Wedding Of Feb. 15th Of Interest In Roseburg

A wedding of local interest took place Feb. 15 in Newark, Calif., when Wayne Niebaum, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Niebaum of Look-in-glass, took as his bride Miss Viola Tabaris, daughter of Mrs. Tim Ammons, Newark.

The beautiful double ring ceremony was performed at a six o'clock candle-light service at St. Edward's Church, in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends.

Following the ceremony a festive wedding banquet was held at the home of the bride's parents for 100 guests. Mrs. Ammons and her daughter are former residents of the Hawaiian Islands, and on a recent trip to the islands, the former brought back quantities of tropical flowers which were used in the family home.

The bride's bouquet was a beautiful large orchid surrounded by white carnations. Her mother and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. W. H. Niebaum, wore orchid corsages. Wayne was graduated from local schools and following a four-year term in the U.S. Navy, has accepted employment in Hayward, Calif., where the newlyweds will make their home after a honeymoon tour. The bride has been employed in the mail order department of Montgomery Ward Company in Oakland. She will return to her position.

Going from the valley for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Niebaum and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Niebaum, and children.

Interesting Evening Enjoyed On Tuesday

Alpha Iota Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, chose Mrs. Eldon Caley and Mrs. Lowell Winters as models for the chapter at the spring fashion show at an interesting meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Triplett. Plans were made for a bake sale.

Hair dos and don'ts... a few pointers for the individual...

Prominent nose... Do bring hair forward to cover most of the ear. Wear top hair in soft curls or high bang. Don't pull hair back away from ears or wear in chignon—avoid long bangs...

Narrow forehead... Do expose one side of forehead to make forehead seem wider. Don't wear center part or crowd forehead with waves on both sides...

Uneven hairline... Do hide it with soft wave or curls. Don't show it by pulling hair back and flat on top...

Low forehead... Do wear a loft high bang that just covers hairline. Don't make it look lower by long bangs of low waves... (more hair style tips next week).

Congratulations to Mrs. George Strand on the birth of a new daughter born Friday morning, February 28, at Community Hospital.
