

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS of Douglas Court No. 18, Order of the Amaranth, took place Friday evening at the Masonic Temple. Pictured above, first row left to right: Isabel Caley, Thelma Flesham, Johnny Scott, Opal Ireland, Loran O'Neal, Ivena Halverson, John Blasing, Mable Lange, Pearl Young, Back row: Flossie Virden, Wayne

Ireland, Mary Jane Hansen, Inga High, Beulah Withers, Mammie O'Neal, Sally Hughes, Roy Rose, Robert Caley, James Cook, Flo Ann McDonald. Not present for the picture was Evelyn Frazier, musician. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

A new year began for Douglas Court No. 18, Order of the Amaranth, with the installation of officers and decorations of beautiful orchids and butterflies, with a color scheme of purple and orchid, Friday at 9 p.m. at the Masonic Temple in Roseburg.

High Templeton of Portland, grand royal patron for the state of Oregon, as well as many out-of-town guests and Masonic dignitaries were in attendance to witness Royal Matron Georgie Moss and Royal Patron James Dobbin relinquish the crown and station to Royal Matron-elect Opal Ireland and Royal Patron-elect Loran O'Neal.

The uncrowning ceremony was performed by Johnnie Scott, past royal matron, and Opal Ireland as crown bearer; Isabel Caley, standard bearer; Pearl Young, flag bearer; and Janice Hansen, marshal in the west.

Distinguished guests were introduced by master of ceremonies Thomas C. Scott, past royal patron and grand trustee, after the retirement of the 1957-58 officers.

Frank Moore, past royal patron, and Jeanie Moore presented many beautiful duets throughout the evening.

Installing officers were James Dobbin, patron; Georgie Moss, marshal; Robert Caley, marshal; Isabel Caley, standard bearer; Elinor McIntosh, secretary; Lida Backman, musician; Dolores Hughes, marshal in the east; and Carmen Clark, marshal in the west. Candlelighters for the occasion were Annabelle O'Neal, Sylvia Caley, Johnnie Wayne Baggett and Laura Gayle Baggett.

Installed were Opal Ireland, royal matron; Loran O'Neal, royal patron; Ivena Halverson, associate matron; John Blasing, associate patron; Wayne Ireland, treasurer; Johnnie Scott, secretary; Sally Hughes, conductress; Thomas Scott, Joseph Withers and Flossie Virden, trustees; Isabel Caley, marshal in the east; and Carmen Clark, marshal in the west. Thelma Flesham, standard bearer; Robert Caley, prelate; Flo Ann McDonald, Truth; Mary Jane Hansen, Faith; Beulah Withers, Wisdom; Inga High, Charity; Mabel Lange, historian; Roy Rose, warder; and James Cook, sentinel.

Following the installation, Mrs. Ireland was crowned by Johnnie Scott, under a bower of orchids. Other officers participating in the coronation ceremony were Wayne Ireland, marshal; Flo Ann McDonald, P.M.; standard bearer; Georgie Moss, P.M.; John Blasing, P.M.; Ivena Halverson, P.M. and grand representative, sword bearer; Isabel Caley, flag bearer; and Mammie O'Neal, marshal in the west. Phyllis May Flynn was flower girl. The Guard of Honor, with Ed Norton as captain, was composed of Sir Knights of the Amaranth. The flower arch was composed of the "Orchid" group of 1958-59 royal matrons, assisted by past royal matrons.

A reception following the ceremony was in charge of Ivena Halverson, assisted by Lora and Lillian of Douglas Court. The dining room was beautifully decorated with orchids and forget-me-nots.

Attending the ceremonies were Mrs. Harry Faar of Santa Clara, Calif.; mother of Mrs. Ireland; Mrs. Philip Flinn of Sunnyvale, Calif.; Mrs. Pat Baggett, daughters of Mrs. Ireland.

MRS. TAYLOR HOSTESS TO CLUB WEDNESDAY

Lovely arrangements of spring flowers were used Wednesday when Mrs. M. K. Taylor entertained her bridge club at a noon potluck dinner at her home east of Sutherland.

Those enjoying the day with Mrs. Taylor were the Mesdames Warren Campbell, Roger Pendell, John Gaines, Rodney Jones, Bill Gaines, George Lindsay and Harold Fries.

