

Honoring Mrs. Paul J. Ploss who is leaving soon for Santa Monica, Calif., to make her home as a hostess tea was held at the Harold Horn residence on NE Jackson Street Wednesday, Mrs. Arthur Jaeger, Mrs. Horn's mother; her aunt Mrs. William Chas. and Mrs. Harlan Carter assisted about the rooms. Mrs. Walker Smith and Mrs. Larry Apple served. Huge bouquets of flowering quince and gorgeous carnations provided the decorations.

Mrs. Rudy Degner and Mrs. William Person gave musical numbers and an amusing and intimate account of a White House dinner was read by Mrs. Chase.

Those attending and participating in the presentation of a parting gift to Mrs. Ploss were the Mesdames Laura Darling, Harry Wallen, Royce Busenbark, Duane Lafferty, Lillian Person, Ethel Chase, M. Smith, Walker Smith, Norman Hunt, Eugene Briggs, Kenneth Busher, George Blanks, Charles Thomas, Lina Hopple, A. H. Jaeger, Harlan Carter, Larry Apple, A. E. Millard, Eugene Sullivan, Warren Powell, Rudy Degner, Margaret Starbuck, A. R. Kroeke, James Baker, Anna Wolf, Rita Walker, Vera Wooten, Lee Flaherty, Joe Johnson, Charles Mumby, William Fox, Ruby Lytle, Ray Doerner, Sam Campbell, E. J. Broderick and Mr. Joe England.

Mrs. Ploss has been a member of the county clerk's staff for a number of years. Her numerous friends will greatly miss her. Mrs. Ploss will be with her daughter and grandson and her three sons and their families, all of whom live in and around San Diego.

CAROLYN SHIVLEY SELECTED CBA VALENTINE SWEETHEART

Carolyn Shivley, a junior at Canyonville Bible Academy, was selected "Valentine Sweetheart" of the school at a Valentine social sponsored by the sophomore class held Friday evening in the school auditorium and dining hall.

Crowned by sophomore president, George Oldham, Miss Shivley was escorted by Dick Sterling and accompanied by princesses and their escorts: Rose Anne Kessi and Al Copeland; Sandra Gregory and Walt Hixson; and Carolyn Brent and Don Johnson.

High point of a carefully planned program of entertainment was a hillbilly mock wedding during which the bridegroom, played by Bill Doherty, tried to run out on the bride, and Lois Smith, who then chased him back to the altar with a rolling pin. Others in the cast of the hilarious stunt included Kay Smith, Barbara Nelson, Ken Carlson, Don Smith, Woodrow, Alvin Matthews, Carl Meador, Lester Dunn, Marlene Swanson, Don Harvey, Gary Neizey, Ken Lotter and Ray Cude.

John Fenderson, class advisor, served as master of ceremonies for the program which began with a reading by Barbara Nelson. Various musical and instrumental numbers followed, including a humorous pantomime "Doesn't Anyone Love Me?" echoed by a serious song "No One Ever Cared for me Like Jesus."

Decorations made by the sophomore girls featured red and white crepe paper carnations with a huge paper heart to form the background of the auditorium stage. Streamers in both the auditorium and dining hall also carried out the red and white colors. Refreshments in the dining hall and a movie, "Guadalcanal Diary," concluded the evening.

WILBUR YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY SPAGHETTI DINNER

Marguerita Yraguen and Brenda Galloway entertained members of the basketball and volleyball teams of the Wilbur Grange School and their coaches at a spaghetti dinner Thursday evening. The dinner was served by Mrs. Boni Yraguen at the Yraguen home at Winchester. The young people went to Miss Yraguen's home after school and the evening was spent playing baseball and other outdoor games.

Guests enjoying the event were coaches Mrs. Jean Treman, and Ron Brown; Gale Forrest, Kristi Hoyt, Sandra Stevens, Marilyn McCree, Sharon Nichols, Mary Welby, Sherry Elam, Karen Pasch, Mike Leep, Mike Tidwell, John Johnson, Eric Young, Monte Strimberg, Kenneth Walsh, Richard Holder, Joe Bagley and Jimmy Clark.

