Three Mental Patients Face Kidnap Charges

MOUNT VERNON — Three mental hospital inmates faced arraignment Tuesday on first degree kidnaping charges.

The charges were filed Monday by Skagit County Prosecutor Walter Deierlein for the kidnaping of a young couple seized by the Northern State Hospital inmates after they escaped from the Sedro Woolley institution with the aid of smuggled arms Friday night.

Charged on two counts — one for each hostage — were John Charles Burr, 18, and Richard Martin, 21, Seattle, and James Edward Ensor, 23, Port Angeles.

If convicted, the trio could be sentenced to life imprisonment or, if the jury ordered, to death. Deierlein said he does not at present intend to ask the death penalty.

The three inmates had been committed as psychopathic delinquents. In their escape they used a shotgun and rifle and an attendant was slightly wounded when the shotgun was fired, apparently accidentally.

Saturday morning they abducted Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seay, both 21, hospital employees, and forced them to drive south. The Seays were released unharmed when the escapees were captured near Everett, about 40 miles south of Sedro Woolley.

Burr, Martin and Ensor were being held in jail here.

Educator To Speak To Association Of University Women

By HAZEL S. MARSH

Miss Florence Beardsley, Salem, director of elementary education in the state will be guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Roseburg Branch, American Assn. of University Women Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in the Gold Room of the Hotel Umpqua. She will address the group on the status of women in the rapid social and economic changes of this age.

Miss Beardsley has served on the State Board of Education for the past 18 years. Prior to that time she was an educator at the Oregon College of Education, Monmouth. She was awarded her bachelor's and master's of arts degrees at the University of Oregon and did advanced study at Columbia University.

She is currently an executive member of the commission on the study of general elementary school standards and is an ex-secretary of the State Elementary Principals Assn. and of the State County School Superintendent's Assn. She is also a member of the Education Policy Commission of the Oregon Education Assn.

In addition to her association with the State Department of Education, Miss Beardsley is president of the Delta chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma and is a past-president of the Salem Business and Professional Women's Club.

Girl Says Mother Coached Her On How To Testify

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO — Joseph Bedard was bound over to superior court on a child beating charge Monday after his daughter told a municipal judge she had been coached on how to testify.

Bedard, 26-year-old sheet metal worker, is charged with beating his stepdaughter, Susan, 9.

Pamela Bedard, his 7-year-old daughter, told Judge Thomas L. Bocci Jr. in a chamber conference that her mother had coached her to testify that the mother and not Bedard had beaten Susan. Bedard's attorney moved for the abrupt ending of the preliminary hearing.

Susan Bedard Tuesday testified that her stepfather beat her with a doubled up belt and hit her in the eye. She is now being cared for in the San Mateo County juvenile receiving home.

Bedard showed no emotion as Judge Bocci ordered him bound over.

Her case came to light a week ago when she wrote a note to a school official begging to be adopted because she said she wasn't liked at home.

She testified she was beaten for cooking eggs, which was "against the rules."

The Bedards live at nearby Mar.

Minnesota Vote Closely Watched

MINNEAPOLIS — Near zero cold and a chilling northwest wind met voters balloting Tuesday in a special Minnesota congressional primary election being watched by national leaders of both political parties.

The two successful nominees from a field of seven Republican and three Democratic candidates will vie at the polls again seven days hence for the seat in the House held for 31 years by the late Rep. August Andresen, a Republican.

The forecast called for temperatures no higher than 10 above.

A heavily farmed area, Minnesota's first district, embracing a dozen southeastern counties, has aligned itself on the GOP side for more than 50 years. It showed Republican margins of 60 to 69 per cent in the last several elections.

New Trial Requested After Youths Convicted

SPOKANE — A new trial was asked Monday for convicted teen age slayers Joseph Harry Weston, 15, and Nicholas W. Simchuk, 14.

The request was made in a motion filed in superior court by attorneys for the two youths. The petitions, the attorneys said, were based on "statutory grounds used in asking new trials." They did not elaborate.

Weston and Simchuk were convicted of second degree murder Saturday in the shooting of Manley G. Martin, 63, Spokane, during a burglary of Martin's bobby shop. They were also convicted of second degree burglary.

SALEM — Henry S. Howard, Eugene, was elected chairman of the State Wage and Hour Commission Monday.

The commission establishes wages and hours for women and minors in employment.

County Library Board Reports Book Increase

Mrs. Joe Withers of Glide, who was recently appointed a member of the Douglas County Library board by the county court, met with the board at the regular session Feb. 4. She succeeds James Bovington who has served on the board since it was created early in 1953.

Mrs. Jack Randall of Drain was elected treasurer to succeed Mr. Bovington in that position.

Circulation for January soared to 37,990 books in the county system, compared to 30,305 for 1956. Circulation in the Myrtle Creek community library reached 2,190 for the month. Yoncalla circulated 1,541, Reedsport 1,494, Drain 1,495 and Sutherlin 1,205. An outstanding increase has been made this year by Sutherlin. In January 1956 the library circulated 432 books.

Members reported on a meeting with the county court held Jan. 31 at which time a proposed budget for 1958-59 was considered.

It was reported that a committee to plan for National Library Week had been appointed at Reedsport. Members are Mrs. Charles Corey, Mrs. Juanita Halliday, Mrs. Bessie Murray and Miss Ada Sherman.

Portland Traction Co. To Appear In Court

PORTLAND — The Portland Traction Co. is to appear in court at 2 p.m. Thursday to say whether it wants to defend itself against a contempt of court charge or appeal the contempt action to the state Supreme Court.

The firm had asked Circuit Judge Charles W. Redding to quash the contempt proceedings. The judge, however, on Monday granted to Dist. Atty. Leo Smith an order directing Portland Traction to show cause why it should not be held in contempt for its defiance of a court order in halting service on its interurban lines.