For the afternoon's contract bridge play, Mrs. B. Gaines won high score. Mrs. Campbell low and Mrs. Jones the traveling prize.

Mrs. Jones was given a birthday gift and Mrs. Lindsay was presented a birthday and going-away gift.

BRUNCH AND BRIDGE ENJOYED THURSDAY

Women of the Roseburg Country Club met with the Lady Golfers at a delightful brunch at the clubhouse Thursday morning, followed by the latter's opening of the golf season and the women's weekly bridge play.

High score for the bridge play was won by Mrs. Leonard Carlson with Mrs. Bruce Briggs winning second high score and Mrs. Emily Judd, third.

Engagement In California Proves Of Interest Here

Word has been received here from Mrs. A. A. Overton, former resident of this city, now of Oroville, Calif., telling of the recent engagement of Miss Kathleen Marie Swift, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Herness, to Mrs. Overton's grandson, Wesley Wallace Overton Jr., formerly of this city. The wedding has been planned for next November.

The bride-elect was graduated from Stadium High School in Tacoma and attends Sacramento State College. Mrs. Overton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Overton Sr. attended high school in Roseburg and will be graduated from Sacramento State College in June. He previously was graduated from Sacramento Junior College.

Easter Luncheon Large Event Of The Week

Thirty-eight tables of cards were in play at the annual Easter luncheon party sponsored by St. George's Episcopal Guild Tuesday at the parish hall. The luncheon tables were artistically decorated in the Easter motif. Mrs. Harry Jacoby, new president of the guild, and Mrs. Elton Jackson, a past president of the guild, acted as co-chairmen of the successful and enjoyable affair. Members of the guild worked on the various committees.

ANNUAL EASTER EGG HUNT HELD AT LOOKINGGLASS

The Alvin Heard home in Lookingglass was the scene of the annual Easter egg hunt sponsored Saturday afternoon by the Loyal Temperance Legion under the direction of Mrs. Fred Southwick who was the leader of the local group. About 45 children participated in the games and hunt. Sheila Aldrich won the prize for finding the most eggs.

Three speech contests were held during the afternoon. The bronze medal was won by Nancy Haire with her selection, "Goblins." In the gold ribbon contest, Mary Willis was awarded first place with her reading, "I will say 'No'." Karen Willis won the blue ribbon with her recitation, "A Delicious Drink."

The NA Club held its final meeting Wednesday afternoon for prizes were awarded. For perfect attendance, prizes were won by Sheila Aldrich, Carolyn Fowler, Cathy Greer, Nancy Peters and Gloria Wright. Nancy Haire received the grand prize for having the highest number of points.

TWO MOTHERS CLUB GIVES RECENT PARTY

The Two Mothers Club entertained Wednesday afternoon for the mothers who will have first graders entering school this fall. Mrs. Thelma Baker, first grade teacher at Tommie School, was a guest. Refreshments were served to the ladies who were seated around a large table.

It was announced that the school picnic will be Thursday, May 29. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Herbert Northcraft and Mrs. E. T. Mallette. The 22 children present were served in a separate room.

Those present to enjoy the occasion were Mrs. Jack Davidson, Mrs. Roy Cornell, Mrs. Bill Cook, Mrs. Warren Lockwood, Mrs. Sam Ed Dwight, Mrs. Bill Centers, Mrs. Donald Nuzum, Mrs. Donald Standley, Mrs. Isaac James, Mrs. Don Parker, Mrs. Ronald Swift, Mrs. Herbert Northcraft, Mrs. E. T. Mallette, Mrs. Thelma Baker, Mrs. Dewey Chamblen and Mrs. Walter Coats.

CAROL HOLCOMB HONOREE AT AFTERNOON PARTY

Miss Carol Holcomb was guest of honor Wednesday afternoon when her mother, Mrs. Ira Holcomb, invited 12 of her schoolmates to her home to help celebrate Carol's 11th birthday.

Game prizes were received by Barbara Self, Karen Yates, and Nancy Kinyery.

After Carol had opened her gifts, Mrs. Holcomb served the dainty refreshments from a table centered with the candle-lit birthday cake.

