IN A BEAUTIFUL CANDLELIGHT ceremony at 8 p.m. Friday, June 6, Miss Sharon Faye Lander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lander of this city, became the bride of Kenneth Phillip Hammer, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Hammer of Sepulveda, Calif., at the North Roseburg EUB Church. The Rev. Lyle Willard performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of family members. (Picture by Art French, Photo Lab).

White floorbaskets of pink snapdragons and Canterbury bells and white carnations and white candles in candelabra formed the altar decorations. White bells ornamented the church windows. Roger and Larry McLaughlin, nephews of the bride, lighted the altar candles for the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a street-length full-skirted frock of sheer white tulle, styled with an embroidered bodice and short sleeves. Her slippers were white and she wore a corsage of pink roses. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Elwood McLaughlin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a pink street-length dress with a corsage of lavender carnations. Richard Hammer of Los Angeles, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The young people are making their home in Portland following a honeymoon trip to the coast.

The bride was very active in school affairs here. She was graduated from Roseburg High School and attended Azusa College at Azusa, Calif. She is presently employed as private secretary to the president of the Portland Union Stockyards and of the Pacific International Exposition.

The bridegroom was graduated from Cutler High School in Sepulveda and attended Azusa College. He is majoring in education and plans to enter Cascade College in Portland this fall.

CUTTING the traditional first piece of wedding cake are Nona Darleen Hill and John H. Jeffries, who were married May 11 at the First Christian Church by the Rev. Newell Morgan. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hill and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Jeffries, all of Roseburg. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

The double ring ceremony was held in the reception room. The serving table was covered with white tulle and held the large three-tiered wedding cake which had been made by Mrs. Howard Baker. The white, pink and silver cake was topped by the traditional wedding figurines and wedding bells. After the newly-married couple had cut the first slice, Mrs. Byron Harmon cut and served the cake; Mrs. Walter Kruse and Mrs. Charles Ricketts served punch and coffee. Kay Jeffries, sister of the bridegroom, and Sonya Hjelseth had charge of the gifts and Melissa Hill, sister of the bride, presented the guest book.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries honeymooned in Reno and San Francisco. For traveling, the bride wore a powder blue suit with white accessories and her white wedding orchid.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in her ballerina-length wedding dress of white lace over satin. The gown was styled with a full skirt with satin cummerbund and a bodice with high scalloped neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Her short veil was caught with a headpiece of tulle and seed pearls. She carried a white orchid atop a white Bible.

Miss Betty Knight was maid of honor. She was attired in a yellow full-skirted frock and carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Rex Jeffries, home on leave from the U.S. Navy, acted as best man for his brother. Ushers were a cousin of the bridegroom, Norman Jeffries, and Lyman Hart and Bill Bowman.

The bride's mother wore a light blue suit with white accessories; the bridegroom's mother wore navy blue with white accessories. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

A reception was given by the bride's parents in the social rooms of the church. Mrs. Raymond Clark had charge of the reception and was assisted by members of the church. Mrs. Charles Ricketts was responsible for the lovely decorations of yellow wisteria and iris, with dainty fans and wedding invitations.

Here from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Steiner of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Hill of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Dale O'Hara and Mr. and Mrs. George Conners, all of Talent; and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hill of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Schlick served lovely refreshments following the opening of the gifts and the enjoyable social hour.

ing Miss Krebs were breakfasts, luncheons and teas in the homes of some of the members of the guild.

Saturday evening, the group enjoyed a potluck dinner. The time was spent visiting and becoming better acquainted with the honored guest.

A coffee hour in the social room of the church followed the Sunday morning service. Miss Krebs was welcomed by many church members and friends at this fellowship time. A trip up the North Umpqua and a picnic supper highlighted the afternoon and evening hours. Miss Krebs was most appreciative of the beautiful scenery.

The concluding event of her visit was Monday evening at a progressive dinner held in the homes of various members of the guild. At the close of the evening an impressive farewell service was observed at which time Miss Krebs was presented with a gift from the group.

Members of the guild who have corresponded with Miss Krebs and who have been interested in her welfare for a period of over 12 years are as follows: Mable Agee, Paula Anderson, Esther Campbell, Verna Carothers, Luella Cunningham, Ina Farnsworth, Vera Fredrickson, Reba Hartley, Ethel Hecathorn, Florence Lozier, Gertrude Rast, Elmer Sherk, Bessie Siemers, Alta Simonson, Orlena Slattery, Luella Whitehead and Dorothy Williams.
