

Benson School PTA Founders Day Monday

Benson School PTA meeting will be Monday, 8 p.m. in the school gym.

Following a short business meeting, the Founders Day program will be given. Paul Cacy, master of ceremonies, will present "Benson on Parade," interviewing former principals of the school, also past presidents of the PTA, also some of the former students of the school.

Miss Ina Farnsworth, fifth grade teacher, will give a summary of the history of Benson School. Refreshments will be served in the school gym.

Sutherlin 4-H Club Elects Officers, Begins Project

By MRS. BRITAIN SLACK

A newly organized 4-H Club, the Cuckooes, was started at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Harris with Mrs. Harris as leader.

The newly organized club elected as their officers Christine Cathline, president; Karen Harris, vice president; Sharon Rapp, secretary; Connie Chilson, social secretary; Francis Cathline, treasurer; Karen Waugh, reporter, and Cathy Moss, song leader.

At the girls first meeting they learned to make cold milk drinks and fruit drinks.

The Stitches in Time 4-H Club met

DRESS MAKING CLASS

The first meeting of the dress making class sponsored by the Rice Valley Home Extension Unit will be held Feb. 6 at the Little Theatre of Yoncalla High School at 8:45 a.m. Anyone interested is invited. Reports correspondent Mrs. George Edes.

at the Fair Oaks Grange hall with 14 members present for the chili luncheon. Leader Mrs. Goldie McCormack, assisted by Mrs. Conell Davis and her daughter Janet, prepared the luncheon.

After the luncheon the girls started making head scarfs.

Hinkle Creek 4-H Club met with its leader, Mrs. Donna Weaver, at the Weaver home last of Sutherlin for a social meeting.

Linda Harrell and Sue Ellen Weaver had charge of the games and were hostesses to the 10 girls present.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Sanders took their daughter, Joan Davis and small granddaughter to La Grande last weekend. Jack Davis has been working there since Christmas and they will make their home there.

Resident Returns

Mrs. Ross Woollett, who spent two weeks in San Diego, Calif., returned recently. She was accompanied by Mrs. Barbara Willis and baby son, daughter and grandson of the Woollett's, who is presently visiting at the Woollett home. On their return they visited Ronald Woollett who is stationed at a California base.

Sutherlin Jay-C-Ettes completed plans for the Mothers March at the last meeting. A Chinese action was held.

After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by hostesses Lois Shepard and Sue Sikstrom.

Evergreen Grange Members Honor For Membership

Elmer McClure, Oregon state grange master, presented pins to three members of the Evergreen Grange during a recent ceremony honoring those with 25 or more years of continuous membership in the grange unit.

Those receiving the pins were Vera Rice, Sid Nichols and Jean Nichols.

Also honored were seven grange members with the longest periods of membership in the local group. Those honored, and their length of memberships, were Olivia Lander, 40 years; George and Jessie Thomas, 34 years; Emery and Ruby Baker, 31 years; and Albert and Nettie Swanson, 30 years.

McClure pointed out during a talk to members that it was the pioneering of such earlier members that has made possible advantages now enjoyed by grange members.

Mrs. George McDowell read a letter from Gov. Holmes congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jenkins on their 52 years of marriage. The couple was honored by the grange on Dec. 18, their anniversary date.

Future events slated during the meeting were a luncheon on Jan. 30 and an open house on March 8.

Bethel 8 Schedules Dad's Night Tuesday

Honored Queen Cherie Havens of Job's Daughters Bethel 8 has announced the next meeting, Feb. 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, will be Dad's Night.

All Bethel members are asked to bring their fathers. The program will be in charge of the regular floor officers and refreshments served later.

Junior Bethel officers will preside and a practice will be held Monday at the Bethel immediately after school.
