Flegel, Vik Coaches Ignite Laughs During MC Banquet

By BILL GOULD
News-Review Sports Writer

"Determination and desire are the key factors which make a winning team." So said Al Flegel, speaker at the Myrtle Creek High School baseball and track banquet Thursday night.

He continued, "The men who possess these two attributes are the ones who arrive at the top of the heap. This is true in sports as well as in all phases of life."

Flegel pointed out the role played by the mothers and fathers in all too often overlooked by fans. He said, "Mom and dad are the outstanding heroes of any athletic team. The Roseburg man kept the assembled group laughing with his humorous quips and closed out his comments by wishing the Myrtle Creek fans luck during the forthcoming Legion baseball season. His words on this thought were, "I hope your Legion team wins all its games except two." Those two, obviously, are the two on up with the Lockwood Motors nine in District One action.

Coaches Present Players

Frosty Loghry and Bob Abrahamson introduced their players and made some interesting comments. Loghry called on the three seniors who will be lost from this year's Viking baseball team. Don Bishop, Ed Cearly and Jim Murray all played their final year at Myrtle Creek.

Two juniors received special notices from their coach, albeit of dubious nature. Rick Cearly was singled out by Loghry for a humorous incident which occurred while Cearly was a JV player. Loghry was umpiring the bases and Cearly, a lefthanded batter, was hitting against southpaw chucker.

After striking out twice, Loghry called to him as he went to his outfield position. He suggested Cearly move in a little closer to the plate, as the southpaw was whiffing Cearly with a curve which was breaking away from him.

To this suggestion, the young

Although Winston had only three hits, a total of eight boots by the Vets gave them the win. Down 3-1 going into the bottom of the sixth, the Winston club connected for one hit along with seven Vets' errors to cross the plate four times. In the top of the seventh, the Vets grabbed one hit but were unable to bring any additional runs across.

In the U.S. Plywood - Jaycees tilt, the losers were held to just two hits, while the Plywood nine collected nine. Two runs in the fourth gave the Jaycees team its markers.

For the winners, it was three tallies in the second frame and single runs in the fourth and fifth. The wins for Winston Drive In and U.S. Plywood moved both teams into a four-way tie for first in the loop.

Three Veterans In Tie At 71 For Open Lead

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Twenty years ago Dick Metz, then a star of the pro golf circuit, had the National Open championship all wrapped up going into the last round, only to lose it with a horrible 79.

Today Metz, a weather-beaten 50, was out in front again as the Open went into its second round. And he probably was the only person on the premises who thought he had as good a chance of staying ahead as the two players who were tied with him.

Sharing the lead with Metz after an opening day in which no one could equal par on the heat-seared, windswept Southern Hills course were Tommy Bolt and Julius Boros. They shot 71—real good golf on a rugged day when some of golf's best known stars had to settle for 75s. Southern Hills' par is 35-35-70 for a tough hilly 6,907-yard layout.

The heat and the wind made it play tougher yesterday and caused frequent errors of judgment in approaching the greens.

Sarazen Fires 84

"A harrowing, heartbreaking experience" was what veteran Gene Sarazen called it after posting a score of 84. There were plenty of others who agreed with him.

Metz, who finished second to Ralph Guldahl in the 1938 Open after his memorable blowup, last played in the championship in 1954. Since then he's been running a ranch, playing in a few minor tournaments each year and considering himself as retired.

He's dead serious when he says he is in shape and can play good golf right through the tournament. But most observers feel the weight of 50 years will be a bit too much when it comes time to play 36 holes in the heat Saturday.

Boros is a stone-faced, solid 220-pounder who never seems to be disturbed by heat. At 38, he's about a year younger than the "new" Bolt, who says he finally has conquered his temper.

Two Vets At 72

One stroke behind going into the second round were Lloyd Mangrum, another tested veteran who won the Open in 1946, and 35-year-old Frank Stranahan. Two behind at 73 were 48-year-old Jimmy Demaret and Bruce Crampton, a 22-year-old Australian pro.

All that helped make the 75 shooters look pretty good. There were 20 of them, including Ben Hogan, a four-time winner of the Open who would like to be the first to win a fifth, twice-champion Cary Middlecoff, and Sam Snead, who never has won the big one.

The Vancouver Mounties have surrendered to the law — the law of averages, that is — losing a Pacific Coast League baseball game and terminating a shutout streak at 48 innings.

The 4-2 setback came at the hands of the Seattle Rainiers last night, reducing the Mounties' league lead to two games over Phoenix, winners of an 18-11 slugfest with Salt Lake City.

Seattle's win coupled with Spokane's 4-2 victory over Portland resulted in some shuffling of lower division ranks while San Diego was moving virtually into a third place tie with Salt Lake by drubbing the Solons 10-2.

The high-riding Mounties appeared en route to fifth straight shutout as the hapless Rainiers churned through six scoreless innings while Vancouver established a 2-0 lead.

Gordie Sundin, who hadn't been scored upon in 31 1-3 innings, weakened en route to fifth straight shutout as he broke a batting slump that cost it five of its last six games. The Giants' barrage included a 10-run fourth inning which effectively clinched the tilt. The 10 runs crossed the plate on a collection of seven walks and five hits, including 2-run homers by Dusty Rhodes and Leon Wagner. In all, eight home runs were made, five by Salt Lake's losers.

The big win was credited to strategy by Manager Red Davis who loaded his lineup with all lefthanders except for two men to save the Bee righthanders.

Padres Bunch Runs

The issue never was in doubt at San Diego, the Padres piling up 10 runs in the first four innings. Sacramento would probably have gone home with a goose egg if a dropped ball hadn't let in two runs in the eighth and spoiled Hal Woodeschick's possible shutout.

Woodeschick gave up only five hits while the Padres collected 16 from five Solon hurlers.

Spokane's win over Portland dropped the Beavers into last place again and left the Indians in a tie for sixth with Seattle.

It was no batting spree for either team, with each getting only seven safeties, but Spokane bunched its blows better. Jim Baxes led the Indian attack, getting a triple and a homer in four trips and scoring twice.

Dick Hanlon rang up his seventh win against five losses but needed relief in the seventh.