HILLOW BRIDGE CLUB MEETS THURSDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Lillie Bellis entertained the Hilow Bridge Club at her home on East Third Avenue in Sutherlin Thursday evening. Early spring flowers were used about the rooms.

For the evening's contract bridge play, Mrs. Bennett won high score and Mrs. Moss low.

After the bridge play, Mrs. Bellis served a delicious supper to Pat Moss, Sue Skistrom, Nadine Bennett, Barbara Liesinger, Edna Benetti, Lou Shepherd, Marion Armstrong and Lavelle Chilson.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Liesinger Thursday, March 6.

SUTHERLIN MAN HONORED AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

Vern Holgate of Sutherlin was honored Sunday by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Holgate, at a birthday dinner at their home in Grants Pass.

Those enjoying the day with Mr. Holgate were Mrs. Vern Holgate and son, Gordon; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Riggs of Sutherlin; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Trusty and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston of Oakland; and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Holgate, and son, Mike.

FIRST BIRTHDAYS OCCASION FOR PARTY

Mrs. H. W. Conn of Riverside entertained recently at a birthday party in honor of the first birthdays of her son, Brad, and Karen Kruse and Jeannie Matthews.

An afternoon of visiting and picture taking was enjoyed and Mrs. Conn served a delicious supper to the honored guests and to Mrs. Don Kruse and Dennis, Mrs. H. B. Kruse, Mrs. Bill Matthews and Bobby, Bill and Jeff, Judy Sanders and Lois Conn.

Secoy-Olsen Party Honors Mrs. Lammert

Mrs. Bliss Secoy and Mrs. Ray Olsen were hostesses at a very charming pink and blue shower party Thursday evening at the former's attractive home in compliment to Mrs. Robert Lammert of Canyonville. Pink flowering plum, pink carnations and a pink decorated cake graced the beautifully appointed table.

Lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Lammert from the two hostesses and Mrs. Ann Hatch, Mrs. A. E. White, Mrs. Doreen Webster, Mrs. Jim Henry, Mrs. George Southman, Mrs. Frank Morgan, Mrs. R. Chandler, Mrs. William Lockyear and Mrs. Fred Klabe. Following a social hour, Mrs. Secoy and Mrs. Olsen served lovely refreshments.

MOCK WEDDING FEATURE OF RECENT BRIDAL SHOWER

Bea Westerman of Wilbur was honored recently at a lovely bridal shower given by Mrs. Jessie Pulver at her home in Sutherlin. Mrs. Mary Fox and Sue Pulver were the co-hostesses.

The house was beautifully decorated in the Valentine motif, with red and white crepe paper streamers festooning the ceiling and the gifts arranged on a lace covered table centered by a large frilled heart.

A hilarious mock wedding was a feature of the afternoon. Sue Pulver portrayed the part of the bride, Mary Fox the bridegroom, Maxine Moseley was the minister and Joyce Ennis acted as the bride's mother. After playing appropriate games, the bride-to-be opened her many lovely gifts.

Refreshments, featuring a pink and white cake topped with a miniature bride, were served to the following: The honor guest and her daughter, Debbie; her mother, Mrs. Bonnie Koehler; Mrs. Cecil Jameson and daughter, Judy; Mrs. Margaret Veal; Mrs. Olga Harvey; Mrs. Edith Bagley; Mrs. Estella Hart and sons; Linda Koehler, Mrs. Joyce Liesinger, Mrs. Cecil Langdon and Erin; Mrs. Emma Harvey, Mrs. Margaret Ross, Mrs. Carl G. Veal, Mrs. Grace Hanson and Ricky; Mrs. Bill Long, Mrs. Helen West, Mrs. Joyce Ennis, Mrs. Don Moseley, Mrs. Bertha Gilliland, Mrs. Carl Davis and Mrs. Lewis Bintliff and Michael.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Oma Leigh, Mrs. Costelline, Mrs. Jack Congro, and Mr. and Mrs. William Edson.

