Wain Ivan Davis' Drivers License Held Up 3 Years

Wain Ivan Davis, 47, 1502 NW Fairmont, received a three-year driver's license suspension following conviction on a charge of driving with a suspended operator's license, reports the Oregon Department of Motor Vehicles.

Davis' license suspension became effective April 11, said the department.

One-year suspensions were meted out to Jimmy Dale Childress, 23, Myrtle Creek, and Carl Peter Linn, 53, Idlewild Park. Childress received suspension effective Jan. 1 following a driving while license suspended conviction and Linn's license was suspended May 7 following conviction on a drunk driving charge.

Four drivers received mandatory 90-day suspensions after they were convicted of drunk driving charges. The four, along with effective suspension dates, are: Joseph Frank Davila, 30, Azalea, May 6; Thomas Paul Sinclair, 36, Riddle, April 23; Billy Donald Mays, 23, Glade, May 7; and John Robert Pierce, 34, Rt. 4 Box 262, May 8.

Court recommendation following conviction on a traffic violation charge resulted in a 30-day license suspension for Milo Marlon Cloughton Jr., 24, Camas Valley. Effective suspension date was listed by the department as May 6.
