

TAU ETA ETA held an installation dinner party at Winston in the beautiful garden house of Mrs. Philip E. Johnson on the South Umpqua River recently. Ruth Bradley did the catering. Pictured above are (back row) Mrs. Bob Anderson, Mrs. Jessie Walker, Mrs. Wayne Wheeler, Mrs. Bill House, Mrs. Earnest Peel, Mrs. Cris Sabala and Mrs. Dale Made. Front row: Mrs. Harold Walton, Mrs. Charles Kinyon, Mrs. Roy Woodall, Mrs. Austin Welt and Mrs. Bud Elliott. New officers below are vice president, Mrs. Wayne Wheeler; secretary, Mrs. Austin Welt; president, Mrs. Charles Kinyon, and treasurer, Mrs. Earnest Peel. (Pictures by Kash, Winston Studio).

Tau Eta Eta Club Installs Officers

Tau Eta Eta held a combined installation-dinner meeting in Winston recently in the home of Mrs. P. Johnson, with Mrs. Ruth Bradley as cateress.

Mrs. Jesse Walker, installing officer, installed the following officers, President, Mrs. Charles Kinyon; vice president, Mrs. Wayne Wheeler; secretary, Mrs. Austin Welt; treasurer, Mrs. Earnest Peel. Following the installation service, Mrs. Charles Kinyon was in charge of the meeting and welcomed to office Mrs. Zeke Walton, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Bill House, scribe; and Mrs. Bill House, Mrs. John Elliott and Mrs. Earnest Peel, as Trustees.

Committees at large welcomed were Mrs. Roy Woodall, sunshine; and Mrs. Gerry Smith, Mrs. Ted Vreitas and Mrs. Bob Anderson, welfare.

A past president's pin and a potted fuchsia, was presented to the retiring president, Mrs. Jesse Walker, who thanked the group for the gifts, and for cooperation for the past year.

Preceding dinner, a tour of the beautiful landscaped grounds was made by the group.

An invited guest and speaker of the evening was Mrs. Leo Wilson of Winston who spoke on "Framing and Making Pictures in the Home." Mrs. Wilson demonstrated several pictures and the process of making them.

BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED AT CHARMING SHOWER

A very lovely surprise miscellaneous bridal shower was given recently at the Camas Valley Grange Hall in honor of Miss Charlotte Barcus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mars Southwick of Camas Valley. Miss Barcus is to be married June 26 to Ronald P. Munch.

Mixed floral arrangements were used about the grange hall and an arrangement of roses centered the lace covered table on which the shower gifts were placed. Beautiful corsages were presented to the bride-elect and her mother.

Following the opening of the many lovely gifts, delicious refreshments were served to Miss Barcus and to Mrs. Charles Crouch, Sherrill and LeAnn Moody, Mrs. Robert Wheeler, Mrs. Gay Looney, Mrs. Willie Carter, Mrs. Ford Baker, Mrs. Oral Salle, Mrs. Don Lawson, Mrs. Howard Milton, Mrs. Jess McMaster, Mrs. Dean Delaney, Mrs. Frank Kinnin, Mrs. Don Ross, Mrs. James Combs, Alice Jones, Mrs. Les Catepole, Mrs. Phil Boyd, Mrs. Mars Southwick, Mrs. Tom Weathers, Mrs. Irwin Smith, Mrs. Richard Thrush, Mrs. Jim Weathers, Judy Milton, Dorothy Looney, Judy Defferding, Sherry Looney, Mrs. Ernest Wheeler, Maxine Dancier, Mrs. Jack Parrott, Mrs. Ray Dancer, Mrs. Louis Papp, Mrs. Dorris Lamm, Mrs. Richard Munch, Mrs. E. A. Markham, Mrs. Neal Brown and daughters, Barbara and Elizabeth; Mrs. Frank Brown and grandson, Larry; Mrs. Clyde Akey and daughter, Lynne, all of Camas Valley; Mrs. Margaret Stair, Newburg, N.D.; Mrs. Jerry Stroud, Morton, Wash.; Mrs. Dale Ross, Roseburg, and Mrs. Fred Southwick, Lookingglass.

