Country Club Women Have Luncheon, Bridge

Women of the Roseburg Country Club met Thursday at the clubhouse for their regular weekly noon luncheon followed by contract bridge. Four tables were in play.

Miss Ann Kelly of Myrtle Creek was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Emily Judd of this city.

Mrs. H. G. Hansen received high score for the afternoon's bridge play; Mrs. Oscar Ecklund, second, and Mrs. R. A. Ganz, third.

Thursday, March 27, a board meeting at 11 a.m. will precede luncheon and bridge.

MRS. RONE WINNER ZONTA HAT CONTEST

Zonta Inter-City meeting at Corvallis was attended by three Roseburg Zontians, Mrs. Donald Rone, Mrs. Burt Burgoyne and Mrs. Edward Tauscher. There were approximately 75 members present with representatives from Portland, Salem, Eugene, Lebanon, Albany and the Roseburg contingent. Ex-governor Elmo Smith, editor of the Albany newspaper, was guest speaker. He gave a very fine talk on measures coming up in the next legislature.

Mrs. Donald Rone won the hat contest. Members designed hats to represent their business classifications in Zonta. Mrs. Rone, laboratory technician for the Roseburg Veterinary Hospital, wore a creation made from a dog feeding pan with the name Fido lettered on the front and topped with a styrofoam topping with a miniature doghouse housing a dog surrounded with thermometer, sutures and various instruments used in the treatment of animals. Her hat was accented with a snood made of a Roseburg Veterinary Hospital towel. Her very fetching earrings were large horse capsules. Mrs. Rone won the contest over 75 entrants.

The regular Zonta meeting scheduled for early in the month has been changed to Monday, March 24, to enable members to meet with Gladys Puckett, Spokane, who is the Zontian district governor of this area. The no-host dinner meeting will be held in the Coral Room of the Hotel Umpqua at 7 p.m. All members are asked to attend.

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

The Westminster Fellowship of the First Presbyterian Church installed its officers recently at an impressive candlelight ceremony with the Rev. John Adams presiding.

The following will lead the group during the year: Moderator, Boyd Knechtel; vice moderator, Sharon Lyons; secretary, Ginger Harris; treasurer, George Yost; faith chairman, Gladys Williams; witness chairman, Russell Dondoro; outreach chairman, Barbara Gidway; citizenship chairman, Brian Page; and fellowship chairman, Nick Cate. Parents were special guests at the program.

ONE OF THE most charming events of the season was the bright and sparkling spring fashion show, "My Lady's Dreams," sponsored by the Beta Xi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, of Myrtle Creek. Taking part in the show were Marianne Heath and Shirley Brown, pictured above. (Picture by Ruth Evans, Myrtle Creek).

Nearly 175 guests attended the show Saturday afternoon in the activities room of the Tri-City grade school.

The entrance way and main hall were attractively decorated with spring flowers and artistically arranged driftwood. "My Lady's Dreams" was greeted by a manikin appropriately dressed in spring fashion clothes. Each guest was given a bottle of perfume by courtesy of the Rexall Drug Store of Roseburg. Floral arrangements and the elaborate corsages were donated by the Umpqua Florist shop.

The charming buffet was complemented by the addition of an actual demonstration of broiling beef on a rotisserie broiler from which each lady was served a delicious sandwich. The demonstration was supplied through the courtesy of the Myrtle Creek Rld. Supply, who also put on a demonstration of actual washing and drying of a dress of the new "wash-n-wear" fabric, after which the model then re-modeled the dress. Mrs. Marian Felkel, president, modeled the gown.

The beautiful table service and stage decorations were done by Mrs. Marian Felkel, Neva Sobolik, Shirley Mellor and Vera Bradford. Each table was centered with miniature hat boxes gaily decorated in spring colors. The models stepped from a larger hat box on stage and modeled in front of a beautiful boudoir replica. The committee was assisted with the construction of the decorations by the Tri-City Lumber Co.

Vic Rice of Rice's Music Store played appropriate music on the Lowry electric organ. Mrs. Olive Brown was commentator for the fashion show and was introduced by Mrs. Florence Trenholm, general chairman of the fashion show. Clever pantomimes were given by Mrs. Shirley Brown and Mrs. Marianne Heath during intermission.

DEMONSTRATION PARTY ENJOYED AT ELKTON

Mrs. Charles Ross of Elkton was hostess at a housewares party Tuesday with Mrs. Bob Bibbick as demonstrator.

Guests were Helen Harbaugh, Dorothy Rinder, Donna Bossen, Viva Dement and Leanna James. Following the demonstration refreshments were served by the hostess.

VISITING HERE from Santa Ana, Calif., are Mrs. R. D. Carr (the former Zana Wilshire) and her 9 months-old daughter, Willa Renee, who are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilshire, 817 W. Princeton Ave. After a 10-day visit they will go to Portland, where they will be met by Lt. R. D. Carr, who will take them to Missoula, Mont., to visit his parents. Lt. Carr is stationed at the El Toro Marine Base as a jet flyer. Mr. and Mrs. Wilshire drove to Medford Sunday to meet the United Airlines plane and bring Mrs. Carr and Willa Renee back to Roseburg with them. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

Mrs. Roy W. Sedell Is Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. Roy W. Sedell entertained her bridge club Wednesday at a lovely 1 o'clock dessert - luncheon at her beautiful home. Spring flowers were artistically arranged about the rooms and on the serving table.

Covers were placed for Mrs. W. C. Callison, Mrs. Fred Stever, Mrs. W. C. Holmes, Mrs. Forrest McKay, Mrs. Alva Laws, Mrs. L. L. Powers, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher and the hostess, Mrs. Sedell.

High score for the afternoon's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Stever with Mrs. Motschenbacher winning the traveling prize.

UMPQUA AREA COUNCIL HAS SUCCESSFUL DANCE

Over 350 square dance members of clubs from Winston, Myrtle Creek, Canyonville, Tiller, Oakland, Elkton and Roseburg had a wonderful evening of dancing with Ed Gilmore as caller Saturday night at the Buckaroo Barn. All arrangements and expenses for the dance was taken care of by the Umpqua Area Council, which includes the Boots and Calico Club from Winston, the Belles and Beaus from Oakland, the Whirlwinds from Drain, the Umpqua Hillbillies from Myrtle Creek, the Swingin' 8's from Canyonville and the Hayfork Squares and Buckaroo Club from Roseburg.

Mr. Gilmore, a professional caller for over 12 years, was enthusiastically received. He and Mrs. Gilmore are from Yucaipa, Calif., but spend the major portion of their time traveling around the United States on planned tours calling square dances.

Mr. Gilmore originates several new square dances each year and many of them are used by local callers. Saturday night he introduced two of his new dances which were well received by the dancers. He records many of his dances through his own recording company under the label "Balance." Decca also records his square dances and instructions, is coming out soon with several new Gilmore albums.

Some of the guests, not members of the Umpqua Area Council, were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yoder from Coos Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Duke Sibbey from Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mawson from Creswell.

Four factors add up to the ideal figure . . . proper diet, exercise, posture and composure. One alone cannot do the job — remember — diet adjusts weight — exercise adjusts too skimpy or too generous curves — both of them figure flaws come from posture flaws . . . fashion begins with foundations . . . the correct foundation molds the figure, improves the posture and helps your fashions to appear at their best . . .

How often do you shampoo? As often as your hair needs it . . . if only maybe every two or three days is necessary . . . remember — what is bad for the hair is too much dirt, soap, sun, sand and starvation or lack of oil . . . not as we used to believe that too much water is hard on the hair.
