

THE PONSONBY SISTERS, above, presented a most delightful program Monday night at the Woman's Club, sponsored by the Roseburg Business and Professional Women's Club. A large number was present to hear the girls sing. Mrs. Arta Fowler was program chairman in the absence of Mrs. Matilda S. Rapelle. The girls, Sharon, Maureen, Donna, Patty and Sheila, were sponsored by the local club in accordance with its policy of the promotion of betterment for women. The sisters, daughters of Mr. and Mrs.

Willard Ponsonby of Cow Creek, will audition for Lawrence Welk this summer. Mr. Ponsonby furnished guitar accompaniment for his daughters. Alvina Wetherall and Florence Snediker, chairmen of the refreshment committee, poured at the reception following the program. The girls were presented with lovely corsages from the club. The serving table was charming with roses and snapdragons and green candles in crystal holders. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

PICTURED ABOVE from Alpha Chi Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, are Mrs. Jack Wilton, who made the history scrapbook, and Mrs. Joe Scallon and Mrs. Pat Sullivan, who made the educational scrapbook. Both scrapbooks won first place at the recent state convention in Portland and are being sent to Denver, Colo., to be judged at the Epsilon Sigma Alpha international convention in June. (Picture by Jack Wilton).

MRS. CHARLES THOMPSON, Coos Bay Junior Woman's Club, is the newly-installed Second District President of the Oregon Federation of the Women's Clubs. Mrs. Thompson, above left, will hold the office for two years. She is pictured with Mrs. Frank Ashley, Roseburg, retiring president and a member and past president of the Roseburg Woman's Club. The 1959 convention of District No. 2 will be held in Lebanon. (Picture by Coos Bay World).

Roseburg Group Successful Bidder For 1960 Convention

Friday evening the 11 Roseburg Beta Sigma Phi delegates attended the Midway Mixer at the Marion Hotel in Salem. Delegates from Roseburg were Indian headbands and Indian square dolls on their lapels. The group also put Indian teepees favors at each delegate's place at the tables.

Saturday morning all delegates attended the forums held at the Elsinore Theatre. The Salem mistresses of ceremonies read telegrams from Roseburg Mayor Arlo Jackson and from Emil Ramberg, president of the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce, inviting all delegates to hold their 1960 convention in Roseburg. The Roseburg group presented its bid, using the Indian theme. Mrs. Bert Griffin, bid chairman, introduced the Roseburg squaws. Chief Mace, Mrs. Florence Powells, entered and sat before the teepee with Visiting Chief War Cloud, Mrs. Bert Griffin, smoking the peace pipe. Mrs. Sidney Domenico then read the bid while Chief Mace's squaws stood nearby. The squaws were Mrs. R. P. Kidder, Mrs. M. Fekel, Miss Betty Taucher, Mrs. Russell Carey, Mrs. Stanley Short, Mrs. S. Morris, Mrs. Glen Schroeder and Mrs. George Strand. The colorful skit won the 1960 bid for the Beta Sigma Phi convention.

Saturday evening the girl of the year was announced at the banquet. Again the Roseburg group was honored. Mrs. Florence Powell was chosen as the state girl of the year.

The dance following the banquet was led by Mrs. Powell and her escort for the evening, Powell Adams, international representative from Kansas, Mo.

Sunday morning at the closing of the convention it was announced that there were 231 outside delegates, 100 from Salem and 81 husbands attending, making a total of 412 at the 1958 convention.

Beta Gamma Chapter Has Delightful Meeting

Beta Gamma Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met recently at the home of Mrs. L. A. Nelson. Reports were given on the council meeting and the Douglas County Council Board Committee meeting.

The following committees were appointed for the coming year: Publicity and state paper, Mrs. Joseph Taucher; Historian, Miss Katherine Powell; contact and ways and means, Mrs. John Bishop; journal and sunshine girl, Mrs. George Maltstead; program chairman, Mrs. H. Curtis Finley; rushing book, Mrs. Jerry Bauer; budget committee, Mrs. Robert Horn; Mrs. James Wilson, Miss Marys Franklin and Mrs. Bill Schultz; and social chairman, Mrs. Harry Dunning.

Following the meeting a pledge ceremony was held for Miss Marys Franklin, conducted by Mrs. H. Curtis Finley.

Mrs. L. J. Bean, international parliamentarian, assisted by Mrs. H. Curtis Finley, conducted the jewel pin ceremony for Mrs. George Maltstead and Mrs. L. A. Nelson.