INCOMING OFFICERS of the Roseburg Business and Professional Women's Club installed at an impressive ceremony Monday night at the Roseburg Woman's Clubhouse are pictured above. Left to right: Florence Snedaker, corresponding secretary; Charlotte Hyre, recording secretary;

Margaret Beeley, treasurer; Connie Jean Judd, proxy for Lillian Stratton, second vice president; Edith LaBoe, first vice president; Arta Fowler, president; and Elsie V. Downing, Myrtle Point, president of the Oregon State Federation of BPW Clubs. (Picture by Clark's Studio)

PAST PRESIDENT Mrs. Jessie Walker of Tau Eta Eta Club, pictured above at left, hands over the gavel to the newly installed president, Mrs. Charles Kinyon. The installation took place at the Philip E. Johnson garden house on the South Umpqua River at Winston. (Picture by Kash of Winston Studio).

MRS. NICKENS TO HEAD ROSEBURG PNG CLUB

The Past Noble Grands Club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl Nickens. Hostesses were Mrs. Nickens, Elma Zimrick, Ada Hanna, Hilda Howe and Evelyn Fredrickson. Bouquets of beautiful roses were used about the rooms.

A 7:30 dessert supper was served to guests, Vesta Langfield, Bernice McDonald and Sue Sanders, and members, Mayme Piekens, Elsie Mills, Susan Bowman, Margaret Saunders, Ruth Hesse, Ethel Bailey, Susie Jackson, Ethel Busenbark, Mattie Connell, Maggie Dent, Rubie Bloom, Osa Williams, Mamie Felt, Daynise Beach, Dorothy Neal, Faye Jensen, Lena Poole, Lydia Roadman, Ella Lemox, Gertrude Hatfield, Velma Hirsman, Alice Goff, Alvia Wetherall and Daisie Daum.

New officers were installed by Alice Goff and Mayme Piekens. They are: President, LaVerne Nickens; vice president, Margaret Saunders; secretary, Daynise Beach; treasurer, Dorothy Neal.

The next meeting will be a picnic Friday, July 18, at 6:30 p.m. at Umpqua Park for members and their families. Secret Pal names will be drawn at this time. Members are to bring food and their own table service, coffee and cream to furnished by the club.

SIXTEEN teachers were present at the reunion at Umpqua and who had taught there between 1909 and 1958. Standing (left to right) Delorne Henry, Evelyn Elkins, Beulah Kimball, Pearl Hand, Irma Andersen, Genevieve Murphy. (Middle row) Addie Hall, Ruth Manning, Anna Rainwater and Margaret Ware. Front row: Vera Bacon, Verus Matthewman, Agnes Caylor, Thora Powell and Laura Winniford.

AMONG THE FIRST teachers at Umpqua were Mrs. Bessie Edwards of Roseburg, above left, and Mrs. Irma Andersen of Eugene. They taught at Umpqua in 1909 and 1910.

MATILDA S. RAPELJE, above, left, retiring president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, presents the gavel to the incoming president, Arta Fowler, at installation of officers party held at the Roseburg Woman's Clubhouse Monday evening. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

BPWC Installs New Officers Monday Night

Roseburg Business and Professional Women's Club installation dinner took place at the Roseburg Woman's Club Monday at 7 p.m. President Matilda S. Rapelje was mistress of ceremonies.

The emblem service was presented by Connie Jean Judd and Edythe Gilmour, followed by initiation of members, Floretta Anderson, Margaret Beeley, Orietta Dudley, Edna Helgeson, Fern Hobday, Bertha McCoy and Louise Pipes by membership chairman Frances Lintott, Matilda Rapelje and Arta Fowler.

Florence Snedaker presented the second-year scholarship award to Miss Judy Barnhart.

Installing officer for the candlelight service was Elsie V. Downing of Myrtle Point, Oregon State Federation president. She was assisted by State Corresponding Secretary Doris Nashlund.

Lovely corsages were presented to outgoing officers Matilda Rapelje, Arta Fowler, Connie Jean Judd, Charlotte Hyre, Edythe Gilmour, Margaret Beeley and Alvia Wetherell.

Incoming officers installed for the year 1958-59 were Arta Fowler, president; Edith LaBoe, first vice president; Lillian Stratton, second vice president; Charlotte Hyre, recording secretary; Florence Snedaker, corresponding secretary; Margaret Beeley, treasurer; Geneva Hyde, sergeant-at-arms. They were presented with corsages.

