Herb Tea Is Charming Affair At Adams Home

Seventy-five members and guests of the Roseburg Town and Country Garden Club enjoyed an herb tea held at the home of Mrs. L. E. Adams, 377 SE Fowler St. Monday afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m.

Arrangements of early spring flowers were used about the room and soft background music was provided for the affair. An exhibit of some 25 fresh and dried herbs was uniquely displayed adding interest and conversation for the guests.

An arrangement of yellow daffodils and dandelions in a silver container graced the plain damask-covered tea table. Mrs. Ernest Buell, Mrs. David Evans, Mrs. Dale Williamson, Mrs. Merle Winn, Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp and Mrs. Robert Wright presided at the silver service from which eight varieties of herb teas were served with dairy herb sandwiches, cakes and candies.

Special invited guests for the affair were Mrs. L. F. Stearns, Oakland, Umpqua district director; Mrs. Clyde Akay, Camas Valley, assistant district director; Mrs. C. J. Bielman, Sutherlin, state botanical gardens chairman; and Mrs. Ernest Wapita, Wis. houseguests of Mrs. Adams.

Mrs. L. E. Adams, Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. John C. Benson acted as chairmen of the tea.

CLEO TIPTONS HOST TO GRANGE YOUTH GROUP
Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Tipton were hosts to the Riverside Grange youth group at a potluck dinner Tuesday evening.

A short business meeting followed at which members discussed presentation of a play in May. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Walters, Mrs. Ellis Fuller, Neida Norris, Mrs. Robert Simonsen, Mrs. Elmer Young, Mr. and Mrs. Don Young, Scott Young, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Schneider, Marvin Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wicks, Tom Wicks, Sharon Wicks, Becky Wicks, Romano Wicks and the hosts.

MR. AND MRS. ROGER LEE DUNNIHO, above, cut the first piece of their wedding cake at the reception following their marriage March 8. The bride, Shirley Ann Blixseth, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blixseth and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Anna Dunnihoo, all of Roseburg. The Rev. Hayden Kelso officiated.

The wedding of Miss Shirley Ann Blixseth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blixseth, and Roger Lee Dunnihoo, son of Mrs. Anna Dunnihoo, all of this city, was solemnized at an impressive candlelight ceremony at the Jesus Name Full Gospel Church in Roseburg Saturday evening, March 8, the Rev. Hayden Kelso officiating.

The church was decorated with white candles in white candelabra. Large white baskets on either side of the altar were filled with daphne, bridal wreath and forsythia. Laurel and ivy were entwined about the altar railing.

Mrs. Joseph Stokes, at the organ, played several numbers preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Fred Janssen sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Stokes, who also played the wedding march.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Raymond Blixseth, who escorted her to the altar. The candles had been lighted previously by the ushers, Kenneth and Robert Paas. The bride and bridegroom exchanged vows in a single ring ceremony.

The bride was beautifully gowned in a lovely white lace over satin dress. The skirt was made of small ruffles cascading from the waistline to the floor. A fingertip-length lace jacket with satin lining accented the sleeveless gown. Her fingertip veil of white nylon net was held by a pearl hand tiara. She carried an exquisite bouquet of white and pink carnations tied with white ribbon streamers bound to a white New Testament.

Miss LeNeel Dunnihoo, a sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of aqua blue satin, overlaid with lace of the same shade. Her nosegay was of pink carnations caught with pink ribbon streamers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. C. B. Irons and Mrs. John Stokes. They wore attractive in gowns of aqua satin under lace of a deeper shade. Their bouquets were nosegays of pink carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, LeRoy Dunnihoo of Vancouver, Wash., who acted as best man and by Fred Janssen and C. R. Irons.

The mother of the bride wore a street-length suit dress of black velvet with pink accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations tied with matching ribbon. The mother of the bridegroom wore a grey suit dress with gray and red accessories. Her corsage was of red carnations tied with red ribbon.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church. The couple cut a tiered white wedding cake decorated with blue roses. A filigreed stand centered on the top layer held the bride and bridegroom figurines framed by a sweetheart arch of blue roses. Cake, punch and coffee were served from a table covered with white damask. Mrs. Robert Rode and Miss Dorothy Kelso served the cake; Miss Shirley Starnes and Miss Nellie Waddle poured coffee; Miss Siel Waddie served the punch; Miss Betty Irons presented the guest book and Miss Grace Irons had charge of the gifts.

The newlyweds left for a honeymoon trip to coastal points and are now at home in their newly-purchased residence on Morris Street.

The bride has lived in Roseburg for nearly 10 years. She was graduated from Grants Pass High School and attended Roseburg School of Business. She is presently employed at Gerretsen Building Supply Co. as a bookkeeper.

The bridegroom has been a resident of Roseburg for about five years. He was graduated from Vancouver High School and is employed at Umpqua Plywood.

Here from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Dunnihoo and children, Tommy and Debby, Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Wright of Springfield; and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Russell of Eugene.

A WEDDING of much interest in the Winston-Dillard area took place Saturday evening at 7 at The Winston Christian Church, when Donna Irene Geddes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Geddes of Winston, and Kenneth Lyle Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Carter, also of Winston, were united in marriage. The Rev. Newell Morgan of Roseburg officiated at the double ring ceremony. (Charles Kash, Winston Studio.)

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of pink and white spring flowers and bridal wreath.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, E. O. Bernhardt, the bride was lovely in a ballerina-length white satin and lace dress fashioned on princess lines with a full skirt. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion fell from a pearl trimmed tiara and she wore a three-strand pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried pink carnations.

The maid of honor, Carmen Cooper, wore pink broadcloth taffeta with matching hat and carried a large nosegay of white carnations.

Jerry Carter, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. David and Harley Carter, also brothers, were the ushers for over 100 guests who attended.

SHARON PEPPE, above, left, presents an engraved plaque expressing appreciation for the sacrificial giving of time and energy in helping with youth work at the First Christian Church to Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes, youth advisors. The presentation took place at the annual spring youth banquet Saturday evening at the church. (Picture by Larry Merrill).

"Coral Caves" was the theme for the annual spring banquet held Saturday evening in the lower auditorium of the First Baptist Church. At 6:45 p.m., 80 young people and adults gathered for dinner cooked by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Webb and served by the women of the church. The menu was in keeping with the aquatic theme.

The decorations planned by Lucille Hughes and Sharlene West gave an underwater effect. The stage was decorated as a cave, complete with a huge chest of jewels guarded by giant octopus. A boat covered with 3200 daffodils was floating along the ceiling of the cave. Mermaids, star fish, Japanese floats, tropical fish, sea horses and seaweed were used effectively to carry out the marine motif.

Sally Wells was toastmaster. Toasts, presented as a challenge, were given by Sharlene West and Tripp Sims. Besides a piano solo by Gene Gerlitz Jr. and a solo by Gene Horn, Larry Merrill led the group in singing. Viletta West drew a lovely picture in chalk. The evening's speaker, Judge Charles Woodrich, spoke on "What Can We as Christian Youth Do About Juvenile Delinquency?"

Beauty Tips from ME to YOU by Gerald Davenport

How can I control my hair? is a question my patron's often ask me. Here are a few tips...

Coarse, wiry... very unmanageable, but keeping well-lubricated and having cut by a professional should help. Baby fine... This hair benefits by being cut short so that its own weight doesn't drag it down... Lots of brushing up helps and a light permanent gives it body...

Bushy, too curly... Thin this hair and keep it that way... have oil shampoos and lots of shaping... Naturally curly... Oil shampoos to keep it from getting too fluffy-setting to follow the natural waves-proper cutting to follow the shape of the head...
