

Canyonville PTA Stunt Night Scheduled At School April 12

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR

Prizes for the Canyonville PTA Stunt Night, scheduled for Saturday, April 12, in the school gym, were agreed upon at a recent executive meeting.

Based on originality and humor, the prizes will be $10, $5, and $3. A refreshment concession will be run by the PTA during the evening, according to Mrs. Frank Pockrus, president.

The regular meeting of the PTA will be this Thursday evening, main item on the agenda being election of officers. A very short executive meeting will be held at 7:15.

To Purchase Glasses

Canyonville Lions Auxiliary met at the home of the president, Mrs. Charles Dowd, and arranged to purchase glasses for a Canyonville school student.

Mrs. H. A. Johnson won the door prize. The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. Tex Ritter, Riddle.

Further plans for the pancake breakfast to be served Centennial Sunday, August 10, were discussed at Monday's meeting of the Canyonville Methodist Wesleyan Guild.

Larry Walker, 7, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Carl Walker, underwent a tonsillectomy at Mercy Hospital during spring vacation.

Bill Nordling travelled to Hansen, Idaho, with his mother, Mrs.

Bert Nordling for a visit with relatives.

Camp Out

John Nordling, with Mike Wheaton and George Bouche, drove their 1924 Dodge up to a logging camp near Glendale for a few days camping.

David Crockett, Johnny Carson, Don and Roney Long, assisted by the Elmer Brysons, found a colony of bees in an oak tree on the hill behind the Bryson home and treated the neighborhood to a taste of wild honey.

Janet Smith, of Pontiac, Mich., who had been visiting the George Allen family for several weeks, has returned to her home.

Canyonville Methodists Plan Easter Service

Plans are being completed for the second annual Easter morning breakfast to be held at the Canyonville Methodist Church at 8 a.m.

Bart Nordling, lay leader of the church, is chairman in charge of arrangements of the event, which will include all who wish to attend.

Morning services Easter Sunday, with the Rev. Cyril Dorsett preaching, will be at the usual hour, 9:30 a.m. Church school will be at the same hour, reports correspondent Virginia Proctor.
