LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, MARCH 8, 1958

—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 7

A LUNCHEON and fashion show highlighted the Jay-C-Ettes state convention held here March 7-8-9. A mixer and smorgasbord took place in the Gold Room of the Hotel Umpqua Friday night. This morning a brunch was held in the Indian Room and the luncheon style show took place today at the Woman's Club. A banquet and dance will be in order for tonight at the fairgrounds and Sunday breakfast will be followed by attendance at church.

MRS. WILLIAM ALLEN, (top left), had charge of arrangements for today's feature page and Mrs. Dale Fick and Mrs. Robert Raffensperger, had charge of registration. At the top right are Mrs. M. C. Bowker, fashion co-ordinator; Mrs. Joseph Agost, chairman of the fashion show, and three of the models: Mrs. Henry Darby, Mrs. Frank Foyston and Mrs. Gene McCoy. Center left are Mrs. William Sterling and Mrs. Verner Anderson, chairmen of Jay-C-Ette activities for the weekend, and at center right are Mrs. Robert Green, Mrs. Don Croucher and Mrs. William Pritchett arranging a very clever Oriental egg tree. At the lower right are the Sutherland women who had charge of the brunch: Mrs. Larry Armstrong, Mrs. Clay Shepard, Mrs. R. E. Bennett, Mrs. Don Barlow and Mrs. Charles Sikstrom.

"SUDDENLY IT'S SPRING" is the theme of the convention. "Cherry Blossom Time" formed the luncheon decoration. Del McKay was master of ceremonies for the luncheon and the beautiful door prizes were donated by Carstens Furniture, Carter Tire Co., Curtis Home Furnishings, Luverne's, Mable Lewis, Millers, Pavi's, Payless Drugs and Roseburg Jewelers. Mrs. Paul Hult was pianist and Ellis Vance, baritone, was vocalist. Fashions for the show were by Miller's Dept. store. The Umpqua Hotel was headquarters for the convention.
