Lee of Van Nuys, Calif., May 27, at the Methodist Church in Myrtle Creek. The Rev. Cyril Dorsett officiated. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek).

Miss Jackie Mary Trees, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Trees of Myrtle Creek, and Gary Dean Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd G. Lee, Van Nuys, Calif., were united in marriage at an impressive double ring ceremony May 27 at 7 p.m. The sacred vows were read by the Rev. Cyril Dorsett at the Methodist Church in Myrtle Creek before 75 relatives and friends.

The church was decorated with a profusion of spring flowers arranged by Mrs. Orin Stumpges. Mrs. Stumpges sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Ed Walters.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white embroidered tulle. She wore a finger-tip illusion veil and carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white carnations and lily of the valley.

Miss Janice Trees, sister of the bride, wore a pink nylon gown and wore a pink carnation corsage. Bonnie Catheart and Roberta Farrel of Myrtle Creek, wore blue and pink taffeta ballerina-length gowns with white carnation corsages. Her other attendants were Clarence Humphreys and Myrna Stumpges, who lighted the candles.

Larry Lee, brother of the bridegroom, from Van Nuys, Calif., was the best man. Weldon W. Barnes and Robert Linecum of Myrtle Creek acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony the guests were invited to attend a reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Westwong of Myrtle Creek. The table was decorated with the traditional three-tiered wedding cake and spring flowers. Serving at the reception were Mrs. Fred O'Neal, Mrs. Melvin Deen and Mrs. Raymond Gaugler of Myrtle Creek. Judy Trees, sister of the bride, attended the guest book. Mrs. Orin Stumpges, Mrs. Mack Hayes and Mrs. Westwong were in charge of the gift table. The bride's mother wore a lovely navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue and white street-length dress with white accessories and white carnation corsage. The couple left for their wedding trip to Clear Lake, Calif. Mrs. Lee chose a white suit and accessories with a white carnation corsage from her bridal bouquet as her going away costume. The couple will be at home in Los Angeles, Calif., after June 2. Both young people were graduated from Myrtle Creek High School with the class of 1958. They plan to attend college this fall.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Melvin Christman of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert White of Roseburg and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lee and family of Van Nuys, Calif.