MELROSE GRANGE HALL SCENE OF CARD PARTY

An enjoyable card party was held Saturday evening at the Melrose Grange Hall with V. S. Woodrow, Alvin Matthews, Carl Meador, Lester Dunn, Marlene Swanson, Don Harvey, Gary Neizey, Ken Lotter and Ray Cude.

John Fenderson, class advisor, served as master of ceremonies for the program which began with a reading by Barbara Nelson. Various musical and instrumental numbers followed, including a humorous pantomime "Doesn't Anyone Love Me?" echoed by a serious song "No One Ever Cared for me Like Jesus."

Decorations made by the sophomore girls featured red and white crepe paper carnations with a huge paper heart to form the background of the auditorium stage. Streamers in both the auditorium and dining hall also carried out the red and white colors. Refreshments in the dining hall and a movie, "Guadalcanal Diary," concluded the evening.

WILBUR YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY SPAGHETTI DINNER

Marguerita Yraguen and Brenda Galloway entertained members of the basketball and volleyball teams of the Wilbur Grange School and their coaches at a spaghetti dinner Thursday evening. The dinner was served by Mrs. Boni Yraguen at the Yraguen home at Winchester. The young people went to Miss Yraguen's home after school and the evening was spent playing baseball and other outdoor games.

HILLOW BRIDGE CLUB MEETS THURSDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Lillie Bellis entertained the Hilow Bridge Club at her home on East Third Avenue in Sutherlin Thursday evening. Early spring flowers were used about the rooms.

For the evening's contract bridge play, Mrs. Bennett won high score and Mrs. Moss low.

After the bridge play, Mrs. Bellis served a delicious supper to Pat Moss, Sue Skistrom, Nadine Bennett, Barbara Liesinger, Edna Benetti, Lou Shepherd, Marion Armstrong and Lavelle Chilson.

SUTHERLIN MAN HONORED AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

Vern Holgate of Sutherlin was honored Sunday by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Holgate, at a birthday dinner at their home in Grants Pass.

Those enjoying the day with Mr. Holgate were Mrs. Vern Holgate and son, Gordon; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Riggs of Sutherlin; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Trusty and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston of Oakland; and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Holgate, and son, Mike.

FIRST BIRTHDAYS OCCASION FOR PARTY

Mrs. H. W. Conn of Riverside entertained recently at a birthday party in honor of the first birthdays of her son, Brad, and Karen Kruse and Jeannie Matthews.

An afternoon of visiting and picture taking was enjoyed and Mrs. Conn served a delicious supper to the honored guests and to Mrs. Don Kruse and Dennis, Mrs. H. B. Kruse, Mrs. Bill Matthews and Bobby, Bill and Jeff, Judy Sanders and Lois Conn.

WILBUR YOUTH GROUP HAS SATURDAY OUTING

A large group of young people from the Union Methodist Youth Fellowship at Wilbur went to Junction City last Saturday to spend a day swimming and skating at the Benton Lane Amusement Park. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Carey, Mrs. Walter Crozier and Mr. Douglas Hart drove the cars and chaperoned the group.

OES DISTRICT MEETING TAKES PLACE AT DRAIN

The district meeting of the Eastern Star was held in the new Masonic Hall in Drain Friday evening, with the Elton Eastern Star members and officers exemplifying part of the work of the order.

Worthy Grand Matron, Laurene Hibberd of Elgin, was escorted to the East and honored in due form. Also present to receive recognition was Virginia Wright of Myrtle Creek. Grand Martha; Margaret Laster of Cottage Grove, grand representative to Manitoba; and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Porter, worthy patron and Matron of Cottage Grove.

The Elton officers exemplified balloting and initiation in a very beautiful and impressive ceremony.

