Judge East Frees Man Of Conspiracy Charge

PORTLAND (AP)—Federal District Judge William East overrode a jury's verdict Wednesday and freed a San Francisco man of a mail fraud conspiracy charge.

Herbert Has, one of nine persons indicted on conspiracy charges, was the only one to be convicted of the count recently.

His attorney argued that it takes two to conspire and therefore Has could not be convicted. The judge agreed.

Five of the men were convicted, however, of mail fraud in connection with the sale of dealerships in specialty items such as battery additives.

The five are Harding L. Cacy, Santa Rosa, Calif.; Bart Grant, Los Angeles; Daniel W. Campbell, San Francisco; and Sherwin J. Shoen and Clarence Peddicord, both of Portland. Peddicord already is serving a 20-year Oregon prison sentence for an extortion attempt.
