force winds in upper atmosphere made uncertain Wednesday the time when the Army will fire its Jupiter-C satellite launching vehicle.

The Air Force weather central station reported high-level winds of 140 miles an hour. Winds of such velocity could topple the rocket.

The new siege of bad weather, after several pleasant days, hit Florida at a time when the Army was believed to be approaching the zero hour of its effort to hurl a 30-pound "moon" into orbit.

Brief Sit-Down Strike Ends At Montana Prison

DEER LODGE, Mont. — Calm returned to the Montana State Prison today, but officials took disciplinary action to insure rebellious convicts will return to a normal routine.

"They're being denied all privileges until they're ready to go back to work," Warden Fay O. Burrell said. The indications are the 23 inmates who took part in a 30-hour demonstration were resolved to do that, he said.

JAILED FOR FIGHTING

Frank Lewis Nicklin, 23, The Dalles, was sentenced in Roseburg municipal court to 30 days in jail Tuesday for disorderly conduct. Police said when he was arrested Monday that he had been fighting on a downtown street.

FILES FOR GOVERNOR

SALEM — Wiley W. Smith, Multnomah County Assessor, filed his candidacy for governor Tuesday.

He will oppose Gov. Robert P. Holmes and former State Sen. Lew Wallace, Portland, in the Democratic primary May 18.

The two announced Republican candidates for governor are Secretary of State Mark Hatfield and State Treasurer Sig Underander, aq issues included need for greater attention to affairs of the district and "the importance of every congressman's being consistently on the job." He said he would seek a committee assignment, elected, which would deal with problems common to his district.

Hitchcock Will Oppose Norblad For House Job

(Continued from Page 1)

Norblad's major committee post is Military Affairs, on which he is senior Republican member and which has taken him on a number of trips abroad.

Rumors Last Fall
Last fall when Norblad returned from Washington, there already were rumors that Hitchcock might run against him. Through the fall Norblad traveled extensively in his district and devoted considerable time to advocacy of governmental economics.

Hitchcock, a one-time state senator from Klamath Falls, now is on the staff of Lewis and Clark College as director of church relations and foreign student advisor.

He was in the race for the Republican U. S. senatorial nomination to oppose Democrat Wayne Morse in 1956 and refused to withdraw when Douglas McKay resigned as secretary of the Interior to make the same race.

McKay won the nomination, getting 123,281 votes to 99,296 for Hitchcock. In the 19 counties of the First District, Hitchcock carried two and was close in the others. In Marion, McKay's home county — as it is Norblad's — Hitchcock got 8,666 votes to McKay's 9,322.

Hospital News

Mercy Hospital
Admitted
Surgery: Mrs. Carl Johnson, Sue Woodcock, Roseburg.
Medical: Mrs. Andy Sherrill, Roseburg.

Discharged
Delbert Frasher, Myrtle Creek; Darrell Hand, Roseburg; Paul Armstrong, Sutherlin.

Douglas Community Hospital
Admitted
Medical: Mrs. John Cain, Mrs. Allen, David Williams, Mrs. Roland Storie, Mrs. Gird Logsdon, Roseburg.

Surgery: Robert Johnson, Robert Churchill, Roseburg; Mrs. Richard Eastman, Winston.

Discharged
Mrs. Norma Peterson and baby, Thomas Neil; Sharon Sutton, Harry Pritzker, Leo Danzer, Mrs. Daniel Priest, Lloyd Corger, Roseburg; Sidney Hamilton, Winston; Mrs. Norman Barker, St. Helens.

The teenage pair had been traced south out of Lincoln. When officers converged on a farm 16 miles southeast where Starkweather's car was found Tuesday they discovered three more bodies.

One victim was August Meyer, 70, bachelor at whose farm Starkweather used to hunt squirrels with his father. The other two, their bodies tossed into a storm cellar at an abandoned school site about a quarter of a mile away, were Carol King, 18, and Robert Jensen, her 17-year-old high school friend. A pool of blood showed they had been shot outside the cave.

All three had been shot in the back of the head, Meyer with a shotgun and the other two with a small-caliber weap.

The other three victims, Carl Fugate's mother, Velda Bartlett, 37, her stepfather, Marion Bartlett, 37, and their 2-year-old daughter Betty Jean were found dead at the family home Monday night.