Officers installed by Mrs. Bean were: President, Mrs. Harry Dunning; vice president, Mrs. Jerry Bauer; secretary, Mrs. L. A. Nelson; treasurer, Mrs. James Wilson. The gavel pin for out-going president was presented to Mrs. Finley by Mrs. Robert Horn.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. Bean following the ceremonies in honor of her new baby daughter.

Judge and Mrs. Woodrich Entertain At Dinner

Judge and Mrs. Charles S. Woodrich were host and hostess at a charming dinner, party Tuesday evening honoring Amos Reed, superintendent of the McLaren Boys School at Woodburn. Spring flowers were used as room decorations.

Covers were laid for Mr. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Helleck and the host and hostess and their children, Wendy and John.

Two Boys Honored At Farewell Party Tuesday

A party honoring Don Woods and Steve Wandling was held by members of the Douglas County Library staff Tuesday afternoon. The two boys, who have both been employed on the staff, plan to enter the Navy.

Decorations for the party were arranged by Sandra Ellison and Marian Wolcott. Refreshments were served following the social hour.

VISITOR FROM FAIRBANKS HONORED AT RECENT PARTY

A special meeting was called by the Anchor PTA in honor of Mrs. Carl Johnston Wednesday night at the school.

Entertainment was furnished by Ed Thorne, Diane Oxford, Evelyn Conley, Patty Huffman, Don Snyder, Willard Ponsonby, Jim Lyons, the Ponsonby Sisters, Mrs. Willard Ponsonby and Bob Conley. Speakers for the evening were Bob Conley, Fannie Johnston and Ed Thorne. A lovely gift was presented to Mrs. Johnston by Mary Conley on behalf of the PTA.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ponsonby and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. John Ponsonby; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Oxford and children; Mr. and Mrs. Jergeson and son; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thorne; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lyons and daughter; Mrs. Ralph Huffman and daughter; Mrs. Herbert Koch and son; Mr. and Mrs. Ed James and children; Mr. and Mrs. Don Snyder and children; Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hauck; Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller; Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Miller and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conley and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Snyder and the honor guest, Mrs. Carl Johnston of Fairbanks, Alaska.

JAY-C-ETTES INITIATE SEVERAL NEW MEMBERS

Initiation of new Jay-C-Ettes members was held at the charming home of Mrs. James Hartford. Mrs. O. J. Felt, charter member, gave a past history of the local organization back to 1948. The initiation ceremony followed, conducted by the president, Mrs. Joseph Agost and the vice-president, Mrs. Richard Frey.

New members initiated were Mrs. Donald Brown, Mrs. Earl Hansen, Mrs. William Bober, Mrs. Clarence Paul, Mrs. James Hartford and Mrs. Jack Spindle.

Broughton-Marshall Wedding Takes Place

Miss Barbara Marshall, daughter of Mrs. Opal Marshall, a former Canyonville and Riddle resident now living in Portland, was married to Henry George Broughton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Broughton of Riddle, Thursday evening, May 8, at the Arleta Baptist Church in Portland.

The bride, dressed in a ballerina-length white nylon lace gown and fingertip veil and carrying a nosegay of lilies of the valley, was given away by her uncle, George McClane of Canyonville.

Matron of honor was Mrs. George McClane and Norman A. Knight of Riddle was best man. Cousins of the bride, Beckie McClane and Ginger Calhoun, were flower girls dressed in light pink dresses and carrying rosebud and lily of the valley bouquets. James Calhoun and Ronald Riebling were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Portland at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Perilla Reibling. Lilies of the valley also decorated the refreshment table which was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

The young couple, both of whom attended Riddle High School, will reside at Spokane following a brief honeymoon to the coast.

Guests from the South Douglas area besides those included above were Mrs. Connie Broughton and Wendy, Mrs. Norman G. Knight, Mrs. Ginger Garren and Judi Anderson.

Lovely refreshments were served later in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Longfellow Honored At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Al Bishop and daughter, Jeanine, and son, Alvin, entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Longfellow Sr. at a lovely dinner on their patio Friday evening, after which guests arrived to surprise the Longfellos, who were recently married. Lawn furniture was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Longfellow.

Visiting was enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours. Enjoying the occasion with Mr. and Mrs. Bishop in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Longfellow Sr. were Mr. and Mrs. John Longfellow Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jacobsen, Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Frashour, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Saar, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kent, Mrs. Leo Monahan and Mrs. Lucy Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Oaks Tell Of Daughter's Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Oaks of Canyonville announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances, to Charles Mast of Roseburg.