TILLIUM BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED TUESDAY

Spring flowers formed a pretty motif Tuesday when Mrs. Norman Jacobson, assisted by Mrs. Vern Lindinger, entertained the Sutherland Tillium Club at a 1 o'clock dessert luncheon.

Those gathered around the appointed tables were the Mesdames Vern Holgate, John Chase, Calvin Bowles, Joe Perrault, Frank McCord, Harry Barker, Edward Lamoreaux, C. A. Petrick, Henry Halvorsen Sr. and Jack Dixon and the hostesses.

Mrs. Perrault won high score for the afternoon's contract bridge play, with Mrs. Holgate winning second high. Mrs. McCord won low and Mrs. Dixon the traveling goose.

The next meeting will be April 22 at the home of Mrs. Joe Perrault.

SORORITY PLANS FOR FOUNDER'S DAY DINNER

Ni Omicron, Beta Sigma Phi, met recently at the home of Mrs. L. L. Wiley. During the business meeting, Mrs. Florence Powell announced the plans for the April 30 Founder's Day dinner at the Riverside Grange.

The chapter will send cards to Douglas County patients at the TB Hospital who have birthdays in June and July. April 17 will be the date for the meeting of the present and future city council members to elect new officers. Mrs. Florence Powell has been selected "girl-of-the-year" from the Roseburg area and will be official representative at the state convention in Salem in May. Mrs. Craig Short announced plans for the rush party which will be a 7 o'clock dinner April 16 at the home of Mrs. Meredith Wilson.

The following new officers were elected: President, Mrs. Meredith Wilson; vice president, Mrs. Craig Short; correspondence secretary, Mrs. Norman Sallee; recording secretary, Mrs. Sid Domenico; treasurer, Mrs. Marcus Brown; extension officer, Mrs. Robert Kidder; city council representative, Mrs. Bert Shoemaker; Mrs. Meredith Wilson and Mrs. James Daugherty.

Mrs. Eugene Krewson gave the cultural program, "Natural Enjoyment." She read several poems to illustrate physical enjoyment and mental and spiritual joys. Mrs. Krewson presented Miss Helen Casey who told about and showed several paintings of Christ's Crucifixion.

BETA GAMMA CHAPTER HOLDS MODEL MEETING

Beta Gamma Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, held a model meeting recently at the lovely home of Mrs. Robert Horn. The Easter motif was carried out in the decorations. Mrs. H. Curtis Finley, chapter president, conducted the meeting.

The mints, which the chapter is selling, with the money going to the Crippled Children's Hospital School, were received and distributed to the members.

Miss Joy Bishop, program chairman for the evening, presented Gerald Davenport of the Studio of Hair Design as the guest speaker of the evening. The program was "Fashions and Good Grooming."

SORORITY HELDS ELECTION AT GEORGE STRAND HOME

Mu Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Strand. Mrs. Russell Cary assisted the hostess. Camellias were used in decoration.

Newly-elected officers are: President, Mrs. Russell Cary; vice president, Mrs. Neil Kaiser Jr.; recording secretary, Mrs. Les West; treasurer, Mrs. Kenneth Swain; corresponding secretary, Mrs. James Gregory; city council representative, Mrs. Cecil Nantz; alternate representative, Mrs. Bob Hercher.

Founder's Day will be celebrated at a banquet April 30 at the Riverside Grange. Later, the chapter will go to the home of Mrs. Donald Gerretsen for initiation of officers and the ritual of jewels ceremony for the Mesdames Tom Carter, Michael Coen, James Gregory, Bob Hercher, Dick Hollenbeck, D. L. Mobley, Ted Ranlett and Bob Reveman.

Following the cultural program on travel presented by Les West who showed slide pictures of Europe, the hostesses served refreshments.

ROSES ENTERTAIN AT RECENT PINOCHLE PARTY

Mrs. and Mrs. Noah Rose, former residents of Sutherland, entertained their pinochle club at their home in Cottage Grove Saturday night.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED AT LOVELY SHOWER PARTY

Mrs. Ruby Vance and daughters Lorna, Ruby Ann and Martha Kay, were charming hostesses for a bridal shower Friday evening honoring Mrs. Melvin Colwell (Ellen Marie Cornett), a recent bride. One corner of the spacious living room of the Vance home at Lookingglass was cleverly decorated to receive the gifts. The lace-covered table centered a bower created by streamers from a circular light fixture, forming a bridal altar with the miniature bride. Gifts were led by Mrs. Evelyn Patterson, who with Mrs. Charles Green, also assisted the hostesses in serving. Many lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Colwell.

