Tribe Has 6 Men, Relay 4 In Meet

Nate Watson's Roseburg Indians track team will put six men and a relay team in the District 5-A-1 meet at Springfield Friday night. The Indians qualified the cinder-men at the subdistrict test at North Bend Saturday.

The Indians took third in the three-team meet with 26 points. The Marshfield Pirates ended up with 86 1-5 and North Bend was second in the team totals with 28 4-5.

For the Tribe, it was Dave Bradley with thirds in the high and low hurdles, while Lynn Baxter was second in the 100 and third in the 220. Gary Sanders grabbed the first spot in the mile and Butch Backen was second in the high jump.

Pels, Millers Share Net Title

CORVALLIS — Five teams Monday shared the team titles from the Oregon high school tennis tournament here.

Klamath Falls and Springfield, with nine points each, were the co-champions in the boys' division. Eagle Point, along with two Portland schools, Washington and Douglas, shared the girls' team title. The schools got five points each.

Klamath Falls had been favored to take the boys' team title. But its top singles player, first seeded Jim Norland, was upset in semi-final action Saturday.

Norland was defeated 6-1, 6-2 by Bob Seamon of Springfield, who then went on to take the title by whipping Dave Oehling of Oswego by the same score.

Klamath Falls got its co-title largely on the strength of its championship doubles team of Julius Reynolds and John Bousquet.

They beat Charles Vaughn and Dave Logan of Springfield, 6-3, 6-1, 6-1 for the title.

Now that the excitement of election is over, we'll try to clean up some of the odds and ends of bowling leagues. The ladies are still hitting on all four, but all men's wheels are through for the season. League champions first: In the new Twilight League, it was the LOFTERS. This league had no commercial sponsors. An eight-team league last season, they liked it so well they plan to increase to 16 teams. It's a 5:15 p.m. league rolling Thursday, and we'll be glad to welcome eight more teams of their men.

Elks League champion was Team No. Six. This league also had no commercial sponsors, and went by numbers only. City Wheel hardware went to Hamer Corp. after a five-game playoff, and on a margin of only 33 sticks.

Town League leaders of both halves was Myrtle Creek Elks. Another Monday night trophy goes to Myrtle Creek, as the Young Chevrolet team topped in the Inter-City.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT circuits saw Erv's Winston Flying "A" win a close playoff on sweepstakes night. Spot Tavern of Riddle caught the State Police in a liberal mood and took that playoff without too much wasted energy. Myrtle Creek Dairy walked off with honors in the Metropolitan, and the Roseburg Lions Club edged by the Idle Hour Tavern by a skimpy three-point margin.

On Thursday night, Chrystalite Tile overpowered a generous Bob & Gene Union Gas team in their championship tussle. M. L. Ross in the Volunteer continued its trophy-winning stride, adding to their City Tournament laurels with the league championship. Harry's Furniture had no serious trouble disposing of their adversaries in the Nina Clock wheel. Patter-son's Bakery, Roseburg, a champion in number of teams sponsored, and among the oldest sponsors, finally cashed in with the trophy in the Merchants League after an exciting battle with Coca-Cola.

FRIDAY NIGHT'S championship saw U.S. Plywood take the Classic Junior hardware, and Curtis Furniture cleaned up in the Umpqua League. Roseburg Bowl took both halves in the Major Classic, but in the City Classic real ri-

Lewiston Tops Senators Twice

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Lewiston Broncos continued to appear invincible this weekend as they held on tight to their Northwest League baseball lead with victories over the lowly Salem Senators.

The Broncos took a doubleheader from Salem Sunday, 1-0 and 4-3, to add to their 10-0 Saturday victory over the Senators. Lewiston now has a 16-5 record and Salem is on the bottom with 6 wins and 15 losses.

The Wenatchee Chiefs remained in the No. 2 position despite two weekend losses to Eugene. The Emeralds blasted the Chiefs 13-1 Saturday and took the first game of a Sunday doubleheader, 5-4. The Chiefs recovered in the last inning of Sunday's second contest to beat Eugene 4-3. Wenatchee now is 15-9 and Eugene has an 11-11 record.

Tri-City moved back into the third place they relinquished to the Emeralds last week. The Braves plowed over Yakima all weekend, 5-2 Saturday and 3-0 Sunday, to raise their wins to 12 against 11 losses. Yakima is keeping Salem company with 8 victories and 17 defeats.

Colorado has 31 ski areas with a total of 58 lifts and tows.

Portland

Phoenix slammed its way into first place in the Pacific Coast League Sunday night with a double victory over Portland which was pushed into last place in the standings.

The Giants scored a 12-5 victory in the nightcap after taking a 4-1 win in the seven inning opener.

In other games Sunday the Vancouver Mounties downed Sacramento, 5-2. Salt Lake City defeated Spokane 9-2 and San Diego and Seattle split a doubleheader. The Padres taking the first game 7-3 and the Rainiers the second, 4-2.

Phoenix' victories brought to seven its row of wins over Portland in six days. The drive brought the Giants from sixth place in the league standings to first place. They used the clutch pitching of Dom Zanni to win the seven-inning first game, then called on the power hitting of Felipe Alou to take the second. He connected for a home run, a single and a double and drove in four runs — three of them with his seventh-inning homer.

Seattle Dumps Padres

At San Diego the Seattle batters bunched their hits when they counted in the second game to help their pitcher, Marty Kutyna, stop the Padres — and Bill Glynn's hitting streak. Glynn went hitless in the second game after hitting safely in 11 consecutive games. He had a home run and a single in the first game, the blow coming with two on in the fifth inning and wiping out an early Seattle lead to put the Padres ahead 4-3.

Seattle scored its three runs in the first inning on Juan Delis' double, triples by Jim Dyck and Gale Wade and a wild throw.

The Salt Lake City Bees staged a four run uprising in the sixth inning of their game at Spokane to clinch their victory and to give them the series over the Indians, five games to two. Four singles, a sacrifice and an error accounted for the four runs. Bill Hall homered for the Bees in the seventh, the blow coming with the bases empty.

Yankees Move Out Of Range Of Followers In American

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bring back the old split season. That's what the American League ought to be yelling today as they look at the fast-widening gap between the streaking New York Yankees and the rest of the field.

The Yanks knocked over Washington twice Sunday, 5-2 for Sal Maglie and 3-0 behind Bob Turley. Duke Maas boosted the A's into second place with a 2-0 two-hitter against his former Detroit mates. Dick Gernert hit two home runs and Jackie Jensen a tremendous three-run 45-foot drive in Boston's 8-4 victory over Baltimore. Cleveland swept a pair from Chicago 7-4 and 10-6, winning the first in the 11th on Rookie Carroll Hardy's three-run homer.

In the National League, the San Francisco Giants took over first place with a double victory at Chicago 7-3 and 4-0.

Cincinnati knocked Milwaukee out of the lead 11-7. Philadelphia made it a clean sweep of their four-game set with Pittsburgh, downing the Pirates 6-4 and 6-2. St. Louis chased Los Angeles 6-5 in the first game but the Dodgers got even with a 4-0 shutout by Carl Erskine.

MARATHON

YONKERS, N.Y. — John K. Kelley, 27-year-old Groton, Conn., high school teacher, won the National AAU title in record time of 2 hours, 21 minutes and four-tenths.
