

MERCY HOSPITAL AUXILIARY new officers were installed Monday evening at an interesting meeting at the hospital cafeteria. Outgoing and incoming officers are pictured above. Seated: Mrs. Robert Nevue, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold Jokela, outgoing secretary, and Mrs. Ray Carrico, incoming vice president. Standing: Mrs. Joseph Carey, outgoing treasurer; Mrs. J. A. Colbrunn, incoming treasurer; Mrs. Douglas Tudor, incoming secretary; Mrs. R. A. Dudley, incoming president, and Mrs. Perry Thiele, junior past president. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

NEW FURNISHINGS for two waiting rooms have been presented to Mercy Hospital by the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary. The furniture came to $1100 and included six day-berths, four lamps, four end tables and two large corner tables. Several additional pieces are also planned for the furnishings. Money for the furniture was raised by the

1957 Parade of Parties sponsored by the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary. Left to right in the above picture taken in one of the waiting rooms includes Sister Superior Mary Norene, Mrs. Robert Nevue, Mrs. Paul K. Ryan and Mrs. R. J. Hatterscheid. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

IOOF And Rebekahs Hold Installation

A joint public installation of the newly-elected officers in Philaterean Lodge 8 and Roseburg Rebekah Lodge 41, IOOF took place in the Off Fellows Hall Thursday evening.

On the installing staff with Paul Casey, as district deputy grand master and Mrs. Ted Bloom as district deputy president were: Clyde Murray and Mrs. Walter Webber, grand marshals; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gillett, grand wardens; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, grand secretaries; Clyde Kester and Mrs. James Fleschman, grand treasurers; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Marr, grand chaplains; Chester Williams of Cloverleaf Lodge 229 and Mrs. James Boyington, grand inside guardians; and Mrs. Glen Beach, grand musician.

John Ueber and Mrs. Clair Brock were installed as junior past noble grand in their respective lodges. Mrs. Brock was presented with the official regalia of a past noble grand as a gift from her staff of officers. She also received a past noble grand's jewel from the Rebekah Lodge.

New officers installed for the ensuing term were: Noble grand, Walter Daum and Mrs. O. C. Langfield; vice grand, Jess Bowman and Mrs. James McDonald; recording secretaries, Tense Busenbark and Mrs. H. F. Hatfield; financial secretaries, Vern South and Miss V. Vivian Logsdon; treasurers, Oliver Johnson and Mrs. Reba Hartley; wardens, Oliver Plumer and Mrs. James Boyington; conductors, August Heck and Mrs. Walter Webber; right supporters, noble grand, Jack Dent and Mrs. Ted Bloom; left supporters, noble grand, Frank Johnston and Mrs. Jack Dent; inside guardians, W. H. Thompson and Mrs. Esther Casey; outside guardians, Clyde Murray and Mrs. O. A. Lange; right supporter vice grand, Paul Casey and Mrs. Frank Paul; chaplains, Wilbur Ebner and Mrs. Walter Daum, and in the Rebekah Lodge, left supporter to vice grand, Mrs. Bertha Lett; color bearers, Raymond Hough, musician, Mrs. H. B. Roadman.

Following the installation ceremony the two outgoing noble grand expressed their appreciation for the honors accorded them and thanked their officers and others for their cooperation in the past year.

Mr. Daum expressed his aim and desires to build a greater and better lodge. He sought the cooperation of the Rebekahs and pledged his help to them.

Members of Cloverleaf Lodge 229 at Sutherlin and their wives who attended and assisted were Mr. and Mrs. Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams, and Harry Bird, and Ted Lagore, noble grand of that lodge.

Mr. Moulton of Portland, who has been a member in an IOOF lodge for 60 years, was present and spoke briefly. He is visiting in Roseburg at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Warren. Mrs. Huron Clogh, who belongs to Western Star Rebekah Lodge, and Mrs. Dorothy Neal, a member of the lodge at Reedsport, were also present. Members sang "The Happy Birthday Song" to Victor Bird. He has been a member of the Roseburg lodges for 45 years. Refreshments were served in

ROSEBURG BEAUTICIANS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

The Roseburg Unit of the Oregon Beautician's Assn. held its regular meeting Tuesday evening. Jerry Davenport was installed president of the unit; Fern Craig, vice president; Helen Lane, treasurer; and Fern Andrus, secretary.

The program for National Beauty Salon Week was discussed. All members and prospective members will attend breakfast at the Umpqua Hotel Tuesday, Jan. 11, officially opening the week, dedicated to "More Beautiful Women."