Present for the occasion were: Mrs. Arthur Denney, Mrs. Donald L. Colwell, Mrs. Melvin Reagles and daughter, Theresa; Mrs. E. E. Oliviant, Mrs. Corvin Heard, Mrs. Ben Jacoby, Mrs. Lee Pillion, Mrs. Pat Boling and daughter, Melanie; Mrs. Charlotte Bates, Mrs. Arthur Marsh, Mrs. George Marsh, Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mrs. Louise Powell, Mrs. Ralph Welie, Mrs. James Williams, Mrs. Robert Ford, Mrs. Orville Cornett, Mrs. Kate Powell, Mrs. Elton Grass, Mrs. Ruby Penley, Mrs. Misses Mary Ann Pillion, Betty Jo Pillion, Lorraine Jacoby, Betty Jo Wyllie, Lorraine Jacoby, Mrs. Bates, Susan Kay, Joanne and Emily Ford, Lorraine Cornett and the hostesses.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Stafford Storms, Mrs. Caroline Hoffman, Mrs. Sylvester Powell, Mrs. Joe Green, Mrs. Muriel Schultz, Mrs. Henry Cox, Mrs. W. J. Meredith, Mrs. Mary Walker and Mrs. A. A. Jacoby.

"JOURNEY INTO SPRING" THEME OF FASHION SHOW

The Beta Eta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha annual fashion show was held last Friday evening in the Sutherland High School gym under the chairmanship of Mrs. Donna Deane Blakeley and proved to be a big success.

"Journey Into Spring" was the theme used during the traveling scene made up of Dreamland, Hawaii, Paris, Anywhere U.S.A. and New York, with Mrs. Helen Kerner doing the commentary.

Musical selections during the evening were rendered by Mrs. Cynthia Magill at the organ. Entertainment was provided by a girls' trio, Jeanne Johnson, Peggy Jean Austin and Sharon Grodzinski; a Hawaiian dance, Sherri Watson; Jean twirlers, Debbie Kern, Debbie Pleurad, Debbie Hammond, Wendy Brim, Nicolai Baird, Linda Taylor and Ann Blakeley, led by Pamela Edgerton and featuring Scotty Sinclair with his bagpipe; and a routine by Charlotte Palmer, a dancing student. Enter Rose and Francis Cornish, Vicki Graff, Nancy Brown, Penny Palermo and Kenny Gannatt.

Modeling was done by 46 men, women and children of the Sutherland area. During the two-hour show, refreshments were served. Sharon Holly was the winner of the $10 gift certificate from Holm's Dress and Gift Shop and Ella Gray won the $10 certificate from Golden Rule. A $5 certificate given by Benders Jewelry, was won by Myrtle Grimes. The hope chest given by the club was won by Vi McReedy. Other winners of gifts were Letha Barnes, Gladys Minor, Grace Olson and Dorothy Heaton.

The proceeds of the show, from the affair will go to the Crippled Children's Hospital School in Eugene.

DRAIN CAMP FIRE GIRLS OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

The Drain Camp Fire Girls and their families celebrated the organization's anniversary at a potluck dinner held in the Methodist Church fireplace room Friday evening.

Mrs. Bessie Gasser played the professional and recreational; invocation was given by Delbert White. Madeline Cool, Camp Fire chairman gave a greeting to parents and friends present, and was presented with a corsage from the girls by Bill Gasser, master of ceremonies. Pamela Stratton met the Camp Fire girls' welcoming remarks, and Tommy Meyers responded.

The tables were very beautifully decorated with spring flowers and matching runners. A beautiful birthday cake decorated with the Camp Fire emblem was prominently displayed.

In the candlelight ceremony, Lois Stratton, the girls' last year's leader, presented the first year girls their certificates in the Fly-up recognition, and the girls of the Ne-top-pew group presented them with their ties and slides.

