

MARRIED — Miss Betsy Eleanore Neufeld, daughter of Mrs. D. A. Neufeld of Seattle, and Daniel G. Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Matthews of Walla Walla, Wash., formerly of Roseburg, exchanged wedding vows in one of the Christmas season's loveliest weddings, Sunday evening, Dec. 22, in the Greenlake Seventh-day Adventist Church in Seattle.

White chrysanthemums, holly, and Christmas red bows with white tapers in candelabra formed the seasonal setting for the rites read by Elder Neufeld, father of the bride.

Miss Diane Dalrymple of College Place, Wash., was at the organ for the nuptial music and accompaniments. Prof. Melvin Johnson, former Walla Walla College staff member, played the slow movement from the Mendelssohn Concerto for violin. Vocal solos were "How Do I Love Thee" by Miss Theresa Holland and "Wedding Prayer" by Larry Kurtz, both of College Place. The bridegroom sang "I'll Walk Beside You" as he met the bride who was escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by her uncle, Arnold Neufeld of Bakersfield, Calif.

The bride was charming in a gown of blue-white satin styled with a full skirt and train edged with the same lace. The long satin sleeves came to points at the wrists. Her double veil of nylon net fell from a lace crown. She carried white rosebuds and bouvardia.

Miss Margaret Neufeld, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Darlene

Mrs. Woodworth Hostess For Bridge Club Tuesday

Mrs. Frank B. Woodworth entertained her bridge club at a very lovely 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday at her attractive home on SE Chadwick Street. A pink cloth covered the serving table, which was centered with an arrangement of pink debutante camellias.

Enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Woodworth were Mrs. James H. Harris, Mrs. James Richmond, Mrs. M. L. Hallmark and Mrs. M. C. Bowker, members, and Mrs. J. C. Colbrunn, Mrs. Paul Geddes and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter, guests.

High scores for the afternoon's bridge play were won by Mrs. Hallmark and Mrs. Richmond.

Valentine Guest-Day Brunch Announced

The annual Valentine guest-day brunch to be held by the Women of the Roseburg Country Club will be an event of Feb. 13 at 10:30 a.m. at the clubhouse. Decorations will be in charge of Mrs. Dale Williamson and Mrs. Keith Bryant and Mrs. O. R. Petersen serving on the door committee. Cards will be in charge of Mrs. H. C. Stearns and Mrs. John Jerston. Reservations for the party must be in by Feb. 11 by calling Mrs. Jerston at 3-5315 or the clubhouse. Both foursome and progressive bridge will be enjoyed.

UMPUQA GROVE 51 HAS SOCIAL MEETING

The social meeting of Umpqua Grove 51 was held recently at the home of Ruby Belle Koehnrich, with Mrs. Robertnik and Mrs. Hess serving as hostesses.

Games were enjoyed under the direction of Beula Gibson, entertainment chairman. Reports by State President Phoebe McGuire and State Youth Chairman Alice Christensen on their recent trip to the national convention at Washington, D.C., highlighted the evening.

The door prize was won by Alice Hill.

A smorgasbord supper was served at the close of the meeting.

THE WEDDING of Miss Alice Mae Powell and Felix Gray was an event of Jan. 12 at 2 p.m. at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Gray with Bishop Waugh of the Latter Day Saints Church officiating, Pic-

The wedding of Miss Alice Mae Powell of Vernal, Utah, to Felix Gray of this city took place Sunday, Jan. 12, at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Gray in Roseburg. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Powell of Vernal. The wedding service was performed by Bishop Waugh of the Latter Day Saints Church at 2 p.m.

The bride, given in marriage by Paul Orr, wore a full-length gown of lace over satin. Her short veil was secured by blue forget-me-nots. She carried a bouquet of white carnations tied with blue satin streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Reginald Gray Jr., sister-in-law of the bridegroom. She wore blue tulle with a corsage of white carnations.

Best man was Reginald Gray

tured above include Paul Orr, who gave the bride away; matron of honor, Mrs. Reggie Gray; the bride and bridegroom, and the best man, Reggie Gray.

Jr. brother of the bridegroom. For the wedding and reception which followed in the beautifully decorated home, the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress and corsage of white roses.

The beautiful wedding cake dominated the table which was attractive with a handmade crocheted cloth. Serving were Mrs. Martha Erskine, Mrs. S. B. Bock, Mrs. Elizabeth Prescott and Mrs. W. Coos Bay.

