

A TOAST is given by Emile, leading actor played by Ellis Vance to Ensign Nellie Forbush, Marilyn Hull, both of whom are double-casted in the play. At the center left is Ruby Ann Vance, who also plays the part of Ensign Nellie Forbush, and in the lower picture Bloody Mary, double-casted by Glenda Smith, makes happy talk with her hands to Liat, Joyce Ferguson, and Lt. Joseph Cable, who is double-casted by Fred Bates.

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1958

— The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 3

"SOUTH PACIFIC," one of the most enchanting musical comedies ever to be produced, has been selected by Douglas High School for its 1958 performance to be presented Thursday, Feb. 27; Friday, Feb. 28; Saturday, March 1, and Thursday, March 6. Reservations for the play may be secured by calling the school.

IRENE McLAUGHLIN AND LAURA GRUBBS, music director and drama director, need no introduction to Douglas County residents, for their excellent presentations of Oklahoma and Show Boat were both outstanding productions and the Douglas High casts received state-wide praise for their work. Those who have had "sneak" previews of only parts of South Pacific believe that this year's production will be more popular than any to date. A number of the characters are double-casted. The cast has been hard at work for weeks and those planning to attend the entertainment can well be assured of a fine presentation. Assisting with the feature page of South Pacific were Neal Golgert and Ron Evans.

HULA GIRLS and Bloody Mary sing one of their songs (top right) to entice officers to their island. The officers are Commander Harbison played by Neal Golgert and Lt. Joseph Cable, double-casted by Jack Gresham. Back row: Peggy Huggins and Darlene Kleva. Next row: Gay Bradley and Carole Fairley. Third row from back: Sherry White, Leona Shepherd (double-casted as Bloody Mary), and Lois Williams. Seated are Gail Alexander, Judy Gresham, Karen Owens and Karan Wilkerson.

DELANO DRAKE, in Air Force uniform, double-casted in the lead of Emile, (at right, in picture at lower right) watches the Marines as they wash his clothes and sing the "Bloody Mary" song. The part of Billis in the play is played by Dave Gilman and Ron Evans (the two boys with tataoing). Seated are Jim Williams, Gary Spangler and Ray Dowdy. At the back are Jim Slack and Phil Hill, on the left, and Mark Bunn on the right.

All Pictures On This Page
By "Chris" Of
The Photo Lab