North Star Chapter members used a railroad train motif in a clever address under good of the order, at the close of which a gift was presented to worthy grand matron, Laurene Hibberd. A solo by Margaret Cool was enjoyed during this part of the program. Short talks by the guests complimented the local chapter on the progress of work on the new hall and on their hospitality.

Refreshments were served at tables beautifully decorated with spring flowers.

FRIENDSHIP NIGHT MEET TAKES PLACE IN RIDDLE

Mistletoe Chapter 114, OES, Riddle, held a Friendship Night meeting Tuesday in a beautiful Oriental setting arranged by Mrs. Merle Branch and Mrs. Robert Linder, at the Masonic Hall.

Mrs. George Dawson assisted with table decorations. Japanese lanterns, fans, and ray umbrellas were arranged about the rooms with Oriental containers for flower arrangements of quince, pussy-willows and greens, for rooms and refreshment tables. Over each entrance was a pagoda front and chimneys.

Officials among the 37 guests from other chapters of Oregon, Betty Early, worthy Matron of Oakland Chapter 91, Oakland; Nell Hershegger, worthy Matron of Josephine Chapter 28, Grants Pass; Agnes Berry, worthy Matron of Merrill Swink, worthy patron, Nevada Chapter 28, Central Point; Laura Hartley, worthy Matron, Huron Chapter 57, Canyonville; Lavern von Schiltz, worthy Matron, Charlie Pratt, worthy patron, Roseburg Chapter 8, Roseburg; Leila Wimbler, past grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Roseburg; and Virginia Wright, Grand Martha of Myrtle Creek.

Following the meeting, members of Bethel 39, Job's Daughters, presented a program in Japanese costumes. Refreshments were served to 66.

PINOCLE CLUB HOSTED BY LLOYD BALLENTINES

Early spring flowers formed a pretty centerpiece Saturday night when Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ballentine of Sutherlin entertained their pinocle club at a 7 o'clock potluck dinner.

Those enjoying the evening with the Ballentines were Mr. and Mrs. Noah Rose of Cottage Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Campbell, and Mrs. Don Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Galla and Mrs. and Mrs. Bordette Harvey.

For the evening's pinocle play, Mr. Harvey won men's high and Mrs. Rose ladies high, with low score going to Mr. and Mrs. Don Curry. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Campbell Saturday, March 15.

MRS. W. S. CARLSON GIVES PARTY FOR GRANDDAUGHTER

The second birthday of Kay Thomas was celebrated on a recent Wednesday at a delightful party given at the home of Kay's mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Carlson, by the honoree's grandmother, Mrs. W. S. Carlson of Drain.

Guests enjoyed games between 3 and 5 p.m., followed by the opening of the birthday gifts and appropriate refreshments.

Invited to honor Kay were Mrs. Bob Cowbrough and Chris, Robin, Scott and Kelly; Mrs. Jack Callins and Sharon, Tal and Gary; Mrs. Paul Beckley, Jim and Tom; Skeels and Carol and John Thomas.

BUELLS OF RIVERSDALE ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Buell of Riversdale entertained last week at a dinner party at their home. The party was in honor of the recent birthdays of Mrs. L. L. Harmon, Mrs. H. B. Kruse, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Buell. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock from small tables which were decorated with spring flowers.

An enjoyable evening of games and visiting was had by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alley of Moro, who were the guests in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kruse and Mr. and Mrs. Buell.

GODFREYS ENTERTAIN AT REUNION AND DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. John Godfrey of Wenatchee, Wash., spent several days last week visiting their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Godfrey, and other relatives in this area. A family reunion and dinner were held Sunday at the Godfrey home on Cemetery Road in Wilbur.

Others attending included Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Van Vleet and daughter of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Herb Worman, Mr. and Mrs. Will Liesinger, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Liesinger and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Godfrey and family and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Godfrey.