The young people are making their home on Pine Street. The bride was graduated from Vernal High School and the bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg High School.

Those coming from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Gray Jr. and children, Stephen and Stacey, from Newport; and Mrs. S. F. Bock, Coos Bay.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Pan, Del Rio Road, Roseburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Corale, to Curtis Byrd, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Earl Byrd, Roseburg. The bride-elect was graduated from Roseburg High School and is employed by Dr. D. E. Boyles, D.D.S. Mr. Byrd was graduated from Roseburg High School and is employed by Safeway Stores. No date has been set for the wedding. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

Stephen Adams Has Party On Anniversary

The third birthday of Stephen Adams, son of the Rev. and Mrs. John Adams, was celebrated at a lovely luncheon party given by his mother Saturday at their home. Small boats and a red and white color scheme formed the table decorations.

Stephen was the recipient of many lovely presents. Luncheon and birthday cake and ice cream were served to the guest of honor and to Susie Hoskins, Mickey Hughes, Pamela Nott, Scott Rutter, Billy Walsh and Johnny Adams.

"COME AS YOU ARE" PARTY ENJOYED BY BETA PI

Members of Beta Pi Chapter 1991, ESA enjoyed a "Come As You Are" party Tuesday, with Mrs. Stacy Fenley as hostess, and Mrs. Ronald Copeland as co-hostess.

A program on etiquette was presented to the group by Mrs. Ronald Copeland. Highlight of the evening was the "Queen for a Night" program presented by Mrs. Fenley who was made up as Jack Bailey. Mrs. Copeland assisted Mrs. Fenley with the program.

Contestants for the "Queen for a Night" were: Mrs. James Watson, Mrs. William Fitch, Mrs. James Range, Mrs. William Gildersleeve and Mrs. William Bennett. After hearing the story of each contestant, Mrs. William Bennett was crowned "Queen for a Night" and presented with a number of gifts and told about the places where she would be entertained during her reign as queen.

Mrs. Roger Oiler was given a prize for her costume.

Following the program a chili supper was served to the following members: Mrs. James Paul Allen, William Bennett, Vernon Bunch, Charles Clarke, Ronald Copeland, Stacy Fenley, William Fitch, William Gildersleeve, Leslie Heaton, Robert Hogan, Kenneth Manning, Wayne Rice, Floyd Ross, James Sange, Paul Schirre, Barton Slane, Harry Smith, Lyle Sturge, James Watson, Gene Todd and Roger Oiler.

HONORED QUEEN Judy Buckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Buckley of Sparks, Nev., was installed head of Bethel No. 39, International Order of Job's Daughters, in an impressive candlelight ceremony Monday evening at the Riddle Masonic Temple. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek.)

Also installed were: Beverly Cockrell, senior princess; Florette McGee, junior princess; Janice Mann, guide; Dixie Howes, marshal; Nina Henry, recorder; Cathy Aker, librarian; Carol Stuart, musician; Bonnie Mitchell, treasurer; Terri Daniels, chaplain; Patsy Cyphert, Karen White, Sara Preston, Carolyn McCoy and Jackie Cole, messengers; Virginia Cassidy, senior custodian; Margaret Neal, junior custodian; Toni Cooley, inner guard; Sharon Louisgont, outer guard; Diane Foster, lady of the lights; Nancy McCoy, historian-reporter; Carmen Wadlie, flag bearer; and members of the Bethel Choir, Rosa Aker, Sandra Craig, Mary Dunlap, Diane Fields, Darlene Picklesimer and Alice Walker.

A floral cross ceremony preceded the meeting during which Gary Rose, a member of the Medford Chapter, DeMolay, read the accompanying verses.

Clara Nell Strude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strude of Riddle and retiring honored queen of the Bethel, presided during the installation with the following assisting officers: Guide, Della Simmons; marshal, Doris Robinson; chaplain, Neva Milsap; recorder, Ardyth Smith; senior custodian, Connie Broughton; junior custodian, Judy MacKenzie; soloist, Barbara Edwards; musician, Mrs. Guy McGee; National Flag escort, Jane Daniels; Bethel flag escort, Nancy McCoy.

"The Lord's Prayer" was sung during the crowning of the queen. A Bethel gavel and Bible were presented to the newly installed honored queen by Past Guardian Betty Lilly and Associate Guardian Clifford Kent, respectively. Past Honored Queen Clara presented Honored Queen Judy with her honored queen's pin.

