Move To Close Stores Hits Linn. Co. Setback

ALBANY, Ore. (AP)—The move for closure of stores on Sunday will suffer a further setback in Linn County this coming weekend. D. O. Bevans, district manager of Safeway stores, said his firm's stores at Lebanon and Sweet Home, which were closed last Sunday, will be open next Sunday. That will follow the lead of four Albany stores, including two of Safeway's, which opened their doors in Albany last Sunday, despite a grocer-minister sponsored move that had resulted in Sunday store closures at all major markets in the county since March 2.

ONPA TO MEET

CORVALLIS (AP)—The Oregon Newspaper Publishers Assn. will hold its annual meeting at Oregon State College Friday and Saturday. Banquet speaker Friday night will be Jack Lloyd Jones, editor of the Tulsa, Okla., Tribune. Jones recently returned from a tour of Russia.

Machinists Local Found Guilty Of Unfair Acts

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A National Labor Relations Board examiner Friday found a Machinists Union local guilty of unfair labor practices against the Industrial Chrome Plating Co. of Portland, Ore.

Howard Myers, the examiner, ruled that Machinists district lodge No. 24 had picketed the company illegally from last Dec. 23 to March 26.

Myers held that the union tried to use the picketing to win bargaining rights, but said the workers formed the Industrial Chrome Independent Union and cast a majority of votes Jan. 23 for that group as bargaining agency.

The examiner recommended that the Machinists promise not to interfere with the employees or their independent union.