The fact that the victims had been shot in the head recalled the recent, unsolved slaying of Robert G. Colvert, 21-year-old Lincoln service station operator. Colvert's body was found Dec. 1 on a gravel road north of Lincoln. He had been killed by a shotgun blast in the head.

Colvert was employed at a station not in any blocks from the Bartlett's home.

Search For Teen-Agers Pressed In Slayings

(Continued from Page 1)

whose occupants fitted the description of the hunted pair.

The truckers reported the driver of the car which bore Oregon license plates, as saying, "I want nothing to do with the law. How do I get to Chicago?"

Starkweather and the girl had been sought since Monday night when three members of Carl's family were found slain at their home in Lincoln.

Diad of Rifle Shots
Four of the victims died with rifle bullets in their heads. Another was shot in the head with a shotgun. The other, a 2-year-old child, apparently died of a fractured skull.

One of the two women slain, a 16-year-old girl, had been subjected to "an unnatural sex attack," Scheele said.

That report led Capt. Dan Casey of the state safety patrol to speculate whether Starkweather might now be traveling alone. He said "Something could have happened to Carl."

William Fugate, father of Carl, said he hoped officers would "get" Starkweather, even at the risk of his daughter's life.

He said he didn't think his daughter was dead but would "come home as soon as she can make a break."

The teen-age pair had been traced south out of Lincoln. When officers converged on a farm 16 miles southeast where Starkweather's car was found Tuesday they discovered three more bodies.

One victim was August Meyer, 70, bachelor at whose farm Starkweather used to hunt squirrels with his father. The other two, their bodies tossed into a storm cellar at an abandoned school site about a quarter of a mile away, were Carol King, 18, and Robert Jensen, her 17-year-old high school friend. A pool of blood showed they had been shot outside the cave.

All three had been shot in the back of the head, Meyer with a shotgun and the other two with a small-caliber weap.

The other three victims, Carl Fugate's mother, Velda Bartlett, 37, her stepfather, Marion Bartlett, 37, and their 2-year-old daughter Betty Jean were found dead at the family home Monday night.

The fact that the victims had been shot in the head recalled the recent, unsolved slaying of Robert G. Colvert, 21-year-old Lincoln service station operator. Colvert's body was found Dec. 1 on a gravel road north of Lincoln. He had been killed by a shotgun blast in the head.

Colvert was employed at a station not in any blocks from the Bartlett's home.

McKeon Marine Of The Month

CHERRY POINT, N. C. — When then Secretary of Navy Charles Thomas reduced Matthew McKeon's general court-martial sentence for leading the Paris Island S. C. "death march," the Marine ex-drill instructor vowed:

"I'll try to be the very best private in the Marine Corps. That was in late 1956, several months after the April 8 night march of Recruit Platoon 71 into a tidal stream where six recruits drowned.

Pfc. McKeon appears on the way toward realizing his vow. He has been named the January "Marine of the Month" by the All Weather Fighter Squadron 114 here, of which he is a member.

McKeon's selection also gave prophetic meaning to Thomas' explanation that he reduced the sentence to give McKeon an opportunity to "build for himself a useful and honorable career. . . I hope and believe that he will avail himself of this opportunity."

The Marine of the Month was chosen by vote of squadron members from among nominees selected for proficiency, bearing, disposition and conduct, McKeon explained.

Senators Hopeful Of Action To Up Debt Limit

WASHINGTON — Two senators said today efforts to raise the national debt limit may be made easier by senatorial doubts over the accuracy of President Eisenhower's budget estimates.

Sen. Edward Martin (Pa.), senior Republican on the finance committee, said many senators fear the revenue will be less and spending higher than Eisenhower predicted in his budget message to Congress.

He said Congress may force more spending than the administration has proposed.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), the committee chairman, said he would be more confident in the success of his proposals to limit the increase to three billion dollars if members of his committee trusted the budget figures.

House Leaders Agree On Plan For Disability

By EDMOND LE BRETON — House leaders were reported Wednesday to have agreed upon a bill to permit a vice president to act as president in case of a chief executive's disability.

A special subcommittee of the House Judiciary Committee hurriedly called into session after the draft of the bill was prepared. It has been the subject of high level, closed-door conferences for about two weeks, following a two-year study by the subcommittee.

The bill would provide that the vice president "shall discharge those powers and duties (of the office of president) as acting president" under these circumstances:

Up To President
If the President himself certifies in writing to Congress and the Vice President that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office.