MRS. HATCHER HOSTESS TO SUTHERLIN WW CLUB

The WW Club of Sutherlin met Friday for a noon luncheon at the Umpqua River home of Mrs. Harold Hatcher, with Evelyn Foster, Edna Campbell, Alta Jean Boyd, Madeline Beecroft, Neva Roberts and Karen Martin enjoying the day. Pinocle was played during the afternoon hours.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Madeline Beecroft.

LARRY RUSSELL HOST TO LARGE TEENAGE GROUP

Larry Russell of Yoncalla was host to about 70 teenagers from Drain and Yoncalla at his home Saturday. Dancing and a movie were the diversions for the evening. Delicious refreshments were served later.

Those present included Al J. and Nancy Peake, Thomas Byron of Eugene, Michel Dickey, Clifford Morin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reeves, Don Work, Ricky Booth, Gail Briener, Lauretta Abbott, Loretta Blackstaff, Leonard Morin, Susy Loveladt, Betty Collins, Leroy Boan, Linda Roulett, Don Revelle, Judy Moody, Bob Dozier, Ron Keale, Virginia Currier, Jack Moody, Earle Davis, Connie Campbell, Bob Morin, Bunnie Carstensen, Judy Long Orlan Wiley, Merly Wamsley, Mary Long, Bruce Timmons, Francis Henderson, Jim Cowan, Barry Kresch, Bob Jones, Edna Kresch, Michel Dickey, Williams, John Lewey, Bonnie Bowman, Ken Bowman, Howard Loyd, David Williams, X. David Williams, Barbara Kresch, Katherine Dickey, Leora Dags, Sharon Boan, Dan Langdon, Virginia Langdon, Clon of Eugene, Michel Dickey, Gay Mundt, Tony Smith, Bonnie Sherry, Janelle Mathis, Judy Goodrich, Judy Byron, Jan Balfour, Deane Mundt, Judy Powell, Opal Crow, Jim Booth, Terry Russell, Mrs. Matilda Russell, Larry Russell and Vern Haffner of Eugene.

CANYONVILLE POLICE CHIEF FETED AT FAREWELL DINNER

Between 30 and 60 grateful Canyonville residents bid farewell to Ted Nimmo, who is retiring from the office of Chief of Police March 1, and his family at a potluck dinner held in the Youth Center Building Saturday evening.

Appropos of the business in prospect for Mr. Nimmo, the building was decorated with paper fish and nets. He expects to go into the commercial fishing business at Winchester soon after March 1. Following dinner, Mayor Ed Oaks presented the Nimmo's with a memento, a gold watch and a memento, an appropriate thank you and farewell speech.

Hosts included Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoverson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gaham, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hussey and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gill, with other members of the city council and their families. Carol Fuller played dinner music.

INITIATION CEREMONY TAKES PLACE TUESDAY

Mrs. H. A. Johnson, Mrs. Charles Pruden and Mrs. Bart Nordling were initiated into the Canyonville Lions Auxiliary at a meeting held Tuesday evening at the Terminal in Myrtle Creek.

Following the initiation ceremony, refreshments were served by the boys were served to Miss Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. James Medford and daughter; Miss Sandra Liles and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dunning, Alice, Claudia and Gilbert.

4-H CLUB ENTERTAINS AT HOME OF LEADER

Members of the Sally Baker 4-H Club No. 12 entertained members of their family Tuesday evening at the home of their leader, Mrs. Raymond Dunning. Miss Jane Gates was guest speaker.

After the evening refreshments were prepared and served by the boys were served to Miss Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. James Medford and daughter; Miss Sandra Liles and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dunning, Alice, Claudia and Gilbert.

MRS. SCHEELE HOSTESS AT DESSERT-LUNCHEON

Mrs. Ben Scheele was hostess at a lovely dessert-luncheon at her home in Winchester Thursday afternoon. The tables were covered with beautiful handmade cloths, with early spring flowers forming the decorations.

UMPUQA GROVE NO. 15 HAS POTLUCK, SOCIAL

Umpqua Grove 51 of the Woodmen Circle of Winston met Monday evening for a potluck dinner and social. During the evening, colored slides on Alaska were shown, and Mrs. Bess Cornish showed slides on hunting and fishing trips.