Mr. Mast is the son of Mrs. J. I. Ogden of Klamath Falls. An August wedding is planned.

MRS. HIGGINS HOSTESS AT TUESDAY PARTY

Mrs. Harold Higgins, of Elkton was hostess Tuesday afternoon at a demonstration party at her home. Mrs. Bob Billick was demonstrator. Other guests were Mrs. Charles Henderson, Mrs. Dick Smith, Mrs. Carl Moore, Doris Moore, Mrs. Gene Anderson, Darlene Surgeon and Mrs. Edith Alford. Refreshments were served by the hostess following the demonstration.

Mrs. Kring Hostess To Tuesday Bridge Club

Mrs. Harvey Kring entertained the Tuesday evening bridge club at her beautiful home this week. Spring flowers were attractively arranged about the rooms.

Enjoying the evening with Mrs. Kring were Mrs. W. L. Tozer, Mrs. Lee Lacey, Mrs. Ralph Hestis, Mrs. Donald Matson, Mrs. Knute Kershner and Mrs. Bill Cooke.

High score for the evening's bridge play was won by Mrs. Matson. Following the bridge play, Mrs. Kring served lovely refreshments.

Green-Perkins Wedding Takes Place On Monday

Miss Ocie Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Perkins, and Ralph Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Estel Green of Glendale, were married Monday, May 12, at the Grants Pass courthouse. The parents of both the bride and the bridegroom were present.

Both young people and their families have been Glendale residents for several years.

ANNUAL BANQUET GIVEN AT SWEDISH DINING ROOM

Saturday evening a lovely banquet was attended by about 70 members of the young people's department of the Assembly of God Church in Roseburg. The Swedish Dining Room. The annual banquet was given in honor of the incoming officers of the Christ Ambassador program.

White crosses on light pink ruffles formed the centerpiece of the tables. Pink carnations with nut shells cleverly nestled in the center helped to carry out the pink and white color scheme. Mrs. Blake made the decorations and arranged the tables.

Included in the program for the evening were the following: Maude Lindeth, Nancy Walker, Margaret Roberts, Mary Weber and Bill House. Neva Sumner was mistress of ceremonies.

Gifts were presented to the high school graduates and to the outgoing president. The Rev. C. Ross, pastor of the church, gave a challenging message on "Shaped Lives or Shattered Lives."

The evening concluded with the candlelight installation of officers.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT HONORED AT LUNCHEON

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matthews of Garden Valley entertained at an informal luncheon Saturday to honor Antonio Lupton, a Fulbright foreign exchange student from the Philippines who is working for his doctor's degree at the University of Oregon. The luncheon was held prior to the afternoon meeting of the Delta Kappa Gamma at which Lupton spoke on the "Role of UNESCO." Those who attended were Gladys Monger, Esther Dyer, Gladys Williams, Edna Turner and the host and hostess.

Chapter Members Guests Of Mrs. Jim Daugherty

Ni Omicron, Beta Sigma Phi, members were guests of Mrs. Jim Daugherty, Wednesday evening, at which time Mrs. Craig Short told of attending the state convention in Salem over the weekend. Also attending the convention from the chapter were Mrs. Sid Domenico, Mrs. Robert Kidder and Mrs. Florence Powell. A number of items from the convention were on display including the trophy awarded Florence Powell for being the "State Girl of the Year."

Plans were made to assist with a rodeo float. Mrs. Bertram Shoemaker reported on plans for a rummage sale to be held in September. "Enjoyment of Art, Part II" was presented by Mrs. Short and Mrs. Harry Hill. They read and portrayed the characters in the play, "The Fourposter" by Jan deHartog. Mrs. Hill spoke on the types of music such as jazz, calypso, "bop" and opera. She played record selections to illustrate the music. Miss Helen Casey assisted on the program.

The next meeting will be held at a dinner at 7 p.m. June 4 at Carl's Haven in honor of Mrs. Neil Christian, "Roseburg Mother of the Year." After the dinner the group will go to the home of Miss Joan Harper at Winchester for a cultural program and social hour.

and Mrs. C. B. Wade, third, and Mrs. L. E. McClintock and Mrs. J. M. Bevans, fourth. East - West winners were Mrs. J. O. Jergeson and Mrs. W. E. Herriott, first; Mrs. Edgar Lewis and Mrs. M. L. Hallmark, second; Mrs. J. V. Short and Mrs. W. C. Callison, third, and Mrs. G. W. Marshall and Dr. James H. Harris, fourth.

