

Dr. Jack Nearing Locates Dental Office in Riddle

By ERMA BEST
Dr. Jack P. Nearing of Portland, a recent graduate of the University of Oregon dental school, plans to locate in Riddle, and will open his practice shortly in the Leroy Hanna building.

Dr. and Mrs. Nearing and five children are moving to Riddle this week to occupy the rental on Third street belonging to Mrs. Asa Lawson.

Attends Rose Festival
Returning from the Rose Festival in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pruner stopped in Eugene to see their daughter, Mrs. Paul Campbell, receive her degree from the school of education at the University of Oregon graduation exercises Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Huffman left Monday for La Grande where they will visit Mrs. Huffman's two sisters and two brothers who live in that area. Mrs. Huffman is on vacation from her position as post office clerk.

Mrs. James Carrell, her daughter, Olive, and Mrs. H. Bishop drove to Portland last week taking Mrs. Carrell's sister, Barbara Woolman, and Edna Newcomb to the bus terminal. Barbara took a bus by way of Seattle, Wn., for her home in Fremont, Mont., and Miss Newcomb left for Hanna, Utah where she will visit relatives. Mrs. Homer Knapp and five children of Portland and Eugene and Kenneth Gallagher were recent visitors at the home of their mother, Mrs. H. W. Hiles and Mr. Hiles. Kenneth had just received word that his application to enter Pullman College, Walla Walla, Wash., next fall had been accepted. He is transferring from Oregon state College to complete his course as a veterinarian.

Mrs. Tex Ritter has returned from Portland where she attended the Rose Festival in company with Canyonville friends.

Class Has Reunion
Mrs. Glenn Willis attended the 45th reunion of her class of 1913 which was held at the University of Oregon June 14. Mr. and Mrs. Willis were returning from Portland where they had gone for the Shriners convention and Masonic Grand Lodge.

STRIKE CONTINUES
PORTLAND (AP)—The United Steelworkers of America continued Thursday a strike against General Metalcraft Inc. It started picketing Monday night after negotiations failed to produce a contract to replace one that ran out April 1.

More than 55 men are employed at the plant.

St. George's Apron Workshop Wednesday

St. George's Episcopal Guild will sponsor an apron workshop Wednesday at the parish hall at 10 a. m.

Mrs. Dan O'Bannon, chairman, has planned work that everyone can do. It is emphasized that anyone with a pair of scissors and an idea is invited to come. No sewing will be done on the aprons at this time, but those attending should bring scissors, pins, patterns, large or small pieces of material and trimming.

Those wishing to stay through the lunch hour are asked to bring a sack lunch and Mrs. O'Bannon will furnish coffee.

This is the first of several workshops to be held between now and the annual bazaar later in the year.

Former Local Resident Passes In Portland
James J. Royce, 65, Portland, a former Roseburg resident, died last Sunday in a Portland hospital.

A daughter, Mrs. Roy Byrd, Roseburg, survives as does the widow, who formerly was chief operator for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in Roseburg for a number of years.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in Portland.