Kathy Tomlinson received beads for having completed the Trail Seekers rank. Other beads were given for accomplishments in frontier, sports and games, business, citizenship, home, creative arts and outdoor. Girls receiving beads for these accomplishments were Diana Boggs, Pamela Stratton, Dianne Rickford, Sandra Downes, Karen Long, Diane Ashby, Betty Jo Gasser, Linda Evtill, Carol Aldous, Barbara Bogen, Sherrill Franklin, Pat Lakey, Kathy Tomlinson and Connie Myers.

YONCALLA STUDY CLUB HAS THURSDAY MEET

Mrs. Bob Campbell, assisted by Mrs. William Levenson, graciously entertained members of the Yoncalla Women's Study Club at the Campbell home south of Yoncalla Thursday afternoon. A delicious luncheon was served.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Bernice Russell gave the devotion, using material from "The Sanctuary."

Mrs. Ida Pinkston won the door prize. Two pictures, "The Blue Boy" by Thomas Gainsborough and "Pinkie" by Sir Thomas Lawrence, were shown. They will be hung in the Yoncalla library, honoring the late Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Richards.

Mrs. Anna Kinyery has charge of the program and gave a very interesting talk on gardening, emphasizing herbs, the propagation of plants, and how to get the soil right for planting.

The next meeting of the club will be April 17 at the home of Mrs. Ida Pinkston in Elkhead.

Benefit Silver Tea To Be Event Of April 17

The public is most cordially invited to the benefit tea for the Sutherland Academy and College, Portland, April 17, from 7 to 9 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Don Stapleton, 2332 N. Yount Ave.

The women of St. Paul's Lutheran Church have made elaborate preparations for a very charming affair. The spring-time theme will be carried out in the decorations and program.

UMPOUA SQUAWS PERFORM AT PORTLAND CONVENTION

The Umpqua Squaws of Umpqua Grove 31 of Winston area were invited to participate in the Oregon Fraternal Congress Convention in Portland this month.

Distinguished guests from this vicinity in attendance were Mrs. Jessie Thomas, state chaplain; Mrs. Alice Christensen, junior supervisor; Mrs. Thelma Sheppard, state assistant captain; and Mrs. Phoebe McGuire, national representative and district manager, who was installing chaplain during the convention.

Sixteen local members participated in the special drills, accompanied by Mrs. Leota Swinford at the piano. Formals made to be worn for the drills were in pastel rainbow colors, exemplifying a most colorful formation throughout the drills.

Registration began at 10:30 a.m. with a luncheon being served at noon. A formal banquet was held in the evening, followed by entertainment and special ceremonies presented to the members and public.

Junior graduation for the Misses Janice Stevens, Louise Duke, and Judy Christensen was held Monday, April 14, at the Evergreen Grange hall at 8 p.m. Friends and families were invited to attend.

CONVENTION DELEGATES SELECTED BY ELKTON LODGE

The Elkton Rebekah Lodge 173 celebrated its 50th anniversary Tuesday, April 1. Thirty-one members and visitors were present.

At this time, Frances Hedden was recommended for district deputy president. Voting for delegates for the Rebekah convention to be held in Corvallis May 20, 21 and 22 was held. Frances Gernes was elected as first delegate.

Edith Gates as second delegate, Marcelle Henderer was elected first alternate and Evelyn Esslinger as second alternate.

Mary Barker, assembly president, was welcomed by Pauline McNeil, who gave a program was given during which Joanta Holgate of Sutherland Rebekah Lodge sang two solos, accompanied by Mabel Ross also of Sutherland.

Mona Rydell, chaplain, read the history of the lodge, history written by Mabel Ross. The Gardner Lodge presented the Elkton Lodge with a gold trimmed vase. Frances Gernes sang a solo and Mrs. Viva Dement and Bonnie Sneed sang a duet.

An Easter parade of hats was put on by the members of the Elkton Lodge. A potluck supper was served at the close of the evening.

W-D KIWANIS CLUB HOLDS LADIES NIGHT FRIDAY

The Winston - Dillard Kwanis Club held its "Ladies Night" dinner meeting Monday evening at Burton's Cafe near Roseburg. Invited guests were the Douglas High School basketball team; Coach and Mrs. Russ Hawk and the home students of the month from Douglas High.

