

Fall Down Stairs After Trip Over Broom Kills

SPOKANE — Frank C. Delmonico, 70, was found dead in the basement of his Spokane Valley home Monday and police said he apparently tripped over a broom and fell down the stairs.

Death was attributed to a skull fracture. His wife is attending the World's Fair in Belgium and he was alone in the house at the time. Neighbors found his body.

SWAP PROPOSED

MEXICO CITY — A deal to swap Mexican flour for U.S. corn was seen Thursday as a first step toward revival of this country's mining industry, hurt by falling prices for such traditional metals as lead, zinc and copper.

This is the opinion of Fernando De La Cudra, spokesman for one of the parties to the barter transaction, the Assn. of Miners of San Luis Potosi.

North Douglas County Fair Plans Discussed At Drain

By EDITH BUSH

At a recent fair board meeting at the Drain city hall, plans were discussed for the North Douglas County Fair.

Several of the special committees were present to report on progress being made on the various features planned for the success of the fair.

Layout of the grounds, future buildings and improvements were discussed.

Gymkhana Discussed

The fair board is anxious to contact saddle clubs of the area that would be interested in a gymkhana to be held in connection with this year's fair.

The board also is anxious to get in touch with all former fair queens. Mrs. Charles Watson is in charge of arrangements for this year's fair.

Commerce for a street beautification project.

The library of the Drain Grade School was recently presented with a rock collection by James L. Celler. It was on display for the first time at the May 12 open house. Several specimens in the collection are collector's items.

Most of the rocks were found in this area, though some came from Eastern Oregon and from out of the state.

Circuit Judges Up For Election To Be Returned

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

All circuit judges up for reelection were successful in Oregon's primary election. But some of the contests were close.

Circuit Judge Edward C. Kelly, Medford, appointed last year by Gov. Robert D. Holmes, scored a narrow victory over Walter D. Nunley, Medford lawyer and former district attorney.

Another appointee of Holmes, Circuit Judge Richard Anderson of Newport, won re-nomination. He faces a runoff against Stewart Weiss, Lebanon lawyer. Running a poor third was former Gov. John Lall, Newport.

Local News

E. G. Young, vice president of the Douglas County State Bank, who underwent major surgery at Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles recently, is reported to be getting along nicely.

Mrs. Arthur Clark has returned to her home on SE Kane Street, following several days in Portland visiting her son, James Clark, attorney at law.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ramp of Eugene attended the Optometric Congress in Roseburg over Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Ramp is a member of the society department of the Eugene Register-Guard.
