Vancouver regained first place in the Pacific Coast League Monday night with a 7-3 victory over Sacramento, which had jumped into the lead Sunday. In the only other game played the Seattle Rainiers took a makeup doubleheader from the Spokane Indians, 3-0 and 4-0, knocking the Indians from a tie for fourth place to sixth place.

The PCL race remains a tight one, with Seattle and San Diego, now tied for last place, only 2 1/2 games from Vancouver. Sacramento dropped to third place. The victory for the Rainiers was clinched in a five-run seventh inning featured by a three-run homer by Bill Frazier. Vancouver had scored two runs in the third off Solon starter Carl Greene.

The Solons scored their first run in the fifth on a double by Harry Bright, two walks and two hit batters. In the seventh Ray Webster doubled and scored on a single by Dickie Cole. The final Sacramento run came in the ninth when Webster hit his sixth home run of the season.

Solon Catcher Hurt

Sacramento's young catcher, Clayton Dalrymple, was hospitalized with a badly torn lip in a collision at home plate in the fourth inning.

The games at Seattle made up for games which had to be postponed because of rain the first week of the season. Ray Ortiz started the attack on losing pitcher Glen McMin with a double in the fifth inning of the second game. Two walks filled the bases and then Al Federoff singled Ortiz home. Phil Shartz was out at the plate, but a moment later Don Nicholas, who had a 1-0 walk, scored as Maury Willis bobbled Juan Delis' grounder. The final run came in the sixth on Jim Dyck's double followed by two outfield flies.

In the first game Seattle scored twice in the second inning on two errors, a walk, two bunts and an infield single. The other three runs were earned. They came in the fourth on three singles followed by Juan Delis' second double of the game.

All teams are scheduled for action Tuesday night. Seattle will be at San Diego, Sacramento at Vancouver, Salt Lake City at Spokane and Portland at Phoenix.

Father-Son Duo Confess To Four Bank Robberies

FAIRFIELD, Calif. (AP)—A flying father-son bank robbery team from Utah, caught after robbing the Bank of America branch at Fairfield of $18,000 Monday, have admitted last week's Loomis, California, bank robbery, plus three others, the U. S. attorney's office reported.

The two men, captured just after the Fairfield robbery Monday morning, were identified as Guy W. Sheldy, 41, and his son, Jerry, 18, of Kearns, Utah.

The Sheldys, who own a flying service in Utah, were held on robbery complaints and bond of $30,000 was set for each.

In Salt Lake City, Sheriff George Beckstead said the elder Sheldy had been identified as one of two men who robbed the Walker Bank and Trust Co. of $2,710 last Feb. 18. The same branch also had been robbed of $4,700 on Oct. 15, 1957, by two men.

Runaway Plane Strikes Man Trying To Halt It

KLAMATH FALLS (AP)—An air-plane set off, pilotless, across the airport here Saturday, and Anton J. Steinbock, 42, air service operator, was still in the hospital Monday because he tried to stop it.

The plane, a PT19, was started by Noble Merryfield turning the propeller. The brakes didn't hold and Steinbock dashed out to set checks under the wheels. A wing struck him and knocked him to the concrete apron.

Other airport employees finally halted the plane, which was only slightly damaged in a run across the field.

Steinbock's condition was described as good.
