Riversdale Families Attend. Washington College Ceremonies

By BEVERLY CHRISTIAN

Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Pearson, Bert and Anita and Arthur Burroway, of Riversdale spent the Memorial Day weekend at Walla Walla, Wash., to attend commencement exercises at Walla Walla College. Among those graduating were Joe Oliver and Glen Davis, nephews of Mrs. Pearson.

Recieves Degree

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stritzke and son, Stanley, accompanied by the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stritzke, left Friday for Pullman, Wash. They attended the Washington State College commencement at which time Ervin John Stritzke received a B.A. and B. S. degree in agriculture. He is the son of the Richard Stritzkes and a brother of Robert Stritzke. The Riversdale Stritzkes returned to their home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones and children, spent Memorial Day weekend at North Bend visiting Mrs. John Robertson, mother of Mrs. Jones.

W. E. Ott Jr., spent a few days last week at Gold Beach fishing.

Mrs. Kenneth Hebard and children and the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Talley and two children, spent the weekend at the coast in the Smith River area camping and fishing. Mr. Hebard was at Brookings over the weekend attending a bowling tournament.

Weekend Visitors

Memorial weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Guiley were the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Butler and son, Richard, and Mrs. Butler's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kretchmer and sons, all of Portland.

Coming to spend the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Don Kruse and family were the latter's sister, Mrs. Vern Shields and Christine and a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mast and children, all from Myrtle Point. Mrs. Mast and sons remained at the Kruse home to spend a week visiting.

Spending a day last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hand and two sons, was the latter's mother, Mrs. Good, of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Holley of Medford spent a day last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ott Jr. They formerly resided here and were attending to business.

Visits In Medford

Trudy Ott went to Medford to spend the weekend as a guest of Karen Holley. Sunday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ott Jr., and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller, went to Medford to bring her home. They had a picnic at Lithia Park in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hamblen and three daughters have moved from the Ullrich rental on Fisher Road to a home in Sutherlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Guiley received word of the sudden death of the former's sister, Ruth Parker of Dexter.

Canyonville Cemetery Assn. Finance Low

Canyonville Cemetery Assn., concluded its annual business recently slightly in the red, according to Mrs. Ralph Weaver, treasurer.

Expenses totalled $147.13, Mrs. Weaver said, and total receipts were $138.68. The association was grateful for the 50 responses received and appreciated the loan of Bill Willis' truck and services of the driver, Frank Fate.

There are about 97 members in the association, according to Mrs. M. Fenn, secretary. The association manages the annual clean-up of both the Odd Fellows and the Masonic cemeteries in Canyonville.

Capt. and Mrs. Clinton Atherton and family were holiday weekend guests in Canyonville visiting both Mrs. Laura Yokum and Claude Atherton. Capt. Atherton is stationed with the Air Froce at San Rafael, Calif., reports Virginia Proctor, correspondent.

ARGUMENTS SLATED

SALEM (AP)—The Oregon Supreme Court announced Wednesday it would hear arguments July 2 on the Portland Traction Co.'s appeal from a Multnomah County Circuit Court order.

That order directs the company to restore passenger service on its line from Portland to Oregon City and Bellrose. The service was dropped by the company last January.

ANXIOUS

MEDFORD (AP) — The new postal rate law becomes effective Aug. 1, but Medford residents aren't waiting for that.

Postmaster Moore Hamilton said that no sooner had President Eisenhower signed the bill than some Medford residents began putting 4-cent postage on letters.

PUT UNDER CONTROLS

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower ordered unfinished gasoline and unfinished oils brought under the voluntary import control program now applying to crude petroleum Wednesday.

The order restricts imports to the currently prevailing level.
