

Oakland High Baccalaureate Sunday Night

By EDITH DUNN
Baccalaureate services for Oakland High School will be held Sunday at 8 p.m. at the Oakland Community Presbyterian Church. Dr. Homer Noble, minister of the church, will be guest speaker and speak on the theme, "Good Fools."
Eighth grade graduation program will be held at Lincoln School, Oakland, June 4 at 2 p.m. Only parents of graduates are invited. Speaker will be Robert G. Davis, newly elected circuit court judge. There will be 43 students graduating.
At a meeting of the congregation of the Oakland Presbyterian Church last Sunday, it was voted to tear down the old church building. Disposing of the old parish hall was postponed until a later date, with the trustees having the privilege of selling it.
Use of the church by people outside the membership was left for the session to decide.
Mrs. D. G. Horn, living on Green Valley Road, reported getting Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, on her TV set Monday afternoon. She received a picture for about 45 minutes on channel three.
Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Hand and daughter, Mrs. Ernest Hawn, have returned home after spending the past week with Hand's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hand. They also visited a sister, Mrs. Ed Lamoreaux and family of Oakland and Mrs. Hand's mother, Mrs. Ella Jones of Sutherlin.