PINOCLE CLUB MEETS FRIDAY AT SUTHERLIN

Mrs. Gwen Webber entertained her pinocle club at her home east of Sutherlin Friday evening.

For the evening's pinocle play, Mrs. Moore won men's high score, Mrs. Modlin low and Mrs. Erickson the floating prize. Mrs. Moore was presented with a lovely birthday gift from the group.

A close of the evening Mrs. Webber served refreshments to Donna Dean Blakely, Gertrude Seehawer, Fay Ashcraft, Mary Modlin, George Brine, Kay Moore and Juanita Erickson.

ELGAROSE COMFORT CLUB ENJOYS PINOCLE PARTY

The Elgarose Comfort Club held a pinocle party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Showers Saturday evening. Mrs. Merle Sanders and Pete Veestra won prizes.

Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Veestra, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Holmquist, Mrs. and Mrs. Stanley Sogren, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hanson and daughter, Margie, Marilyn Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. David Sand and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Showers.

FAMILY DINNER PARTY HELD AT SCHAFER HOME

A delightful family dinner party was given recently by Mrs. Albert Schaffer of Camas Valley in honor of the fourth birthday of her grandchild, Christine Mitchell.

Present to enjoy the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ruppert and son, Bill, of Myrtle Creek; Mrs. Susan Mitchell, Seattle, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schaffer and Vicky Ruppert, Camas Valley.

AZALEA GRANGE MEMBERS ENJOY SOCIAL EVENING

The Azalea Grange Social meeting held at the grange hall Friday evening featured square dancing, with 30 members participating. Sandwiches and coffee were served at the close of the evening.

MRS. HARRY NORTON GIVEN CHARMING SURPRISE PARTY

A group of friends met Saturday evening and drove to the Harry Norton home at Fair Oaks for a surprise party honoring Mrs. Norton on her birthday.

At 6:30, a no-host potluck supper was served to the honored guest and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton, and to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Towner, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hand, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lamoreaux, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Austin and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams.

The honored guest was presented with a lingerie shower after which the evening was spent playing pinocle.

MISSIONARY GROUP MEETS AT UMPQUA

Mrs. Byrtle Swinehart entertained ladies of the Umpqua Missionary Group at her home Tuesday evening. Quilting and sewing were done during the day and a lovely luncheon was served at noon.

Those enjoying the day were Mrs. Nordie of Chico, Calif.; Mrs. Roberta Coffey, Mrs. Alice Manning, Mrs. Opal Munson, Mrs. Flo Rippstein and the hostess.

NEIGHBOR CLUB MEMBERS MEET FOR POTLUCK

Neighbor Club met Thursday at Sutherlin at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Lindsay for a noon potluck luncheon.

Those enjoying the luncheon with Mrs. Lindsay were Bonnie Denney, and sons, Rikie and Ronald, and Smith, and girls, Joyce, Joyce Allen and daughter, Gwen; Rachael Newell, Zelma Kinsford, Doris Wagner and daughter, Robin; Ann Holland, Mary Lang, Betty Colvin, Ora Lee Lang and Jo Carr.

WEATHERLYS ENTERTAIN ON SATURDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weatherly of Elkton were host and hostess Saturday evening at a potluck dinner and pinocle party.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crisman, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Winterbotham and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Henderer, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crisman won the ladies' and men's first prizes.

FOURTEENTH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED ON MONDAY

Mrs. Paul Geddes entertained Monday evening at her home on Lane Street honoring her daughter, Carol, on the occasion of her 14th birthday. A delicious dessert supper was followed by games. Daffodils formed the room decorations.

BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED AT PARTY IN ELKTON

Mrs. Bill Weatherly of Elkton was hostess Tuesday at a party in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Carl Grimsrud and Mrs. Leo Crisman.

