

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD KENNETH HEFFNER, above, cut the first piece of their wedding cake at the reception following their marriage Feb. 6 in Glendale, Calif. The bride, Rose Ella Orser of Glendale, Calif., is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Orser of Roseburg. The bridegroom, who is a resident of Pomona, Calif., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heffner of Santa Barbara. Mr. and Mrs. Heffner are now at home to friends at 1995 W. Ninth St., Pomona.

Of interest to many in Roseburg was the wedding Feb. 6 of Rose Ella Orser, Glendale, Calif., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Orser of this city, and Edward Kenneth Heffner, Pomona, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Heffner of Santa Barbara, Calif. The marriage ceremony took place at 7 p.m. at the Thomas Chapel in Glendale, the Rev. Daniel R. Guild officiating. Baskets of white flowers formed the background for the service.

Miss Milosky was the organist and Patricia Johnson was soloist. Both are of Glendale.

George Orser, who made the trip south for the wedding, gave his daughter in marriage. She wore white brocade with white veil and shoes. Her flowers were white carnations and pink roses on a white ribbon.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Cecil Holloway of Redmond, Ore. She wore a blue brocade street-length frock and carried pink roses.

Best man was John Kerchman of Ontario, Dr. Melvin Orser of Los Angeles was usher.

A reception for 75 guests was held in the chapel reception room following the ceremony.

The newlyweds are now at home at 1995 W. Ninth St., Pomona, Calif., following a honeymoon trip to Las Vegas.

The bride attended Walla Walla College, College Place, Wash., and before her marriage was working at the Glendale Sanitarium.

The bridegroom attended University of Southern California and is an electronics engineer at El Monte, Calif.

Basket of daffodils, jonquils, tulips and hyacinths formed the decorations Sunday, March 30, for the wedding of Helen Marlene Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hubbard, Winston, and Melvin Edward Barron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlen Barron of Days Creek. The ceremony took place at 2:30 p.m. at the Dillard-Winston Methodist Church, the Rev. William Walker officiating in the double ring service.

Mrs. McCord played the wedding marches and accompanied Ellis Vance who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a white ballerina-length gown of nylon jersey over matching net and taffeta. The shirred bodice was partially concealed with a matching lace jacket with satin piping coming to a V in back with satin bows. Her flowers were pink and white camellias. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a headband of seed pearls.

Mrs. Charles Marier, the bride's sister, was matron of honor. She wore yellow net over taffeta with matching flower headband and carried rose-colored camellias. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kenneth Monnier of Eugene and Miss Eva Sue Gardner of Wilbur, the bride's cousins. They wore identically styled dresses in yellow and blue with matching headbands and carried bouquets of camellias.

Johnny Barron, a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Charles Marier and Doyle Gardner, the bride's cousins.

Flower girl was Pamela Alexander, the bridegroom's niece; ring bearer was Billy Hubbard, brother of the bride; candlelighters were Judy Barron and Caroline Thompson.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hubbard wore a charcoal grey dress with a corsage of daffodils. The bridegroom's mother also wore daffodils with her dress of turquoise print and white accessories.

Sewing and visiting were enjoyed during the evening social hours.

CHURCH PARTY ENJOYABLE EVENT OF FRIDAY NIGHT

A "Share Our Surplus" party was held Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the social room of the First Baptist Church. It was a time of fellowship for the whole family. Games were played, a talking film strip was shown and refreshments were served. A call was given to bring wearable clothing. A large number of used walking shoes were brought to be sent to Haiti.

The film strip was entitled, "A Matter of Fact." It is sponsored by the Oregon Council of Churches, produced primarily to present facts about the "Share Our Surplus" program. For every dollar given, 200 lbs. of food can be sent to the starving millions. The junior high department was in charge of the program. The junior high guild officiated over the games. The senior high group provided the refreshments.
