

Wharton Home Scene Of Charming Tea Friday

AMONG the guests enjoying the charming tea given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Charles W. Wharton for Miss Rosa B. Parrott were Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mrs. T. B. Virden and Mrs. Arthur Baum, close friends of the hostess and guest of honor for many years. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

PRESIDING AT THE BEAUTIFULLY appointed tea table at the party given by Mrs. Charles W. Wharton Friday afternoon for Miss Rosa B. Parrott was Mrs. W. F. Chapman. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Naomi Scott and Mrs. John Young. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

One of the most charming affairs of the week was the tea Friday afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m. given by Mrs. Charles W. Wharton at her beautiful home on SE Chadwick Street in compliment to Miss Rosa B. Parrott, who moved this week to Williamette View Manor, 2705 SE River Road, Portland.

Georgous arrangements of early spring flowers were used about the rooms, while the lace-covered tea table was centered with a beautiful arrangement of saxifrage, daffodils and other early spring blooms. Mrs. J. B. Wharton poured and Mrs. W. F. Chapman, Mrs. John Young, Miss Helen Casey and Miss Naomi Scott assisted about the rooms.

Invited to enjoy the occasion with Mrs. Wharton in honor of Miss Parrott were Miss Helen Casey, Miss Naomi Scott, Miss Isabel, Miss Edith and Miss Lulu Curry, Mrs. J. B. Wharton, Miss Bess Wharton, Mrs. Roy Bellows, Mrs. Harold E. Schmeer, Miss Gertrude Rast, Mrs. Arthur W. Baum, Mrs. Arthur Clarke, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. Walter Gordon, Mrs. B. L. Hardenbrook, Mrs. W. Ernest Butler, Mrs. Harry Hildeburn, Mrs. W. F. Chapman, Mrs. John Young, Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. F. C. Desendorf, Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. Robert P. Kidder and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Mrs. Everett Teater, supervisor, introduced Mrs. Powell, who presented a group of students in an hour's entertainment. Others taking part were D'Ann Fullerton, Karen Trimble, Kathy Cardiff, Barbara Ladd, Connie Rushton, Marlene West, Judy Beecroft, Carol Oederick, Judy Kelley, Jannis Norman, Carolyn Scherner, Joey Heidrick, Anita Kahananui, Jeffy Norman, Charles Norris, Ginger Darby, Loretta Gladwell, Sheryl Konopatski, Sandra Olsen, Deborah Stryker and Shelly Doerner. The floral arrangements were from the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arola. Judy Heberd had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Herman Hasbargen, Grace Teater and Clara Nichols served the refreshments. Lowell Atterbury was chairman of the entertainment and Ruth Michelle was publicity chairman. (Picture by Warren Powell)

The Fourth Anniversary Reception of the Roseburg Ground Observer Corps was held Monday at the Roseburg Women's clubhouse and was attended by 150 guests.

Distinguished visitors attending were Major Floyd E. McConnell, commander of the 4770th Ground Observer Squadron and the Portland Filter Center; Major Delmat L. Dunham, state coordinator for the Ground Observer Corps, Salem, accompanied by Mrs. Dunham; Mayor Arlo Jacklin, who welcomed the guests; Arthur McGuire, county coordinator for GOC and his assistant, Mrs. Larry Wright; S-Set. Charles E. Stovall, sector sergeant for Coos and Douglas counties. Interesting and informative talks were given by all three officers and also by Mayor Jacklin.

Supervisors attending from other posts were Mrs. Ed Doolittle of Myrtle Creek Post and Mrs. Crystal Conn of Melrose Post. Troop 29 with its leader, Perry Green, attended, four of the Scouts presenting the colors and leading the flag salute.

Mrs. Everett Teater, supervisor of Roseburg GOC Post, planned the reception and made up the list of 250 awards which were presented by the air force officers. Roseburg Post has been outstanding during the past four years with over 1,000 volunteers taking part in manning the 24-hour post. Roseburg GOC Post also has the distinction of being the largest civic organization in Roseburg with one of the largest organized youth units within the group. Roseburg Post is now on Ready-Reserve since the first of the year and hopes to take part in more social activities in the future.

Entertainment was furnished by the Joy Powell Dance Studio with a wonderful program of tap, ballroom, hula and black light routine. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Herman Hasbargen and Mrs. Veron Teater. Flowers from the Carl Arola home in Garden Valley were arranged by Mrs. Vernon Teater.

A BRIDE Friday, March 7, at Tabernacle Baptist Church in Seattle was Miss Dixie Noy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Noy of Roseburg, who was married to Lt. (j.g.) Leslie Hong, US Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hong of 1811 St. Louis Drive, Honolulu, T. H. The Rev. Forrest Johnson performed the ceremony. (Picture by Phipps Studio, Seattle).

The wedding of Miss Dixie Noy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Noy, Roseburg, and Lt. (j.g.) Leslie Hong, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hong of Honolulu, Hawaii, took place Friday, March 7, at the Tabernacle Baptist Church in Seattle, Wash., the Rev. Forrest Johnson officiating. White gladioli and white calla lilies formed the church decorations.

The bride was lovely in a gown of nylon dotted swiss with taffeta lining. The dress, fashioned by the bride's mother, was styled with a skirt made in three full tiers, a row of heavy imported lace forming the neckline of the fitted bodice. The bride carried a white Bible borrowed from her maid of honor, Miss Lois McCulliston. Her fingertip veil and headpiece of lace with seed pearl trimming had been worn by the bride's sister-in-law. Her pearl necklace and earrings were a gift of the bridegroom.

Bridesmaids were Miss Harriet Ishii and Miss Mary Joe Timmons. They and the maid of honor wore gowns fashioned by the bride's mother, styled on lines similar to that worn by the bride. Their dresses were of Nile green dotted swiss and they carried white sheath calla lilies. Martha Krebs and Janet Clark were flower girls. They wore frocks of matching Nile green dotted swiss.

Best man was Lt. (j.g.) Jay Larson and ushers were Ned Noy, Stanley Boone and Stanley Searls. A reception at the church followed the wedding ceremony.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and Seattle Pacific College. She is presently teaching first grade at Hamlin Park School, Seattle.

The bridegroom was graduated from Roosevelt High School and University of Washington. He is stationed with the U. S. Navy on the USS Whitehurst at Seattle.

FORMER GLENDALE RESIDENTS married at 3 p.m. Dec. 24 at the North Chapel at Ellsworth Air Force Base were Dorothy D. Richardson and Arthur Clayton, pictured above. The bride was salutatorian of the 1954 Glendale High School class and was graduated with honors from Southern Oregon College at Ashland in 1957 and is teaching this year in San Diego. The bridegroom, who is stationed at Ellsworth Air Force Base, was graduated from Glendale High School in 1954. His mother, Mrs. Florence Clayton, is a resident of Glendale.
