Melrose Man Recovering From Accident Injuries

By NETTIE WOODRUFF

Pete Veenstra, Melrose, is recovering at his home from injuries received Monday evening in a freak accident in his barn.

He was milking a cow which became frightened by a cat which jumped onto its back. The cow kicked and stomped him when his milking stool broke and he fell to the floor. He suffered bruises and a cut over his eye which required seven stitches.

The Veenstras received word Monday of the death of their daughter-in-law in California. She died after a short illness leaving six children and her husband.

Smile Winners

Melrose School students winning the smile contest in their respective grades included, Ricky Foshee, Debbie Alberding, first grade; Barbara Harrah, Gregory Young, second; Susan Trusty, Bill Wandell, third; Walter Harrah, Anita Becker, fourth; Calvin Harrah, Georgianna Sanders, fifth; David Graves, Jennifer Cork, sixth.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Wallen have returned to their home in Kennewick, Wash., following a weekend visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Duncan on Cleveland Hill Road.

Mrs. Laura Ware is back at her teaching job at Melrose School following a stay in Chicago with her son who underwent major surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nelson and Donna of North Bend spent the weekend here at their place and visited relatives.

Attends Game

Guy Oglesby attended the basketball game in Eugene Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alberding and children visited relatives and attended business in Newberg and Molalla during the weekend.

The N. J. Bossonnette family of Roseburg plan to move to the Hansen rental next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Withycombe of Corvallis visited during the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Busenbark.

Mrs. Maud Trent and son, Houston Jr., Mrs. Paul Trent, Mrs. Otis Conn and son, Gene, recently drove to Salem, where the former received a checkup.

Carol Manning and Gaye Thompson, who are employed in Salem visited their respective families during the weekend.

Polio Returns Listed

The Mothers March for polio in Melrose netted $120.30. Mrs. Henry Scott was chairman. Others assisting in the drive were Marie Orenbaum, Irene Burke, Ethel Rogers, Ella Mae Young, Marjorie Landers, Zelma Sand, Willene Ellis, Beverly Sensabaugh, Carol Wulff and Elsie Isaeson.

Recent visitors at the Ivar Lindstrom home included their son, Jack, and wife and daughter of Corvallis, and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Minor and children of Shambaugh, Iowa.

Miss Princess Eghbert and Elma Frericks of Grants Pass visited recently with the D. N. Busenbarks and the Henry Scott family.

Drain PTA Sets Scholarship Fund

At the February meeting of the Drain PTA Mrs. Armin Clemo announced the coming of the Bloodmobile Mar. 12, and explained how the work will be carried on. It will be at the grade school and further information will be published later.

The scholarship committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Mildred Whipple, presented its recommendations which were accepted by the membership. The plan calls for a scholarship of $100 to be awarded to any suitable high school graduate who wishes to enroll in college and take a teacher training course.

This student may attend any accredited university or college and prepare to teach either on elementary or secondary level. The plan also stated that if no suitable student received the scholarship one year, two scholarships would be offered the following year.

Princaipal Vernon Todd introduced the new teacher, Mrs. Dorothy Elston, and called attention to the display of tooled leather items recently completed by the art class.

Mrs. Charlotte Martin, chairman of the Founder's Day program committee, presented corsages and boutonnieres to the past presidents present. They were Mrs. Bessie Lakey, Mrs. Ruby McDonald, Arthur Cromier, and the present president, Mrs. Francis Yoder.

A skit, entitled, "What PTA Means to Father," was presented by Arthur Cormier, John Rundell, Grant Levins, Joe Benninghoff, Martin League, Horace Cunningham and Ivan Johnston. Bradley Cole gave a piano solo.

Refreshments, featuring a Founder's Day cake, were served by fifth grade mothers, reports correspondent Edith Bush.

Former Drain Teacher Visits

By EDITH BUSH

Miss Erna Schmidt visited over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whipple at Drain. She formerly taught Home Economics in Drain and is now teaching at Milwaukie.

Prineville Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Erland Westberg of Prineville visited here briefly. They formerly operated the Tastee Freeze business here.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clearman and son, Dennis, and Mr. and Mrs. John Lovelace and children visited last weekend at the Harold Johnson home. They were accompanied back to Drain by Mrs. Joyce Johnson and son Douglas, who will visit here for a week before returning to her home at Baker.

Wayne DeMeritt of Eugene visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myron DeMeritt, last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bush and Stephen spent last weekend in Monmouth where they attended the events of the annual OCE Folks' Festival and visited their daughters and Mrs. Nellie Bush.

Two carloads of the Methodist High School MYF group went to Willamette Pass to the skiing area Saturday. They report that the rain was falling there and no skiing could be enjoyed. On their return they had a chili supper at the Jim Whipple home.

Melrose PTA Presents Founders Day Program

A Founder's Day program was presented following the regular business meeting of the Melrose PTA.

The program included a talk about early day teaching and PTA in the area by Mrs. H. P. Conn. She taught at the old Melrose School in 1904 and 1905. Mrs. Lyle Eddy, a former teacher at Elgarose and Melrose, also spoke about earlier days of teaching. Numbers were played by the kitchen band, the Melrose Pan Handlers.

Mrs. Don Isacson, president, presided and announcements were made concerning playground equipment and kiln supplies being purchased. A report was given on the recent dental clinic and survey.

Refreshments were served by second grade mothers, reports correspondent Nettie Woodruff.