There will be no play Friday, May 20th, on account of the Decoration Day holiday. June 6, on account of the Elks convention, the play will be held that afternoon at the Episcopal Parish Hall.

Duplicate Bridge Winners Announced

Duplicate bridge winners for Friday afternoon's play at the Elks Duplicate Bridge Club were Mrs. Harry Hildeburn and Mrs. L. E. McClintock, first; Mrs. Neil Kaser and Mrs. S. G. Palmer, second; Mrs. Walter Edmunds and Mrs. J. O. Jergeson, third, and Miss Gertrude East and Mrs. John Doering, fourth.

North-South winners for Tuesday evening were L. E. McClintock and Mrs. James H. Harris, first; Doyle Pressnell and Mrs. E. C. Patterson, second; Mrs. Walter Fisher and Mrs. LeDue and children. Cheri, Renee, John and Mary besides Mr. and Mrs. Subert were Lloyd Stutsman, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hagedorn and Jennie, Mrs. Carl LaChapell and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Singer.

Buffet refreshments were served later in the evening.

Art Subert Honored At Farewell Party Friday

A surprise farewell party honoring Art Subert, who has been with the News-Review advertising department for the last several years and who has accepted a position with Mark's, was given Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John LeDue.

A gift was presented to Mr. Subert, enjoying the evening with Mr.

Junior Community Aids Complimented at Reception

The Sisters of Mercy held a lovely reception in the hospital cafeteria Tuesday evening for the Junior Community Aides from Glendale and Roseburg. Each girl invited her mother and a guest who would be interested in J.C. Aide work in the fall.

Miss Elizabeth Randall, Dean of Women at Roseburg Senior High School, explained how the group had originated six years ago through her desire to help the teenage girls occupy their leisure time in service to the ill.

Mrs. M. R. Weaver, representative of Glide High School, stated that her group is an extension of the Camp Fire Girls work in the Horizon Club.

Sister Mary Stanisla presented gifts to Mrs. Weaver and Miss Randall in appreciation of their interest in the girls and in the welfare of the patients and the hospital. She also thanked the girls for their many hours of thoughtfulness and devotion. Those hours total 2,433 for the school year. The girls are Jo Ann Franks, Deana Hayes, Gail Kelly, Joline Miller, Bernis McDaniel, Anne Schermerhorn and Florian Viehman, all from Glide; Sharon Bentliff, Sharlene Cox, Deni Doyle, Ann Hatterscheid, Lareece Hummel, Mary Keel, Joyce Linson, La Verne Laroche, Caroline Mahoney, Judy Nardine, Teresa Russell, Beverly Wandling and Marjorie Wittrock, all of Roseburg.

During the evening, the barber-shop group, the Sweet Adelines, under the very able direction of Mrs. Edward Boyle, delighted everyone with several songs. Sharon Bentliff gave a pantomime, "My Cousin George." Lareece Hummel played a piano solo, "Life in the Finnish Woods." Teresa Russell played two accordion selections, "Italian Theme" and "Mockingbird Hill," and Caroline Mahoney and Ann Hatterscheid sang two duets, "Wake the Town" and "Love is a Many Splendored Thing."

Mrs. H. R. Mahoney arranged the unusually attractive centerpiece of calla lilies and yellow French iris. Coffee was served by Mrs. Mildred Louscherback and Mrs. D. C. Hummel poured the punch. Members of the auxiliary assisting were Mrs. Paul Bellendorf, Mrs. H. R. Mahoney, Mrs. Robert Wandling and Mrs. R. J. Hatterscheid.

The MAN'S SHOP

features...

THE RIGHT CLOTHES AT THE RIGHT TIME
FORMALS for every occasion

So Complete — So Smart — So Economical
In Our Modern Rental Service

White Dinner Jackets
for
Summer Formal Wear

No matter what the occasion — no matter what your formal wear requirements — Our Formal Wear Department is ready to serve YOU.

All garments are fitted to you to perfection. We also have the formal accessories you need to complete your distinguished appearance and guarantee the success of your Formal Affair.

Reservations one week in advance.

TUXEDOS BY
"AFTER SIX"
For Sale or Rent

White Dinner Jackets
for
Summer Weddings

The Man's Shop
CONSISTENTLY THE BEST

557 S. E. Jackson

Phone OR 3-5423