Southwest Oregon Presbyterian Elects

Mrs. Lawrence Mitchell, of Pullman, Wash., and member of the Board of Christian Education for the Presbyterian church, highlighted the recent two-day meeting of the Southwest Oregon Presbyterian.

Mrs. Mitchell explained the make-up and duties of the National Board of Christian Education and outlined the work carried on by that board. Also on the agenda were reports by the secretaries of the departments and a panel forum conducted by Mrs. W. M. Campbell, including Mrs. Harry Sanislo, Mrs. Maurice Newland, and Mrs. John Adams.

The panel discussed ways of improving use of Christian education material and other related subjects. A solo by Mrs. Dale Lindsey and installation of new Presbyterian officers closed the conference.

Mrs. Robert Beardsley was chairman of the committee on arrangements and Mrs. Lloyd Myers was hospitality chairman. The church and banquet tables were decorated by Mrs. Weston Hurd and Mrs. Cliff Byrd. Mrs. Ivan Pickens is president of the local Presbyterian Women's Assn. and reported that over 100 delegates from Southwest Oregon attended the meeting.

Two Douglas Co. Residents Have Licenses Taken

Two Douglas County residents have received mandatory three-year driver's license suspensions following conviction on drunk driving charges, the Oregon Department of Motor Vehicles announced today.

The pair are Ernest Clifford Firestone, 49, Sutherlin, and Steve Douglas Miller, 47, Drain. Their licenses were suspended effective March 24.

Receiving a one-year suspension for driving with a suspended license was Donald Burr, Lewis, Winston, whose license was suspended effective March 13.

A 30-day suspension upon court recommendation was dealt Jack Benjamin Stroop, 31, 988 N. Walnut St., following traffic violation convictions. The department suspended the license of A. Dean Lounsbury, 18, 1826 SE Main St., for 30 days as discretionary action because of Lounsbury's driving record.

Rebekah Lodge Meets For Dinner, Business

Roseburg Rebekah Lodge 41 met at the 100F Hall Tuesday for a 6:30 potluck dinner. A large number was present. A committee of four was in charge.

Reports were given by the visiting committee; V. Vivian Logsdon reported for the committee in charge of rearranging the regalia room; things of value were filed and stored for safe keeping, others of no value were to be destroyed.

Walter Daum displayed several quilts made by the Gold Star Mothers, which had been presented to the Odd Fellows Lodge, of Roseburg, at the recent district convention. Mrs. James Johnson, a Gold Star Mother and a member of the Rebekah Lodge, made the presentation. The quilts are to be sent to the 100F home in Portland. Ethyl Bailey, Alice Goff and Mary Pickens were appointed as a committee to investigate how many members are eligible to receive 50 year pins.

The door prize was won by Dorothy Neal. There is to be a sack lunch at the next meeting.
