NCAA Title Trips Virtually Clinched By Several Teams

Looks more and more as if the Cincinnati, Ohioans got away with about the tidiest hunk of college basketball talent around when they latched on to 19-year-old Oscar Robertson from the Indianapolis, Indiana, a year and a half ago.

Oscar, the brilliant Bearcat, started 'em with Cincinnati's freshman team last year, excited the most blasé New York critics with a 56-point show a couple weeks ago... and last night? Well, Robbie just about clinched the Bearcats' first trip to the NCAA championships.

The former Indianapolis high school star scored 40 points as Cincinnati whipped Bradley 94-77 to open a 1½ game lead in the battle for the Missouri Valley Conference title. He scored 31 points in the second half, 18 of them in a five-minute stretch after Bradley made the score 38-55.

While Robertson was letting himself go some of the nation's other bigwigs were improving their qualifications for post-season tournaments.

West Virginia, ranked No. 2 a step behind Kansas State and a step ahead of Cincinnati, clinched the regular season title in the Southern Conference, crushing VMI 104-58. The Mountaineers' Jerry West had 22 points as Freddie Schaus' club made it 32 straight conference victories and 19 wins in 20 games this season.

Sixth-ranked Oklahoma State, sought by both the NCAA and the National Invitation tournaments while playing as an independent this year, walloped 20th-ranked Oklahoma 70-59 for a 16-2 record. And Temple, now No. 7, reeled off its 16th straight win 71-61 over LaSalle as Guy Rodgers scored 25 points for a school career record of 1,543.

Dayton, also a prize tournament catch, made it 12 straight with a 62-53 defeat of DePaul. Notre Dame, with Tommy Hawkins scoring 33, spilled Butler 90-81 and the Ivy League leader, Dartmouth, won its eighth straight league game 76-64 over Harvard.

Extra sessions were needed for St. Joseph's (Pa.) to nip Villanova 86-82, Nebraska to down Missouri North Texas 73-70, Bowling Green to beat Toledo 74-69, and Furman to edge South Carolina 79-78. Penn beat Cornell 71-69 in overtime.

Harlem Roadking Visit Set At Riddle Tonight

The Harlem Roadkings, Bobby Grund's mirth-provoking zany basketball team, will tangle with the Hanna Nickel basketball team, Thursday night in the Riddle High School gym, starting at 8 p.m.

Unveiling perhaps their greatest basketball team in the past 26 seasons, the Roadkings have a habit of winning. Last season they hung up a record of 149 wins against seven losses and in that span ran up 58 straight victories.

The Roadkings have come up with a new sensational dribbler in Sonny Mitchell of Louisville, Kentucky and on the comedy side will be hilarious Bob Gollway, displaying his court jesters that keep fans in an uproar throughout the entire game.

Grund will surround these players with the defensive ability of Chuck Duncan and two other talented ball players to give them another outstanding club.

Olympic Games Site Construction Delayed

ROME — The head of the Italian Olympic Committee (CONI) has assured doubters that all the necessary buildings and other facilities will be ready in plenty of time for the 1960 Olympic games in Rome.

Work has been going ahead rapidly on two sports centers at the northern and southern edges of Rome where most of the games will be held.

But thus far not a spadeful of dirt has been turned at the site of the proposed Olympic Village to house the athletes of many countries.

At a news conference Wednesday CONI President Giulio Onesti said the committee hopes to begin work on the village as soon as it can get approval from the Rome City Council for the building plans. But for some unexplained reason the City Council has delayed giving approval to the plans at meeting after meeting.

Robertson's Scoring Average Still Trails

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oscar Robertson came close, but failed to overtake Seattle's Elgin Baylor Wednesday night in the race for major college basketball's individual scoring lead.

Robertson scored 40 points for Cincinnati in a 94-77 victory over Bradley for a 19-game total of 633 points and a 33.3 average.

That left him just four-tenths of a point behind according to the NCAA Service Bureau. Baylor, idle Wednesday night, has averaged 33.7 in 18 games on 607 points.
