COHEN GIVEN CHOICE

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A judge gave Mickey Cohen this alternative for slugging a waiter last January:

A $500 fine or 50 days in jail.

Cohen promptly appealed the sentence.

Education Of Gifted Children Discussed By Sutherlin PTA

"Inspiration of youth is the most important single factor in education, and must come from parents and teachers," stated Supt. Leland P. Lynn before the Sutherlin PTA in his discussion of education of gifted children.

Education of exceptional children was discussed by William Williams of Roseburg. He defined exceptional children as those who, because of physical, mental, or emotional differences, require special educational techniques.

The speaker warned against too early identification of children as gifted inasmuch as home conditions play a large part in determining mental maturity of young children. He likewise deplored the tendency to rate children as retarded on the basis of inadequate testing, since there are many types of ability, and accepted tests tend to stress only the ability needed to recognize abstract symbols.

Williams detailed efforts being made at the Park School in Roseburg to cope with individual differences for some 30 exceptional children.

Vocal numbers were presented by the Junior High School octet under direction of Mrs. Georgia Clark. Young people comprising the octet were Sherry Doty, Donald Smith, Edna Williams, Bette Wood, Jim Trimmer, Dwight Renzema, Tommy Irons and Mina Guinn.

During the business meeting preceding the program, Joy Eggleston's resignation as secretary for next year was accepted, and Mrs. Lloyd Whitford was elected to fill the vacancy.

Lynn urged all potential voters to do all possible to insure passing of the rural school budget as Sutherlin will gain some fifty thousand dollars by its acceptance, reports correspondent Mrs. Brittain Slack.
