

Barbershop Chorus Performs For Melrose Grange Meeting

By NETTIE WOODRUFF

Eighteen members of the Roseburg Barbershop Chorus, with Charles Ricketts directing, entertained during the program hour at a recent Melrose Grange meeting.

Paul Kreuger and Art Stephens were program chairman. Refreshments were served following the program. A potluck dinner preceded the meeting with the men in charge.

Mrs. Oar and Mrs. Rudsick of Lookingglass Grange were visitors. The Home Economics Club will present a program at the next meeting and the refreshment committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nickens, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Felt and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence DeCamp.

It was announced that mother-daughter banquet would be held at the Melrose Community Church May 16 and grange ladies were asked to call Mrs. Joel Fenn for reservations if they would like to attend.

Vacationers Return
Mr. and Mrs. Eli Sanders have returned from an 8,600 mile vacation trip which took them through California and the southern states. They were in 21 states and visited their daughter, Mrs. James Munroe, in Baltimore. They hadn't seen her for five years. Stops were made in Washington D.C., Mt. Vernon, Gettysburg and the Eisenhower farm in Pennsylvania. En route home they visited Mr. Sanders' brother, Bill Sanders in St. Louis, Mo., whom they hadn't seen in 11 years. They also saw relatives in Oklahoma.

Mrs. Larry Cox and daughter, Rena Beth, of Klamath Falls, returned Thursday following a visit here with her mother, Mrs. Sanders Tottan, and family.

Mrs. Mack Hill and son of Hub bard, Ore., visited two days last week with her brother, Rebes Wilson, who later passed away. The Hills were guests at the E. R. Lutman home.

Recent visitors at the D. N. Busenbark home were Mrs. William Schult of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Mrs. Dan Emigh of Knox, Ind. The latter was spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Marthe Bergold, in Roseburg.

Women's Assn. Sets 2-Day Rummage Sale

A rummage sale is being sponsored by the Women's Assn. of the First Presbyterian Church this Friday and Saturday, at the church. Friday hours will be 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday the doors will open at 9 a.m. and close at 12 noon. Mrs. Hans Hansen, chairman of the event, announces that anyone wishing to donate rummage may call Mrs. Delton Walker, OR 2-3049 to have their donation picked up, or rummage may be left at the church through Thursday of this week.

Good quality clothing, especially children's clothing, will be featured at the sale as well as other useful items.

WORLD WAR HERO DIES

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Dr. Corydon M. Wassell, the modest medical missionary whose heroism during World War II was the theme of a novel and motion picture, died in his apartment here of a heart attack Monday. He was 74.

Police Interrupt Boys Enjoying Free Drinks

Thirsty boys getting soft drinks without paying for them were frightened away from the scene Sunday night before they could finish the refreshments.

Roseburg police report that two boys in their early teens had opened two bottles in a dispenser at a service station at 210 NE Winchester St. They had inserted straws and were about half through drinking when a merchant patrolman arrived. The sippers managed to slip away.
