BEZARK!

WE'RE CHOPPING PRICES LIKE MAD!

The most talked about sale of the year! It's Miller's fifth annual George Washington's Birthday Sale, one day of tremendous savings for you while we clean up odds and ends of merchandise we don't want and hope anyone will take home at most ridiculous prices. Once a year, we let the clerks look under and behind the counters in all the nooks and crannies and then let our imagination run riot in writing an ad that we hope you will not only want to read, but that will keep you laughing from the first item to the last. The result—a lot of good quality merchandise that you can have for "pittance" prices just to get out of the store. Get the family gas buggy warmed up tonight so you won't lose a minute getting here tomorrow. Doors open 9:30 A.M. and please don't trample the manager. He's sensitive.

Washington's Birthday Sale Starts 9:30 A.M. Sat.