LOVELY DINNER PARTY GIVEN BY WINGFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. James Wingfield were host and hostess Saturday evening at a delightful dinner party given at their home.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson and Mrs. Marion Ramsey, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Todd and the host and hostess, and children, Todd, Kevin and Jimmy.

MRS. MAYES GIVES DINNER FOR HUSBAND ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Lloyd Mays entertained on a recent Sunday at a lovely dinner party honoring her husband on his birthday.

Covers were placed for the guest of honor and for Mr. and Mrs. Richard Griffith and son, Dick; Beth, Rick and Scott Mays and the hostess.

WILBUR WOMEN HOSTESSES FOR METHODIST WOMEN

Mrs. Mabel Grubbe and Mrs. Lily Short were hostesses at the noon potluck dinner of the Wilbur Methodist Women's Society last week. The day was spent quilting and a white elephant sale was conducted in the afternoon. Mrs. Doug Hart and Mrs. Dick Hanson will be the hostesses for March.

SILVER LOCKS CLUB MEETS ON TUESDAY

Mrs. Herschel Phillips and Mrs. Noble Schuler entertained members of the Yoncalla Silver Locks Club in the fireplace room of the Yoncalla Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon.

The Valentine theme was carried out in decorations and games, each bringing a Valentine for exchange during the afternoon. A large Valentine cake made by Mrs. Phillips was served with coffee and tea to 20 ladies.

SEW AND SO CLUB HOSTED WEDNESDAY AT SUTHERLIN

Mrs. Grace Wood of Sutherlin graciously entertained at the Sew and So Club at her home Wednesday evening. Early spring flowers were used as a table centerpiece.

The evening was spent visiting and sewing, after which Mrs. Wood served a dessert supper to the Mesdames Vera Tolgate, Wendell Carver of Roseburg; Doris Steinbach, Juanita Holgate, Naomi Riggs, Erma Cornish, Myrtle Wahl and Lochie Thompson.

Country Club Women Hold Luncheon Thursday

Women of the Roseburg Country Club met Thursday for their regular noon luncheon followed by contract bridge. Five tables were in play.

WILLING WORKERS CLUB HAS AFTERNOON MEET

Mrs. H. C. Stearns received high score, with Mrs. Dale Albright second and Mrs. Horace Berg third.

Mrs. Clarence McKern graciously entertained members of the Willing Workers Club of Scotts Valley at her home Wednesday afternoon.

At the next meeting each member is to bring something to sell for a "Country Basket" not to exceed 50 cents in value. It was reported that the benefit dinner served recently netted $28.75, which will be divided between the Polio Fund, Heart Fund, and the Cancer Fund. The next meeting of the club will be held March 3 at the home of Mrs. Perry Smith.

WHITE ELEPHANT PARTY EVENT OF TUESDAY

The Glendale Friendship Club met at the 100F Hall Tuesday evening and held a white elephant party. Mrs. Corrine Testorli, who is moving to Forest Grove, was honored at a surprise handkerchief shower.

After the party, cherry pie with cream and coffee were served. The table was decorated in the Washington's Birthday theme. About 17 members were present.

PINK AND BLUE THEME FOR LOVELY SHOWER

The home of Mrs. Merrill Tozier was the scene Monday at 2 p.m. of a charming pink and blue shower party given in honor of Mrs. Ronald Lawrence and her baby son, David Robert. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Tozier were Mrs. Nelson Howard and Mrs. Glen Van Horn.

Invited to honor Mrs. Lawrence were Odessa Barr, Helen Jensen, Margaret Erve, Phyllis Zover, Lois McAlpine, Jeannette French, Carmen Cox and Grace Cox.

WEATHERLYS ENTERTAIN ON SATURDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weatherly of Elkton were host and hostess Saturday evening at a potluck dinner and pinocle party.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crisman, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Winterbotham and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Henderer, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crisman won the ladies' and men's first prizes.

FOURTEENTH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED ON MONDAY

Mrs. Paul Geddes entertained Monday evening at