

Drivers License Suspensions Told

Two Douglas County motorists have been given mandatory one-year drivers license suspensions by the Oregon Department of Motor Vehicles following convictions on charges of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

The pair are Leonard C. Fenner, 42, Gardiner, and Robert Eugene Moore, 35, Box 551, Roseburg. Fenner's suspension was effective April 1 and Moore's on April 8.

Four others were handed mandatory 90-day suspensions after conviction on similar charges.

Their names and effective suspension dates are Melvin Earl

Green, 23, Rt. 4, Box 1155, April 7; Claude Daniel Kennerly, 41, Winston, April 4; Jesse James Morin, 56, Yoncalla, April 4; and Marshall Earl Sowells, 30, Yoncalla, April 7.

The department suspended the license of James Melvin Haney, 28, 886 SE Pine St., for 30 days upon court recommendation following conviction on a reckless driving charge. The suspension took effect April 7.

Today, 38,000,000 copies of the daily newspaper will be printed and sold in the U.S.

Rudie Sinfonietta Is Last Of Winter Concert Series

Robert Rudie, American violinist, will appear here April 22 at 8:15 p.m. under auspices of the Roseburg Community Concert Ass'n., as conductor and soloist with the Rudie Sinfonietta, a unique ensemble of vocal and instrumental soloists.

This concert, at Central Junior High auditorium, is the last of the association's winter series.

The Rudie Sinfonietta features 11 instrumentalists, and the soloists, in addition to Rudie, will be Phyllis Williams, soprano; Robert Kirkham, baritone; and Cynthia Otis, harpist.

Rudie, in addition to being an outstanding violin virtuoso, is said to be a witty raconteur whose comments on violinistic matters have been enjoyed by his recital audiences. His commentary during the program will include a Haydn Symphony, a scene from Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro" and a medley of Rodgers and Hammerstein favorites.

Phyllis Williams, soprano, returned to this country after many successes abroad. The comedy singer sang at the Salzburg Festival, in the historic opera house at Linz, Austria, and she studied at the Mozarteum in Salzburg on a Fulbright Scholarship.

Kirkham's voice has highlighted many performances of opera, light opera and oratorio. As soloist with symphony orchestra and on radio and television this young American baritone has also drawn praise. He recently appeared in "Thias" with the Baltimore Civic Opera.

Harpist Cynthia Otis has a long list of successes in solo concerts, with major symphony orchestras and on coast-to-coast broadcasts on NBC since her youthful debut at the age of 18 with the New York Philharmonic on its Young People's Series.

X-RAYED — Clifford Bucknell, Umpqua, received a chest X-ray Tuesday while the State Board of Health mobile X-ray unit was at the Martin Brothers Container and Timber Products Corp. plant in Oakland. X-ray technician Del Hansen of Portland shows Bucknell how to stand before the machine. Last year approximately 80 per cent of the company's employees were X-rayed during the mobile units visit. The unit was at the plant from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday. By 2:15 p.m. more than 400 employees had been X-rayed. Between 550 and 600 persons are employed there, George Foster, personnel director said. (Paul Jenkins).

Blue Star Mothers To Help Veteran's Dance Thursday

Blue Star Mothers of Roseburg will furnish refreshments for the Veteran's Hospital Ward Four dance party Thursday at 9 a.m. Volunteers are invited to attend as hostesses.

Friday the American Legion Auxiliary, North Bend-Coos Bay Unit, will sponsor a dance in the auditorium at 7:45 p.m. Volunteers of the local community are invited to attend as hostesses.

Robert P. Kidder, chief of special services, attended the Pacific Northwest National Recreation Conference at Portland, recently. He spoke on the field training program for senior college students in recreation.

Other activities of the Veteran's Administration Voluntary Services include a delegation of American Gold Star Mothers who visited the hospital and were taken on a tour of various sections of the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoover of the Military Order of Cooties visited the wards and conducted games for the veterans. The 12th annual awards ceremony was held in the auditorium last week honoring the volunteers. A large crowd attended to see the one-act play, "The Red Dress," which was put on by the patients.

The American Gold Star Mothers of Coos Bay served homemade cakes and coffee to wards three and four.

The Associated Volunteers card party last week was cancelled so patients could attend the local Barbershop Quartet program in the hospital auditorium under the direction of Charles Ricketts.

OREGON MAN KILLED

WEED, Calif. (AP) — An Oregon man was killed in a collision with a freight truck Tuesday. Pieces of his sports car were scattered over 150 feet.

Elvise Holt Snow, 19, of Central Point, Ore., died outright, police said.

Thomas L. Brauner, Medford, Ore., driver of the truck, suffered a shoulder injury and head cuts when his truck overturned.