If a commission on presidential inability determines that he is unable to discharge those powers and duties.

The legislation would create this commission of eight members, six of whom would have to agree on any determination for it to be effective.

Members of the commission would be the vice president as non-voting chairman; the speaker of the House of Representatives, the president pro tempore of the Senate, the secretary of state, the leaders of the two major parties in the House of Representatives, and the corresponding Senate leaders.

Yoncalla Group Plans Benefit Dinner Saturday

By MRS. GEORGE EDES — The Willing Workers Club of Scotts Valley, Yoncalla, will sponsor a benefit dinner for heart, polio and cancer funds at the Scotts Valley School Saturday from 5:30 to 7 p. m.

Oysters, chili and chicken noodles will be served. The club will appreciate having pies furnished for the dinner.

PTA Meets

The Scotts Valley PTA met recently and a film was shown. It was reported the school received a new drum from the PTA.

Yoncalla Business and Professional Women heard Wayne Flynn, principal of Yoncalla High School, speak on reorganization of school bills.

Two new members present were Mrs. Ann Mathis and Mrs. Ann Spelligati. The next meeting will be Feb. 3 at the home of Mrs. Etta Wallace, Mrs. Harold Turpin, president, spent last weekend attending the winter board meeting of the PTA at Pendleton. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Lasswell are on vacation in California. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith Jan. 25 at the Cottage Grove Hospital.

Mrs. Calvert Cox is recuperating in the Cottage Grove Hospital following surgery.

Mrs. George Parks returned to her home in Myrtle Creek, Monday after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sinnock, recuperating from major surgery.

Bus Driver Dead, 13 Are Injured

EPHRATA, Pa. — A bus driver was killed and 13 persons injured Wednesday when an east-bound bus collided with a large steel-laden tractor-trailer on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near the Reading-Lancaster interchange on the toll highway.

State police said the Greyhound bus struck the rear of the tractor-trailer seven miles west of the Reading-Lancaster interchange on the toll highway.

The body of the bus driver was jammed in the wrecked bus for an hour after the crash, shortly after 4 a. m.

The bus driver was identified by the state police tentatively as James M. Bennett, 36, Merchantville, N. J.

All but one of the injured were reported taken to the Ephrata Community hospital while the other went to a hospital in Reading.

The crash was the second major mishap involving a bus on the Pennsylvania Turnpike this month. Three persons died as the result of the crash of a Transcontinental bus on the toll road Jan. 13.

Football Coach Dies During Hunt For Boy

WILLOWSDALE, Calif. — A small airplane crashed in the snow raised hopes today that a 12-year-old Tenderfoot Boy Scout would be found alive in Mendocino National Forest. He has been missing since Saturday.

A football coach who joined the search party of 600 died Tuesday, apparently of a heart attack, while hunting through Grindstone Canyon with three friends.

Gus Manolis, head coach at Chico State College, died during the hunt. Two of his friends remained with the body overnight while the third returned to Chico and notified relatives and college officials.

Days Creek Mothers March Thursday Night

The March of Dimes drive at Days Creek is well under way, according to the local chairman, Mrs. Richard Snyder. The coin containers placed at various business houses have been well received and Ralph's Cafe is displaying a "border of dimes" around the counter space. The annual Mother's March will be held Thursday evening. It is asked that porch lights be turned on so mothers will know where to stop for contributions, according to correspondent Edith Moore.

Portlander Kills Self, Rather Than Surrender

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ill. — Police said one gunman gave up meekly and another apparently decided to kill himself rather than risk capture Tuesday night after the two robbed a Evansville, Ind., grocery of between $500 and $1,000. Both men were ex-convicts.

The man who surrendered was identified as Robert Dane Finton, 32, of Gary, Ind.

Police said Finton kidnapped a 45-year-old woman at Evansville and forced her to drive him to Princeton, Ind. The woman, Mrs. Charles Omer, was unarmed.

The man who shot himself as authorities closed in on him was identified as John S. Boyce, 27, Portland, Ore. Boyce shot himself in his car near Rockport, Ind., after Indiana police tried to stop him.

Fullerton Drugs

635 S. E. Jackson St. ORchard 3-7415

1/2 PRICE

Regular $2. size now $1.

NEW... Tussy

Wind and Weather Lotion