A drill, under the direction of Judy Buckley and Nancy McCoy, honored Past Honored Queen Clara following the close of the meeting. A bouquet of flowers and a gift were presented to her at the close of the drill.

A reception was held in the dining room where a beautifully decorated cake graced the main table.

ANNOUNCEMENT has been made of the engagement of Kathleen Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph T. Johnson of Santa Ana, Calif., to James H. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Wilson of this city. The bridegroom-elect is stationed with the U. S. Marine Corps in Santa Ana, Calif., where the wedding will take place Feb. 14. (Picture by Roberts Studio, Santa Ana, Calif.)

Eastmans Announce Daughter's Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eastman Jr. of this city announce the marriage of their daughter, Janice, to James Edward Duffy Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Duffy Sr. of Glendale, Calif. The marriage took place in the El Cerrito Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. John Hubble officiating.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Jerry Dean of Richmond, Calif. Jerry Dean was best man.

The young people are residing in San Francisco where both attend San Francisco State College.

HOUSEWARMING PARTY GIVEN FOR L. L. BURRS

The lovely new home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Burr in Huerfano was the scene Saturday evening of a charming housewarming party attended by members of the Four and Ten Club. A delicious potluck turkey dinner was served at 8 p.m.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nickens, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tucker, Mrs. Ellen Bateman, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Arte Stephens, Mrs. Hattie Guerin and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kreuger.

A beautiful gift was presented to the Burrs by the group.

Mr. & Mrs. Steve Allen LOSE WEIGHT Together with AYDS!

"Losing weight with the Ayds Plan is fun," say Steve and Joyce. Simply eat delicious Ayds Vitamin and Mineral Candy before meals as directed. Ayds turns your appetite—you eat less—lose weight. Results with Ayds box ($3.25) or money back.

• • • • • in the lovely Joyce Meadway

Chapman's Pharmacy Jackson & Cox — OR 3-4533

A PRETTY WEDDING of Dec. 21 at 8 p.m. at the North Roseburg Church took place when Miss Gladys Jean McCraw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Lee McCraw of Roseburg, became the bride of Marvin E. Brown, EN 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Brown, also of Roseburg. The Rev. Lyle H. Willard read the impressive double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. by candlelight in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. (Picture by Art French of Photo Lab.)

Miss Gladys Jean McCraw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley L. McCraw of Roseburg, became the bride of Marvin E. Brown, EN3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Brown, also of Roseburg, in a candlelight ceremony at the North Roseburg Church Saturday, Dec. 21, at 8 p.m. The Rev. Lyle H. Willard read the impressive double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated in the Christmas theme, with a clever arrangement of evergreens, satin bows, holly and candles in each window. Angel figurines, spun glass and silver-sprayed evergreens were used in an interesting arrangement on the piano.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a gown of white velvet, fashioned with queen's pleated skirt for fullness, dramatized with a bustle and chiffon bow. Her full-length gloves were of matching velvet. Her veil of illusion nylon tulle, edged in Chantilly lace, was accented by a small velvet crown trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. Her bouquet was a cascade of feathered poinsettias and she carried a small white Bible.

Miss LaVelle Gladwill was maid of honor, attired in a silk dress with white background and print detail of tiny red roses. Her bouquet was of red and white carnations.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Diamond Lake Boulevard.

The bride and bridegroom both were graduated from Roseburg High School. She attended the University of Oregon. The bridegroom is currently a member of the U.S. Coast Guard.

For going away, the bride chose a navy blue suit with pink accessories with a corsage of white carnations. After a trip south and along the coast, the young people are now at home in Vancouver, Wash.

JEAN FACHET, newly installed honored queen of Glendale Bethel, International Order of Job's Daughters, was escorted to the East by past honored queen, Beverly Cox, Monday evening. Plans were made for the visitation of the grand guardian to take place Feb. 18. A surprise birthday cake was presented to the honored queen and refreshments were served. Kay Edson, Donna Stevens, Rowena Miller and Sharon Burgoyne served on the refreshment committee. (Fox Photo.)

Dial OR 3-4448

for Complete BEAUTY CARE

Let Us Design A New Hair-Style For You!

Faye Endicott
Pat Kertesz
Joyce Britton
Dial OR 3-4448

For Your Beauty Appointment Today!

Miller's SALON OF BEAUTY

It's the SEASON all the TREND the NEW LOOK

FAIRHAVEN SALON OF BEAUTY

FERN CRAIG, Owner

1457 West Harvard ORchard 3-5167