The day after Christmas 1953 the Pittsburgh Pirates traded second baseman Danny O'Connell to Milwaukee for three guys named Max, Sid, and Sam, three kid pitchers and $75,000.

One of the pitchers was termed a sleeper by the bucs, who brought him along in the minors. Yesterday, big right-hander Curt Raydon threw an eye-opening two-hitter for his first victory and complete game in the majors, a 2-1 job over San Francisco that gave the Pirates a three-game sweep.

By losing their fifth in a row the second place Giants tumbled 1 1/2 games behind the Milwaukee Braves, who beat the Chicago Cubs 5-4. Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 5-0 on Brooks Lawrence's six-hit pitching. Philadelphia beat Los Angeles 4-3.

Raydon, 24, who lost his first two decisions in the majors, walked six and struck out five, giving up singles to Daryl Spencer and Orlando Cepeda. The Giants scored in the fourth on Cepeda's infield hit, two walks and a wild pitch. The Pirates, getting only four hits with both runs unearned, struck the clincher in the sixth when rookie Paul Giel (0-1) forced a home run by walking Roberto Clemente on four pitches—after a hit-batsman, a walk and error had filled the bases.

The Braves overhauled a 4-1 Cub lead with Del Crandall's single driving in the winning run in the eighth. Ed Mathews' 13th home run had tied it 4-4 in the seventh against loser Moe Drabowsky (4-6), who beat the Pirates 4-0 with a one-hitter Sunday.

Lawrence, once "the bull" of the Cardinal staff, didn't walk a man while fanning five of his old mates. The big right-hander (4-3) now has three consecutive complete game victories—after going without a complete game in 10 starts since last September 18.

Harry Anderson drove in three runs for the Phils, cracking a 3-3 tie with a ninth-inning single.

Murry Dickson of the Kansas City Athletics, at 43, went all the way only to lose in 12 innings, 2-2, to the American League leader, New York Yankees. Most of them weren't old enough to be Boy Scouts when Murry pitched his first major league game.

The A's who won the opener of the day-night pair 4-1, fell to third with the defeat as Boston, a 4-2 winner over Detroit, took second place, nine games behind New York. Fourth place Washington defeated the Chicago White Sox 6-5; and Baltimore jumped past Cleveland into fifth by beating the Indians 7-5.

Dickson, now 4-2 in his 17th major league season, left 17th Yankee on base. He stranded seven in the 8th, 10th and 11th—fanning Bill Skowron with the bases loaded for the final out in the ninth.

Ray Herbert (2-1) won the opener with an eight-hitter, blanking the Yanks until Andy Carey's sixth homer in the eighth inning. Bob Cerv hit his 16th homer for the A's, winning his first at Yankee Stadium in 18 tries since July 22, 1956.

Dave Sisler, 4-0 lifetime vs. Detroit, won his sixth with relief help after singling home the clincher in the fourth against Paul Foytack (5-6). Jackie Jensen hit his 15th homer for the Sox.

Gus Triandos and Jim Marshall hit two-run homers for the Orioles, who blew a 4-1 lead, then won with Marshall's single driving home the winner in a three-run fifth.

Neil Chrissy's third hit, a triple, and second RBI bagged it for Washington in the eighth against losing reliever Early Wynn.

4 Mark Holders In NCAA Field

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—The 37th annual NCAA track and field championships got under way at the University of California's Edwards Field, Friday, with four meet record holders in the bulky field of 356.

The big group listed five Olympic champions and seven of last year's individual winners.

Among them was broad jumper Greg Bell of Indiana won the Olympic championship in 1956 with a leap of 25-8 1/2. Last year at Austin, Tex., he won with an NCAA record jump of 26-7 and world record of 26-8 1/2.

The other NCAA record setters of last year are Iowa's Charley (Deacon) Jones with 8:57.5 in the two-mile, Pacific Lutheran's John Fromm with a 24-foot, 1-inch javelin throw and California's Don Bowden, who took the 880 in 1:47.2.

Bowden concentrates this time on the mile where he'll duel the Olympics' 1,500-meter champion Ron Delany of the defending champion Villanova Wildcats.

Southern California's track and field squad, ineligible last season because of penalties imposed because of illegal aid to football players, returns as a slight favorite to dethrone Villanova, which won the ICAA championship this season.

The program was to start at 5 p.m. PDT.

Operation On Tim Tam To End Racing Career

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Tim Tam comes to this center of veterinary medicine next week for an operation known to baseball players as removal of bone chips.

Ball players usually return to the lineup after such an operation. Tim Tam, horse racing's biggest money winner this year, conceivably could race again. But he won't.

Calumet Farm trainer Jimmy Jones said so Thursday in announcing the operation to be performed at the University of Pennsylvania's School of Veterinary Medicine.

The three-year-old colt won the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, then injured his right front ankle running the Belmont Stakes last Saturday. He finished second.

Dr. Jacques Jenny, 41, the Swiss born surgeon who will perform the operation, operated on Swaps when that famed race horse broke a hind leg in 1956. The doctor sees Tim Tam making the same complete recovery Swaps did; then, like Swaps, going to stud.

Canadian Court Rules Sunday B. C. Sports OK

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP)—Commercial Sunday sport in Vancouver has finally become legal. The British Columbia Court of Appeals ruled Thursday that an amendment to the city's charter permitting limited commercial sport on Sundays is valid.

The five justices were split 3-2 in favor of the ruling, which ended five years of plebiscites, legislative maneuvering, prosecutions, petitions and spates of angry words.

