"Breath of Spring," the annual Elks-sponsored fashion show and card party presented by Xi Tau Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will be held Friday, March 7, in the Elks Ballroom starting with a dessert-supper at 7:30 p.m. Proceeds this year will go to the Park School for Retarded Children.

Mrs. Ralph Huestis, president, has announced her committees as follows: General chairman and commentator, Mrs. Morris Bower; music, Mrs. Paul Hult; models and props, Mrs. William Semmler and Mrs. Paul Yundt; decorations, Mrs. H. Johnson, Mrs. John Carrigg and Mrs. Heustis; refreshments, Mrs. J. A. Barnes, Mrs. Henry Darby, Mrs. James Finley and Mrs. Laurence Peterson; cards, Mrs. Lee Lacey and Mrs. George Quine; tickets and prizes, Mrs. Bert Griffin and Mrs. Dan Dimick; publicity, Mrs. Robert Kent and Mrs. Harold Jokela. Mrs. Jack Wharton, social sponsor of the chapter, is also assisting the committees.

Among the models is Mrs. Frank Foyston, a newcomer to Roseburg, who is a graduate of the Patricia Stevens Modeling School in Chicago where she was a free lance professional model and did some TV work. She also did modeling in Vancouver, B.C., with Hudson Bay, Jantzen and others. Mrs. Henry Darby and Mrs. Gene McCoy have done considerable modeling in Roseburg. Another lovely model of note will be Miss Judy Hensley, Miss Roseburg of 1957.

All clothes, accessories, shoes and a special order of hats will come from Miller's Department Store.

Tickets and reservations may be secured from the jewelry counter at Miller's or by calling Mrs. Bert Griffin, OR 2-1335, or Mrs. Dan Dimick, OR 3-6033.
