

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, MARCH 29, 1958

— The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

THE PARADE OF QUARTETS will be presented Saturday, April 12, at 8 p.m. at Central Junior High School by the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Singing in America and Roseburg Lions Club. Eugene is sending two quartets and a chorus. There will be quartets from Salem, Portland, Klamath Falls and Roseburg besides the Roseburg Chorus, top picture. Back row, C. A. Ricketts, director; Jack Gorthy, Dr. R. D. Sinclair, James Daugherty, Darrell Langevin, Ted Ranlett, Robert Hercher, Jerry Coen, Paul Cacy, Ray Johnson and John Thornbrue. Front row, Harold Baxter, Dr. James Piehl, A. J. Murray, Jim Bevel, Irv Pugh, president; Woody Murphy, Mel Nutt and Bill Black.

ROSEBURG QUARTETS to take part in the evening's entertainment include: The Cass Street Four: Mel Nutt, Paul Cacy, C. A. Ricketts and Robert Hercher; The Anonymous Four: Herbert Leaning, Ted Ranlett, Darrell Langevin and Irv Pugh (center pictures); lower left are Jerry Coen, Wally Crook, Jim Bevel and A. J. Murray, and lower right, The Original Four, includes Jack Gorthy, Harold Baxter, Bill Black and Dr. R. D. Sinclair. Roseburg quartet members are available to all groups and organizations desiring them for entertainments and programs.

All Pictures
By
'Chris' of the Photo Lab