Ladies' Golf Results

Here are the results of Tuesday's ladies day play at the Roseburg Country Club:

Winners: Long drive on No. 6: Mrs. Ted Barnes, Mrs. M. L. Veatch, Mrs. Roger Gee; Closest to the pin on No. 8: Mrs. M. L. Veatch, Mrs. Byron Woodruff, Mrs. Morris Burkhardt.

This week, lady golfers are qualifying for the spring handicap. First-round matches must be played before Saturday, June 21. Pairings for the matches will be posted at the country club or may be obtained from the tournament chairman, Mrs. Ray Casebeer.

Grudge Battle Set For Mat Program

The wrestling card Saturday night at the fairgrounds will be of the grudge-fight variety: as Tony Bourne and Black Hawk meet in the main event, Black Hawk is the local favorite of fans and will be meeting Bourne in a no time limit match.

The grudge match came about through the card of last Saturday when Bourne clobbered referee Elton Owen, and Black Hawk stepped into the melee and saved the third man from further punishment. For his part in the extra action, Bourne was handed a $100 fine by the local wrestling commission.

Opening the card will be Reggie Parks and Haru Sasaki. Parks is the big boy from Canada who has been pleasing fans where ever he has appeared. Sasaki is an unpopular meenie making his first appearance of the year on the local scene.

The first match gets under way at 8:30 p.m., with the main event to follow immediately. Doors at the Community Building will open at 7 p.m.

Weights Of TV Pugs About Even

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Besenboof of Germany weighed 193 and Harold Carter of Linden, N.J., scaled 191 1/2 for their 10 round televised (NBC) bout Friday night at Madison Square Garden, (starting time 6 p.m. PST).

A stocky 5-9 1/2, Willi came to this country just about the time Carter disappeared into the Army in early 1957. Ring Magazine now lists the Teuton No. 9 among the challengers of Floyd Patterson.

Carter, 24, hasn't fought since Jan. 11, 1957 when he took a unanimous decision over Bob Baker with the greatest of ease.

Willi has a 37-11-7 record and lost five of seven last year. The high point of Besenboof's career, so far, was his Feb. 4 upset decision over Pat McMurry on the loser's home grounds in Seattle.

Carter has a 22-2-2 record for 26 starts.

Phils Sign Player, 19

ENDERBURY, B. C. (AP)—After only one season of semi-pro baseball, 19-year-old Gerald Reimer has gotten a chance with the majors.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Reimer, who previously had refused to permit their son to accept major league offers, announced Thursday he has signed with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Reimer, a left-handed outfielder is to report to the Johnson City, Tenn., team in the Appalachian League.

Reimer hit .478 last year for Yakima Valley Junior College and then played with the semi-pro Bellingham Bells.

Milwaukee Braves' rookie pitcher Don Nottebart is of Belgian descent.

Eugene Homer Beats Broncos

Bill Eastburn, the thundering Eugene outfielder-third baseman, slammed a solo home run in the 14th inning Thursday night to deal Lewiston's high flying Broncos a 3-2 Northwest League baseball defeat.

It allowed Wenatchee's Chiefs, who bumped Yakima 4-3, to move within five and a half games of Lewiston.

In the other NWL contest, Tri-City rolled over Salem, 13-5, in an error filled free-for-all.

Eastburn's homer over the left field wall broke up a hurling duel between Lewiston's Thornton "Kip" Kipper and the Emerald's Borlyv Hodges, both of whom went the distance.

Hodges scattered 12 hits and gave up only seven singles and whiffed five.

It was a radically different type of ball at Salem, where the Senators bobbed six times and Tri-City twice.

The Braves came through for 17 hits, bunching several of them in the five-run sixth inning, including Ray Looney's two-run round-tripper.

Each club tried three pitchers in an attempt to play a more settled brand of baseball. Jim Vogelgesang wound up with the win, to move his season record to 4-2.

It proved to be tight contest a Yakima, when the Bears staged a three-run uprising in the last frame. Wenatchee's four runs, which they garnered in the first two innings, began to look mighty slim until reliever Duane Richards stepped in to aid starter Claude Osteen by getting the last man out.

Two Prep Stars In Portland Meet

PORTLAND (AP)—Two of Oregon's outstanding high school track athletes will compete here Saturday in the annual Oregon AAU high school and junior track meet.

One is Jim Puckett, the Cove sprinter who is expected to enter the 100-yard dash but to pass up with 220 in favor of the 440 this weekend.

The other is Dyrrol Burlison, the Cottage Grove miler who set a national prep mile mark of 4:13.2 minutes earlier this season.

Two other Burlisons will come along, an older brother who will compete in the weight events and a 15-year-old sister who will run with three other Cottage Grove girls in a 440-yard relay.

Bill Sorsby, meet director, said 140 entrants had registered and he expected a total of 200 by Saturday afternoon.

Burlison says word he still is nursing a pulled leg muscle and does not expect to try for a record.

Junior and girls' events will start at 1 p.m., high school events at 5 p.m.

Aqua Skier Machen Hurt; Fight Called

SPOKANE (AP)—The scheduled June 19 heavyweight match here between Eddie Machen and Bert Whitehurst was cancelled Wednesday after a report that Machen hurt himself while water skiing.

"I'm plenty burned up," said matchmaker Mel Epstein, "and so is Tommy Moyer (the Portland promoter). We've lost a bundle on other fights in Spokane but thought we could make something out of this one."

Epstein said the card would have to be called off unless a new opponent can be found in a hurry for Whitehurst, a Baltimore batter. He said Moyer might try to get Pat McMurry of Tacoma but doubted they could get together on terms in the week remaining.

The international Golf Assn. has 30 member nations throughout the world.