Other guests at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Al McClelland, the Rev. and Mrs. Walker of the Dillard Methodist Church and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fullerton from the Roseburg club. Mrs. Lee Allendorf was also a guest.

Charles Kash of Winston had charge of the program. Coach Hawk and several members of the basketball team spoke on the successes of the past season, and the prospects for next year.

RIVERSDALE YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY EASTER BREAKFAST

Mrs. J. M. Burkhardt was hostess Easter Sunday morning at a breakfast for the young people's group of the Riversdale Sunday School. Mrs. Burkhardt was assisted in serving by Mrs. Harry Wesley and her sister, Mrs. Edith Hull of Lebanon.

Those present after having attended the Easter sunrise service, were Mr. and Mrs. Mert Peterson, Portland, Evon, Evelyn, Earl and Clair Hull, Lebanon; Don Myers and Marilyn Myers, Portland; Don Myers, Karen Tipton, Lee and Terry Goddard, Steve and Doug John, Jim King, Joanne Wesley, Kathy Burkhardt, Tommy Hall and the advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Myers.

Arrangements of jonquils were used about the room of the Burkhardt home. Following the breakfast, two vocal numbers were given by Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, Marilyn Myers and Don Myers. A sermonette was given by Merton Peterson.

FAIR OAKS PINOCHLE CLUB ENTERTAINED RECENTLY

The Fair Oaks Pinochle Club was entertained recently by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lamoreaux at the Fair Oaks Grange Hall. Beautiful arrangements of spring flowers were used about the hall.

For the evening's pinochle play, Mr. Williams won men's high. Mrs. Hand ladies high. Second high scores went to Mr. Austin and Mrs. Brislane. The sweeps prizes were won by Mr. Blanchard and Mrs. Francis.

At the close of the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Lamoreaux served a potluck supper to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brislane, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ely, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Deward Modglin, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hand, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norcross, Mrs. Maggie Francis, Mrs. Viola Haxlett and Harry Reed.

Benefit Silver Tea To Be Event Of April 17

The public is most cordially invited to the benefit tea for the Sutherland Academy and College, Portland, April 17, from 7 to 9 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Don Stapleton, 2332 N. Yount Ave.

The women of St. Paul's Lutheran Church have made elaborate preparations for a very charming affair. The spring-time theme will be carried out in the decorations and program.

ELGAROSE COMFORT CLUB HOLDS OFFICER ELECTION

Election of officers was held by the Elgarose Comfort Club Wednesday afternoon, when members met at the home of Mrs. George Showers. Mrs. Mable Backlund conducted the business session.

New officers for the year are: President, Irene Sanders; vice president, Margorie Landers; secretary, Zelma Sand, and treasurer, Mrs. Showers.

Door prize was won by Thelma Stringer and traveling prize by Mrs. Sand. The next meeting will be at the home of Carol Newman, May 7, when installation of officers will be held.

Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Sanders and daughter, Ginger, Mrs. Joseph Sand; Mrs. Landers; Mrs. Stringer and daughter, Mildred and son, Marvin; Mrs. Mable Backlund; Mrs. Newman and son, Walter; Mrs. Anderson and son, Betty; Mrs. Fawcett and daughter, Jackie; Wave Goertzen and a daughter, Oliver and son, Joe.

SCAVENGER HUNT ENJOYED BY GLIDE HUNTER SET

Miss Donna Weaver entertained a group of her classmates at the Idlewild Park home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merv Weaver, Saturday evening. A scavenger hunt was the highlight of the evening.

After the excitement of the hunt, refreshments were served by the charming young hostess, assisted by her mother and sister, Karen. The guests enjoying the evening were Norma Hays, Toni Clark, Melba Hatfield, Jean Hatfield, Betty Ann Collins, Sharon Haas, Marcelle Teter, Lynne Eason, Lou Ann Shelton, Sharon Singleton, John Hatfield, Glenn Fortune, Doug Cooper, Jerry Rust, Lloyd Marshall, McCormack, Mike Dunston, David Seville, Eddie Dumtley, Eddie Gaare, Eddie Nichols, Delmar Teter, Darrell Cletts, Mickey Evans and Dick Reese.