An educational film on hair-styling was also shown to the members present.

MRS. TUTHILL HOSTESS TO CLUB AT LUNCHEON

The Knitting Club of West Sutherlin met Tuesday for a one-hour luncheon at the home of Mrs. Cecile Tuthill. Mrs. Tuthill had as her guests: Jesse Brown, Helen Coar, Marion Weaver, Mrs. Riesenweber, Evelyn Frotscher, Laura Larson and Miss Francis Riesenweber. The afternoon was spent knitting various articles.

RITA BACON IS HOSTESS TO CLUB ON TUESDAY

The Casual Club met Tuesday at Rita Bacon's home. A regular meeting was held and afterward members worked on quilt squares with the thought of holding a bazaar at a later date.

The following members were present: Pat Job, Phyllis Perce, Alice Heitler, Glenda Biles, Phyllis Gilman and the hostess, Rita Bacon.

The dining room by a joint committee from the two lodges. The tables were attractive with small yellow candles surrounded by eucalyptus and heather. These were placed between trailers of mottled green vines combined with more heather. A gorgeous banquet of early daffodils was also used in the dining room. Serving the refreshments were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnston, Mrs. Myrtella Canaday, Jesse Bowman, August Heck, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dent, Mrs. Rosenbark, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dent. Mrs. Ed Bayliss had helped the committee with the preparations but due to illness was unable to help serve.

LOVELY SHOWER PARTY HONORS MRS. JAMESON

Mrs. Cecil Jameson was the guest of honor last week at a lovely pink and blue shower given at the home of Mrs. Versie Dunham on Coles Valley Road in Wilbur. Co-hostess was Mrs. Grace Hanson. The house was tastefully decorated in streamers and bows of pink, blue and white crepe paper and the gifts were arranged in a bassinet trimmed in matching colors.

The afternoon was spent visiting and all of the guests participated in a guessing game concerning the coming baby. With a prize to be awarded to the winner later. After viewing the many gifts received by the honoree, refreshments featuring cakes in the pink and blue motif were served.

Those attending included Mrs. Mary Fox, Sue Pulver, Mrs. Jessie Snyder and son, Mrs. Porter Garrett, Mrs. Betty Mattingly and daughters, Mrs. Edith Bagley, Mrs. Margaret Neal, Mrs. Lola Nichols, Mrs. Estelle Hart and sons, Mrs. Lora Emmens, Mrs. Helen Woodward, Mrs. Willis Long, and son, Mrs. Blomquist and son, Mrs. Edith McKay, Mrs. Cecile Langdon and daughter, Linda Koehler, Rick and Mark Hanson, Judy Jameson, Mrs. Oma Lee, Mrs. Bea Westerman and daughter, and Mrs. Lewis Ruffell and children.

MRS. BRADLEY HOSTESS TO ART AND EMBROIDERY CLUB

The Roseburg Art and Embroidery Club met Wednesday afternoon with its vice president, Mrs. C. J. Bradley, who conducted the meeting.

It was reported that Mrs. Edward Deal was unable to attend because of illness.

Mrs. Bradley, assisted by Mrs. Henry Snyder, served lovely refreshments to Mrs. J. G. Stephenson, Mrs. Earl Decker, Mrs. Martha Eskime, Mrs. Austin Spencer, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Clarence Miller, Mrs. Carolyn Page, Mrs. C. R. France, Mrs. Alfred Neal, Mrs. Jess Bowman, Mrs. Argie Bels, and Mrs. Frank Dent. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Feb. 5, at the home of Mrs. Fred Cornell. The 30th anniversary of the club will be observed and charter members will be honored.

PAN AMERICAN WORLD AIRWAYS guests on its first polar flight to London and Paris Dec. 9-19, are pictured above in the very elegant new headquarters of Pan American, Champs Elysees, Paris, France, which was inaugurated Dec. 16 at a large party. Mrs. William Jelski, far right, represented the Lewis Travel Service in Roseburg. Left to right: Mrs. Hope Williams of Williams Exporters, Portland; Bill Francis, Churchill Tours, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy, who have the Globe Travel Service in Salem, Corvallis and Coos Bay, and behind them, Ted Bouck, Pendleton Travel Service; Evelo New of Ask Mr.

Foster Travel Service and behind her, Floyd Foster of Astoria Travel Service; Al Mismar and Frances Smith of the Dorothy Van Nuys Travel Service, Portland; Walt Elsoesser, district sales manager for Pan American, Portland; Mrs. Pete Sather, Sather Tours and Travel Service, Salem, and Mrs. Jelski. The first week of the tour was spent in London and the second week in Paris. In addition to the travel representatives above, several Oregon newspaper people were guests on the tour. (Pan American World Airways picture).