Doris Cooksey sang two numbers, "The Desert Song" and "Toy Land," with Frances Lintott at the piano.

Small tokens of appreciation were given to the outgoing officers and committee chairmen by Matilda S. Rapelje, who in turn was presented with a lovely gift from the membership.

The dinner, served at a beautifully decorated table to 39 members and guests, was catered by Ruth Bradley.

YONCALLA SAFETY CLUB HAS OUTING AT COAST

Yoncalla Lions Club sponsored a day's outing for students of Yoncalla grade school, who were members of the Safety Club for the school during the past year. The group drove to the coast where they enjoyed a picnic dinner at Honeyman Park and a tour of Sea Lions Caves.

Mrs. Pauline Latham, safety advisor of the grade school, and Mrs. Latham, Mr. and Mrs. Les Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Allen from the Lions Club chaperoned the group.

Those enjoying the outing were Nancy Dodd, Jo Van Krevelin, Yonza Thompson, Barbara Dodd, Tommy Ellis, Jerome Moen, Larry Hoagland, Henry Byron, Michael Latham, Brian Timmons, Ray Pond, Darrell Brainard, Cullis Huntington, Charlotte, Beaton, Sherry Pontius, Carlene Meyers, Gordon Smith, Charles Wood, Jane Green, Mary Adams, Sharon Knight, Mary Abbott, Jimmy Jane Edin, Cheryl Bjork, Kathy Wood and Roger Carney.

BACONS ENTERTAIN FRIENDSHIP CARD CLUB

Lovely arrangements of azaleas and Canterbury bells were used to decorate the rooms when Mr. and Mrs. John Bacon entertained the Friendship Card Club Saturday evening at their home.

The hostess served baked ham and salmon with the potluck dinner which was served at 7 o'clock to Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schosso, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hand, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Thiele, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hutchinson and Mr. and Mrs. Bacon.

High score for men was held by Virgil Hutchinson and low score by Alfred Hand. Ladies high score was received by Mrs. Haines and ladies low by Mrs. Hand. Sweep prizes were received by Herman Schosso and Mrs. Chisworth.

THE OLDEST TEACHER of the Umpqua School present at the reunion was Mrs. Lucy Brack Kruse (in wheel chair), who makes her home at Roberts Creek. She will soon be 89. With her are two cousins, Mrs. Alta Fortin Wasm and William Fortin, both of whom came from Idaho for the affair.

The 2nd annual Umpqua School reunion was held at the Umpqua School Sunday for all pupils and teachers who had attended the Coles Valley, Day, Tye and Millwoods schools which now comprise the one school.

A potluck dinner was served at 1 p.m. to about 150 people. A wonderful time was enjoyed as old friends met after many years. Mrs. Lucy Kruse of Roseburg who will be 89 this fall was the oldest pupil there. She had attended school in the Coles Valley School when about five years old.

The meeting was conducted by the chairman, Delmar Murphy, who was re-elected for the coming year. Mrs. Delorne Henry was elected secretary. Next year's meeting will be at Umpqua on the second Sunday in June.

Seventeen teachers were present, all but one still living in Douglas County. They are: Bessie Edwards, Delorne Henry, Thora Powell, Ruth Manning, Agnes Caylor, Beulah Kimball, Margaret Ware, Genevieve Murphy, Irma Andersen, Pearl Hand, Vera Bacon, Vera Matthews, Evelyn Elkins, Anna Rainwater, Laura Winniford and Addie Hall.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Baird and family of Winnemucca, Nev.; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lovelace, Mrs. Leta Lovelace and Harry Lovelace, all of Drain; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wasm and family, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Will Fortin, Mr. and Mrs. John Wasm and Mrs. Vivian Childers, all of Grangeville, Idaho; Mrs. Mary Hanson, Madras; Mrs. Verus Leach of Fenn, Idaho; Mrs. Oliver Hittle of Milton Freewater; Mr. and Mrs. William Paulsen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adkison, Mrs. Irma Andersen, Mrs. Marie Plasted and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Woodson, Eugene; Myrtle Ellison, Mrs.