PARGETER ENTERTAIN AT EASTER BREAKFAST

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pargeter, Melrose, entertained members of the Westminster Fellowship of the Presbyterian Church at breakfast Sunday. The young people met at the Pargeter home following the Easter sunrise service. Following breakfast, Sunday school class was conducted by their teacher, Mr. Pargeter, and the group then went to church.

Present were Gloria Fordham, George Yost, Janice Gadoway, Vickie Bean, Barbara Gadoway, Darlene Beard, Don Smith, John Dunn, Don Leonard, Stan Brown, Deanna Payton, Boyd Knechtel, Barbara Knechtel, Gladys Williams, Donna Frisk, Lynn Erickson, Eugene Gee, Gayle Harris, Ginger Harris, Nick Cate, John Clark, Russell Dandero, Brian Pargeter, Elmer Minton, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Yost, assisted the host and hostess in cooking and serving the breakfast.

FAMILY PARTY ENJOYED SUNDAY AT EAGLE POINT

On Easter Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oliviant of Tenmile drove to Eagle Point for a family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Friend. The occasion was also a birthday party for the Oliviant's grandson, Gale Friend, and for their great grandson, Bill Gourley.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gourley and sons Bill, Glen and Clifford of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. James McCoy and daughter, Lola; David Davis and Judy Winingham of Medford and Miss Georgia Mason of Shady Cove. The Oliviant's also visited Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gourley and family in Ashland.

OSEPHINE HOME SCENE OF SUNSHINE CLUB MEETING

The Azalea Sunshine Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Sam Osephine. Mrs. Angus Cripps, served delicious dessert refreshments.

Nine members and two guests, Mrs. Lee Allen and Mrs. Thelma Coyle's granddaughter, were present.

Instead of playing games, the ladies made about 150 envelopes for a Grants Pass shut-in who makes cards of old cards of various kinds to be sent to children's and veteran's hospitals.

BALL AND CHAIN CLUB ENJOYS SOCIAL EVENING

The Ball and Chain Club enjoyed a social evening at the Tenmile clubhouse Saturday evening. Pinochle was in play during the evening.

Delicious refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dwight, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Standley, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Centers, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Nickelson and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Crox. The club will hold its meetings Saturday evenings in the future.

EASTER SUNDAY DINNER ENJOYED AT SMITH HOME

A lovely bouquet of mixed spring flowers formed the table centerpiece Sunday for the most enjoyable Easter dinner party given at Glide by Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Smith.

Covers were placed for the 4 p.m. dinner for Mrs. Mary Doughton, Kermie Doughton, Scott MacKenzie of Lewiston, Idaho, a houseguest at the Doughton home, and the host and hostess.

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER HONORS MRS. GREGORY

Mrs. James Gregory was complimented Tuesday evening at a most charming pink and blue shower party given in her honor by Mrs. Robert Colley and Mrs. Robert Keady at the charming home of the latter.

An attractive bouquet of apple blossoms was used in decoration, together with a pink and blue umbrella which adorned the gift table.

Game prizes were won by the honoree and by Mrs. Loren Denny.

Refreshments were served following the opening of gifts received from Mrs. William Hoste, Mrs. Russell Cary, Mrs. Loren Denny, Mrs. Lee Seiber, Mrs. Roy Wolfe, Mrs. Robert Benson, Mrs. Kenneth Harrison, Mrs. Gary Siltzer, Mrs. Leighton Powell and the two hostesses.

MRS. MODGLIN HOSTESS TO CLUB ON FRIDAY

Friday evening Mrs. Deward Modglin entertained her pinochle club at her home west of Sutherland. Early spring flowers formed pretty arrangements for the occasion.

For the evening's pinochle play, Mrs. Moore won high score. Mrs. Ashcraft had low and won the floating prize.

After the card play, Mrs. Modglin served refreshments to the Mesdames Charles Moore, Tom Brim, Arthur Webber, Don Ashcraft, Charles Parsons, Lyle Seehawer and Miss Freda Hoagland.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Parsons Friday, April 18.

BETA ETA SORORITY MEETS WEDNESDAY

Beta Eta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met Wednesday evening at Sutherland at the Hamilton home on Second Avenue with Mrs. Eleanor Hutton as hostess and Janet Mullins as co-hostess.

Final plans were made for the dinner that the group will serve at the Lady Lions spring board meeting Wednesday.