NEWLY INSTALLED OFFICERS in the Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club at a recent luncheon meeting were Halys Spurgeon, president; Ruby Belle Kobernik, vice president; Beth Gordon, treasurer; and Velma Albertus, secretary. (Picture by Kash, Winston Studio.)

ident, Beth Gordon, treasurer, and Velma Albertus, secretary. (Picture by Kash, Winston Studio.)

The Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club met recently at the Junction Cafe for a dinner meeting and installation of new officers.

The installing officer was Jo Lesher, assisted by Vivian Colton. The following new officers were installed: Halys Spurgeon, president; Ruby Belle Kobernik, vice president; Beth Gordon, treasurer; Zilpha McAllister, club representative.

The standing committees appointed included: Community service, Margaret McCord; hostess, Edna Ebner; housing and reservations, Daisy Fox; membership, Ruby Belle Kobernik; press and publicity, Shirley Wagner; program and education, Vivian Laurence; scrapbook, Van Darling; parliamentarian and lexicologist, Jo Lesher; evaluation for living, Virginia Colton.

Vivian Laurence had the table topic, which was "The Book that Most Impressed me as a Child."

Country Club Women Meet At Luncheon

Women of the Roseburg Country Club met at a noon luncheon at the clubhouse Thursday, followed by the contract bridge play. High score for the afternoon's play was won by Mrs. Robert Gann, second by Mrs. H. C. Stearns, and third by Mrs. J. F. Dillard.

Plans were made by the group for the annual guest-day Valentine brunch and bridge party to be held Feb. 13, at the clubhouse.

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON EVENT OF TUESDAY

Mrs. Robert Bradley, Melrose, was honored in her birthday luncheon at a potluck luncheon at her home. Mrs. Byron Turpin and Mrs. A. L. Daniels were hostesses for the charming affair.

Following lunch visiting was enjoyed by the Mesdames Ed Zeigler, Dale Ellis, May Hendrick, Ted Winkelman, George Williamson, Martha Burns, Bradley, Turpin and Daniels.

MISS GLORIA HAINES GIVES SATURDAY PARTY

Miss Gloria Haines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Haines of Portland, entertained about 20 of her schoolmates Saturday evening at a party given at her home. The evening was spent dancing. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by the hostess.

Beth Gordon spoke on "International Toastmistresses." Shirley Wagner's topic was "What Toastmistress has Done for Me" and the subject of Ruby Belle Kobernik's speech was "Why I Joined Toastmistress."

Two guests at the meeting were Don Elda Ledgerwood, and Evelyn Krysl.

ROYALTY of Glendale Bethel, International Order of Job's Daughters, is pictured above. Left to right: senior princess, Linda Humphrey, honored queen, Jean Facher, and junior princess, Mary Pate. The Bethel members recently voted to give $5 to the March of Dimes drive. (Fox Photo.)

Watch Your Calendar

FEBRUARY

9-15

CHECK THESE DATES!

National Beauty Salon Week

MISS GLORIA HAINES GIVES SATURDAY PARTY

Miss Gloria Haines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Haines of Portland, entertained about 20 of her schoolmates Saturday evening at a party given at her home. The evening was spent dancing. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by the hostess.

WINSTON BEAUTY SALON

Jct. of 42 & Old 99 Evelyn Krysl Ph. OS 9-5192

FULLERTON DRUGS

635 South East Jackson Street

ORchard 3-7415

1/2 price sale

TUSSY RICH CREAM

beauty diet for all 3 skin types

DRY SKIN
...mild, softening lubricating...
...magically relaxes face lines...
...For overnight use...

NORMAL SKIN
...protects it against extreme...
...adds a fresh, young skin glow...
...Apply overnight...

TIGHTLY OILY SKIN
...15 or 20 minute treatment...
...helps keep skin moist and smooth...

reg. 3.50 now $1.75
6 Oz. reg. 2.00 now $1.00

Free phone test

GUARANTEED BEAUTY CARE

Enjoy the very finest beauty care in pleasant, quiet surroundings where you may come as you are and feel at ease.

SIX EXPERT STYLISTS

READY TO TAKE CARE OF YOUR EVERY BEAUTY NEED

Phone ORchard 3-3448.

TOWN & COUNTRY BEAUTY SALON

Formerly at Miller's

On Jackson Just North of CO-BO